Title	10	Human Services
Chapter	133G	Client Information	5/21/2007
Subchapter:	2	Disclosure Of Client Information To A Client
Section	4	Minor client (N.J.A.C. 10:133G-2.4)

§10:133G-2.4 Minor client

(a) A current or former minor client may receive information contained in the Division's case record, which has not been previously disclosed, through a request made by the minor client's parent, except when the circumstances in (c) below apply.

(b) When providing information to a minor client, the Division representative shall present that information in a manner determined by the Division representative to be consistent with and appropriate to the minor client's age or condition, to enable the minor client to understand the basis for the Division's involvement, the minor client's ability to cope with the information, and, for a current minor client, the minor client's ability to participate in the development, discussion, or implementation of the case plan pursuant to N.J.S.A. 9:6-8.10a.c. Information which may be disclosed on behalf of a minor client is limited in the same manner as described in N.J.A.C. 10:133G-2.1 through 2.3.

(c) A Division representative may make an exception to the parental request requirement when:

1. The information sought is not restricted by law, regulation, or policy; and
2. The requirement of parental involvement would interfere with the child's right to privacy (for example, a female child who has had a pregnancy or abortion of which her parent has no knowledge) or interfere with other rights the child may have as a result of circumstances making him or her an emancipated minor.
