Description: Streetscape of four two-story brick apartment buildings. The buildings have central round arch entrances and feature pattern brickwork. The buildings have front stoops and are separated from one another by alleys. Each building has a different color of brick used in the front facade. The buildings have brick parapets with simulated balusters and cast stone diamonds. Overall, the buildings retain a good degree of integrity; however, #96 has been altered and no longer has a parapet with simulated balusters as do the other three. All four buildings have four window bays on the second floor. Number 96 and #92 also have four window bays on the first floor while #84 and #88 only have two. (Individual survey forms were also prepared for each property.)

Description: Two-story brick apartment building with raised basement, front stoop, and central round arch entrance. It has pattern brickwork and a parapet with simulated balustrade and cast stone ornamentation. This building is identical to #92, except for a different color of brick used on the front facade. The front facade has been refaced, and unlike buildings #84, #88 and #92, this one no longer retains all its pattern brickwork and simulated balustrade in the parapet.
