NEW JERSEY
MOTOR VEHICLE COMMISSION

APPLICATION FOR MOTORCYCLE OR MOPED TITLE
(Please print or type required information.)

INSTRUCTIONS

To title a Motorcycle or Moped, the following is required:

1. A legible photograph of the motorcycle or moped being titled. The photograph must show a profile of the vehicle being titled and show all features such as a seat and pedals (if applicable).
2. A legible photograph of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) label certifying that the vehicle conforms to Federal safety standards for that model year.
3. A legible photograph of Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Emission Label certifying that the vehicle conforms to EPA regulations for the model.
4. A legible photograph of the EPA noise label certifying that the vehicle meets federal noise limits.
5. ALL PHOTOGRAPHS BECOME THE PROPERTY OF THE NEW JERSEY MOTOR VEHICLE COMMISSION.
6. Manufacturer's Certificate of Origin, Manufacturer's Statement of Origin, Title (Certificate of Ownership), or notarized bill of sale and registration.

New Jersey has two classifications of Motorcycles / Motorized Bicycles (Mopeds):

1. A Moped must be less than 50CCs, operate under 25 MPH per the manufacturer's specifications, and have operable pedals. The operator of a Moped must be at least 15 years of age or older and possess a moped, motorcycle-only, basic auto, or CDL license.
2. Any other two- or three-wheeled vehicle is considered to be a Motorcycle (except for electric and low speed vehicles under 25 MPH per the manufacturer's specifications). The operator of a Motorcycle must be 17 years of age or older and possess a motorcycle-only license or motorcycle endorsement.
