

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: Gerald L. Kennedy, Jr.

Education:

1964 B.S. University of Notre Dame (Biology and Chemistry)
1970 M.S. Northwestern University Medical School (Biochemistry)

Certification:

1980 Diplomate of the American Board of Toxicology (DABT)

Employment History:

- 1964-1976 Northwestern University Medical School, Pathology Department
Lecturer in Nutrition and Biochemistry
- Maintained graduate teaching and training program in pathology for both the Medical and Dental schools.
 - Responsible for scheduling, materials supply, and facilities maintenance.
 - Assisted and taught in nutrition and biochemistry programs and supervised applied pathology laboratory classes.
- 1977-2009 DuPont Company, Haskell Laboratory for Toxicology and Industrial Health
- Worked with, directed, and consulted with staff of 200 persons working in toxicological research where main responsibility was to provide information to allow proper handling of chemicals and products of the DuPont Company.
 - Established and chaired an internal committee which established airborne control limits for chemicals used within the Company.
 - Interacted with other scientists from academia, industry, and government to assure use of best practices in protection of worker health.
- 2009-present DuPont Company. Risk Management
- Responsible for evaluation of current information regarding the hazards of chemicals, particularly those which are biopersistent.
 - Publication of research regarding the biological effects of biopersistent chemicals.

Memberships:

Society of Toxicology (SOT)

Environmental Mutagen Society (EMS)
Teratology Society
American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists (ACGIH)

Editorial Boards:

Drug and Chemical Toxicology (Editor-in-Chief)
Inhalation Toxicology
Toxicology
Journal of Experimental Pharmacology and Therapeutics
Science

Committees:

Carpet and Rug Institute
 Technical Committee (Chairman)
American Fiber Manufacturers Association
 Science Advisory Committee
National Library of Medicine
 Hazardous Substances Database (HSDB) Review Board
American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists (ACGIH)
 Threshold Limit Value (TLV) Chemical Substances Committee (Chairman)
Society of Toxicology
 Membership Committee
 Technical Committee
 Regulatory and Legislative Affairs Committee
 Continuing Education Program Committee (Chairman)

Awards:

2007 Herbert Stokinger Award for Contributions in Industrial and Environmental Toxicology, American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists (ACGIH)

Publications: see separate 20 page document