Meggin O'Krepki

Meggin has been interested in art ever since she can remember. Whenever she has spare time she is doodling in her sketchbook. Because of her determination and support from family, friends, and teachers, Meggin will be fulfilling her life long dream by attending art school and studying illustration this fall. When she is not drawing, Meggin is taking part in her school's National Honor Society, serving as the school magazine's editor-in-chief, or playing for her youth group's volleyball team.
