

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 6

WHEREAS, the Rules and Regulations governing the State of New Jersey require that certain individuals be designated by each State Department and Agency, as essential attendance employees in the event of a curtailment of State operations; and

WHEREAS, during prior curtailments of State operations, official monitors employed by the New Jersey Casino Control Commission were designated as non-essential employees, resulting in the closing of all New Jersey casinos and a loss of tax revenues to the State of New Jersey in excess of $1 million per day during the period of curtailment; and

WHEREAS, this circumstance is not in the best interest of the citizens of the State of New Jersey;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, CHRIS CHRISTIE, Governor of the State of New Jersey, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and by the Statutes of this State do hereby, ORDER, and DIRECT:

1. Those monitors and other employees of the New Jersey Casino Control Commission whose attendance is required for New Jersey casinos to be permitted to operate are essential attendance employees within the meaning of Title 4A of the New Jersey Administrative Code and other applicable laws and regulations.

2. Within 15 days of this Order, the Casino Control Commission shall designate and identify those monitors employed by the Casino Control Commission and any other employee of the Casino Control Commission whose attendance is required in order for casinos to be permitted to operate in the State of New Jersey as essential attendance employees and shall comply with the requirements of New Jersey Statutes and Code with respect to such designation. This Order shall take effect immediately

3. This Order shall take effect immediately.

GIVEN, under my hand and seal this 20th day of January,
Two Thousand and Ten, and of the Independence of the United States, the Two Hundred and Thirty-Fourth.

[seal]

/s/ Chris Christie

Governor

Attest:

/s/ Jeffrey S. Chiesa

Chief Counsel to the Governor