WHEREAS, the School Ethics Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et. seq. was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in school board members and school administrators and to provide specific ethical standards to guide their conduct; and

WHEREAS, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 requires each newly elected or appointed board member to complete, during the first year of the member's first term, a training program offered by the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) regarding the skills and knowledge necessary to serve as a school board member or charter school trustee; and

WHEREAS, Bonnie Shimp was newly elected or appointed in April 2004 to a local school board or charter school board and therefore, had until April 2005, to complete the training requirement; and

WHEREAS, the NJSBA mails correspondence to all new board members who have failed to register for or attend an orientation and did mail such correspondence to this board member on December 6, 2004 and February 10, 2005; and

WHEREAS, the NJSBA conducted seven training sessions between April 2004 and March 2005 at varying locations and continuously published the dates and times of the sessions in its publication, School Board Notes; and

WHEREAS, the last training session to fulfill the requirement was held on July 8-10, 2005; and

WHEREAS, the Commission issued an Order on August 2, 2005, directing Bonnie Shimp to Show Cause why she had not attended training up until that time; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Shimp responded that because she was a board member in 1990 and never received training she called the NJSBA who advised her that since she was on the Board in 1990 that she did not have to attend training, but she is registered for the October 25, 2005 training session; and

WHEREAS, the Commission notified Ms. Shimp that the Commission would discuss this matter at its September 27, 2005 meeting; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Shimp has failed to attend the required training program for the one year allowed since she never received training during her 1990 term on the board; and

WHEREAS, the Commission finds that her failure to attend board member training from April 2004 to March 2005 constitutes a clear violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33; and

WHEREAS, the Commission finds that the appropriate penalty for the violation is suspension from the board if she fails to attend the NJSBA's October 25, 2005 training session and removal if she fails to attend the January 28, 2006 session;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the School Ethics Commission finds that Bonnie Shimp violated the N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 of the School Ethics Act and recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a penalty of suspension until January 28, 2006 if she fails to attend the October 25, 2005 training session and removal from the board if she fails to attend the January 28, 2006 session.
