

A public meeting to discuss the proposed changes in sewer service area designation has been scheduled for March 9, 2011 from 5:00pm to 8:00pm in the Hunterdon County Administration Building #1, Route 12 County Complex, Flemington, New Jersey. The Department and County will accept comments and information related to this map from the date of the posting of this public notice until April 8, 2011, 30 days after the public meeting.

Based upon information received in response to this public comment period adjustments may be made to the map after the close of the public comment period. Please note there will be an additional formal public comment process prior to plan adoption.
