

Mercer County Park Commission's

First Annual

National Public Lands Day

Helping Hands for America's Lands

Sunday ☒ October 4, 2009 ☒ Baldpate Mountain

A call for COMMUNITY VOLUNTEERS to:

- Remove invasive species from the forest
- Harvest native plant seed for use in future land restorations
- Improve trail conditions

Sunday, October 4 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Meet at the Fiddlers Creek Road Parking Lot

From there volunteers will be shuttled to the Visitor Center for a coffee and bagel reception, sponsored by the Master Gardeners of Mercer County. Volunteer groups will then be sent on their way!

Participants: Please bring work gloves, water and trail snacks, as this will not be available at the site. If you have trimmers or loppers, bring a pair to use!

ALL VOLUNTEERS must pre-register with the Mercer County Park Commission by 9/30/2009. To sign up, call 609-883-6606 x 112 or email: jlear@mercercounty.org
This event is limited to 50 participants.

National Public Lands Day is the nation's largest hands-on volunteer effort to improve and enhance the public lands Americans enjoy. In 2008, 120,000 volunteers built trails and bridges, removed trash and invasive plants, and planted over 1.6 million trees. Join us for the 16th annual National Public Lands Day.
