POSTER SET ON RESCUE: Traits that Transcend

courage • ingenuity • cooperation • integrity • compassion social responsibility • moral leadership • self-sacrifice

The Jewish Foundation for the Righteous' POSTER SET ON RESCUE: Traits that Transcend offers educators a visually appealing tool that they can use to teach about rescue during the Holocaust while highlighting traits that young people can cultivate and bring to bear in their own lives. The posters feature men and women from all walks of life who risked their lives to save Jews in Nazi-occupied Europe during World War II.

The poster set includes:

- Eight (17" x 22") posters – each one links two rescuers to one of the above traits.
- A teacher's guide that includes…
  - An overview of key issues to consider when teaching the subject of rescue.
  - Suggestions for using the posters and the rescue stories in the classroom.
  - A list of books, films, and websites that focus on rescue.
- Access to sixteen one-page handouts, each of which tells the story of one of the rescuers. The stories can be downloaded as PDFs from our website – www.jfr.org.

The JFR's POSTER SET ON RESCUE: Traits that Transcend is ideal for classrooms, libraries, and houses of worship. The posters, rescue stories, and teacher's guide will help educators teach the subject of rescue in a historically rich, accessible, and meaningful way. The stories presented will offer students a unique insight into the Holocaust and will challenge them to tap their own potential.

WHY TRAITS THAT TRANSCEND?

By exhibiting these traits in their efforts to save Jews, ordinary people transcended their own limitations and the obstacles that stood in their paths.

By affirming the potential they have to show courage or ingenuity or self-sacrifice in their own lives, students will realize that these traits transcend the confines of history.

The JFR's POSTER SET ON RESCUE is designed for use in both Holocaust education and character education. The poster set costs $43.00 plus $7.00 for shipping. Order your set today. Please allow four weeks for delivery.

Self-Sacrifice

Giving up personal wants and needs for the sake of others or for a cause.

During the Holocaust there were individuals who showed self-sacrifice in rescuing Jews.

Jadviga Konochowicz
Poland
Jadviga, her parents, and her seven siblings sheltered a Jewish family on their farm for more than a year. Although they lived in poverty, Jadviga and her family put the welfare of the eight Jewish strangers before their own.

Aristides de Sousa Mendes
France
A Portuguese diplomat in France, Aristides issued visas to thousands of Jews so they could travel through Spain to Portugal. Furious about his actions, the Portuguese government recalled Aristides and dismissed him from his post.

THE JEWISH FOUNDATION for the righteous

The Jewish Foundation for the Righteous provides financial support to Christians and Muslims who rescued Jews during the Holocaust and preserves their legacy through its national Holocaust education program.
