

STATE FIRE MARSHAL MESSAGE

www.state.nj.us/dca/dfs/

February 2011

Please forward to Public Education:

The 2011 OPERATION 7: Save A Life kicked off in New York City. Major sponsors Kidde, Home Depot and Toyota now join ABC 7 to assist the New Jersey Division of Fire Safety in distributing smoke alarms at no charge to needy state residents through local fire departments.

Jersey City Fire Director Armando Roman and Fire Chief Darren Rivers among the invited guests at the kickoff breakfast

The distribution from OPERATION 7: Save A Life covers fire departments in the northern areas of the state. A similar one is sponsored for firefighters in southern NJ by ABC 6 in Philadelphia. Contact:

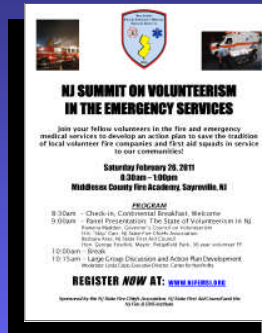

www.6abc.com

NJDFS OPERATION 7: Save a Life coordinator Charles Luxton will be distributing the smoke alarms directly. Please contact him by clicking the link below describing your 2011 smoke alarm giveaway needs.

cluxton@dca.state.nj.us

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

NJ VOLUNTEER SUMMIT

The situation for state volunteer fire and first aid corps is one of growing concern. What can we do to maintain and encourage the tradition of volunteerism in our communities?

The NJ Fire & EMS Institute, The NJ State Fire Chiefs Association, and The NJ First Aid Council are sponsoring a major summit to formulate an action plan. Bring your ideas and solutions and REGISTER NOW at:

www.njfemsi.org

PROTECT THOSE WHO PROTECT US

CHECK OUT THIS DURACELL BATTERY PROMOTION FOR VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENTS:

WWW.DURACELL.COM