RE: Petrocelli Electric of South Jersey, LLC
DGE No. 7172-70 Vendor No. 72772
Withdrawal of Vendor Registration

Dear Director Rebuck:

In April 2008, Petrocelli of South Jersey, LLC (PESJ) filed an initial casino service industry enterprise license application with the Casino Control Commission (Commission). The Commission did not request that PESJ file this application, nor was its filing required under Commission regulations. PESJ, moreover, was not conducting business with the Atlantic City gaming industry at the time its application was filed.

On February 1, 2011, as a result of legislative amendments to the Casino Control Act (Act), jurisdiction over casino service industry enterprises transferred from the Commission to the Division of Gaming Enforcement (Division). Further, all applications pending at that time converted to vendor status. L. 2011, c. 19, § 134.

By letter dated August 30, 2011, the Division requested, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 13:69A-5.11, that PESJ have the casino licensee or applicant with which it was conducting business file an updated Vendor Registration Form on PESJ's behalf and that, within 30 days of the registration filing, PESJ file a Vendor Registration Supplemental Disclosure Form. Counsel for PESJ responded by letter dated October 13, 2011 advising that PESJ was not engaged in any business in the Atlantic City gaming industry and that, should those circumstances change, PESJ would then make any and all required vendor registration filings with the Division. Confirming that PESJ was not engaged in and had no immediate plans to engage in any business in the Atlantic City gaming industry, counsel for PESJ requested permission to withdraw its vendor registration by supplemental letter dated March 9, 2012.

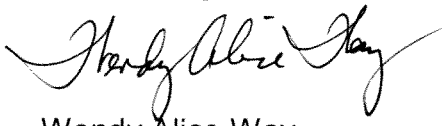
Prior to receipt of this withdrawal request, the Division conducted a preliminary investigation of PESJ. The results of that preliminary investigation, although incomplete, reflect no substantive derogatory information. PESJ, moreover, received one payment from an Atlantic City casino licensee or applicant – namely, Revel – in December 2009 in the amount of $9,087.

In light of the foregoing, the Division recommends, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 13:69A-8.6(a), that PESJ be permitted to withdraw its vendor registration, which resulted from the filing of its casino service industry enterprise license application and remains after the enactment of the recent legislative amendments to the Act. Further, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 13:69A-8.6(a), said withdrawal should be subject to the conditions that PESJ shall not be eligible to apply again for licensure, registration or approval until the expiration of one year from the date of withdrawal and that the initial casino service industry enterprise license application fee paid to the Commission shall not be refunded. This position is without prejudice to any position that the Division may take regarding any subsequent application or registration which may be made by PESJ.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,



Wendy Alice Way
Deputy Attorney General
