Cervids not known to be affected with or exposed to tuberculosis that originate from other herds (i.e. non-Accredited, non-Modified or non-Qualified herds) may be moved interstate if they are accompanied by a certificate stating that such cervids have been classified negative in two official tuberculosis tests that were conducted no less than 90 days apart, that the second test was conducted within 90 days prior to the date of movement, and that the animals were isolated from all other members of the herd during the testing period. Additionally, the Cervid UM&R has NO minimum age standards for testing of cervids for interstate movements from herds that are unclassified. IMPORTANT NOTE: NO NEW JERSEY ZOOLOGICAL HOLDING OWNER AND/OR FACILITY MAY OBTAIN ANY POTENTIALLY DANGEROUS WILDLIFE SPECIES WITHOUT PRIOR WRITTEN APPROVAL FROM THE WILDLIFE PERMITS UNIT STAFF.

No Zoological Holding activity is allowed before your permit application has been received with the correct fee, health certificates, documentation, and any other current, relevant state or federal required permits, and your application has been approved and a permit has been issued.

A minimum of four weeks from receipt by the Wildlife Permits Unit Exotic and Nongame Wildlife Species section is required to process a permit application.

The Division of Fish & Wildlife's primary concern is public safety and animal welfare.

*NEW JERSEY IS A NO CONTACT STATE. WILDLIFE MUST BE EXHIBITED IN SUCH A MANNER AS TO PREVENT ANY POSSIBILITY OF PUBLIC CONTACT. NON-COMPLIANCE WITH ANY REGULATION COULD RESULT IN FINES, PENALTIES AND REVOCATION OF PERMIT. ****

EXAMPLES OF PROHIBITED CONTACT INCLUDE BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO THE FOLLOWING:

- Picture taking of the public holding regulated exotic and nongame wildlife.
- Hand feeding of regulated exotic and nongame wildlife by the public.
- Exhibition of any potentially dangerous wildlife outside of approved cage.

The requested regulated exotic and nongame wildlife species must have the appropriate, current health certificates to ensure that they do not pose a threat to humans, native wildlife or agriculture, and that they are capable of Zoological Holding activities as indicated in your application.

It is the applicant's responsibility to provide veterinary care and proper diet for all regulated wildlife species. In order to avoid problems with animal health and to ensure public safety, feeding of regulated exotic and nongame wildlife species by the public is STRICTLY PROHIBITED.

All regulated Exotic and Nongame Wildlife entering New Jersey must have the appropriate current health certificates to ensure that there is no potential public health threat of any kind, native wildlife and/or agriculture and that the wildlife is free of any diseases. Health certificates must be enclosed with applicable quarterly reports.

Quarterly reports MUST BE SUBMITTED by the due date, even if no changes occur. Violation of this could result in possible penalties or fines.

It is the responsibility of the permittee to act in accordance with state, federal and worldwide health organization mandates regarding any current applicable circumstance, restriction, quarantine, etc. for the exhibition of health risk or restricted regulated wildlife species.

Caging will be evaluated to ensure that there is no chance of escape or injury to the regulated wildlife species or the public through direct contact. The caging facilities, size, construction materials, inclement weather shelter, water and food, etc., should be described in enough detail for the Wildlife Permits Unit, Exotic and Nongame Wildlife Permits staff, to evaluate public and animal safety. Perimeter fences at least 3.5 feet in height and at least 4 feet from the main cage must be used to prevent contact with the regulated wildlife. Alternately, Plexiglas type caging is allowed if the Division of Fish and Wildlife, Wildlife Permits Unit ascertains it to be safe.

 Animals may not be taken home with keepers, care takers, directors, and/or agents of your facility for any reason. If the animal requires twenty-four (24) hour care, it must be provided for at your facility or an approved licensed Veterinary clinic. *****
