KIM GUADAGNO
LT. GOVERNOR

Dear Business Leader:

On behalf of Governor Chris Christie, welcome to the New Jersey Business Action Center web portal, your single point of contact for building and growing your business in the Garden State. We created this site to provide businesses of all sizes with the tools and resources they need in order to be successful, and to ensure that leaders across the country and the world know that New Jersey is "open for business."

Whether it is reducing the burden of taxation, eliminating regulatory hurdles or providing an impressive array of financial incentives, New Jersey is taking concrete steps to improve our business climate and create jobs and opportunity for our residents. This site is just one more example of that commitment.

I encourage you to check back frequently for updates and new information on how we are working to make New Jersey a "Home for Growth." If you have any questions about starting, relocating or operating a business in our State, please contact the Business Action Center at 866-534-7789, or e-mail us any time at http://www.nj.gov/njbusiness/home/contact.shtml.

Sincerely,

Kim Guadagno
