

IN THE MATTER OF : NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
THE CERTIFICATES OF : STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS
DARIO CAMARA : ORDER OF REVOCATION
_____ : DOCKET NO: 0607-193

At its meeting of March 29, 2007, the State Board of Examiners reviewed information the Office of Criminal History Review had forwarded indicating that Dario Camara was convicted in January 2007 on charges of theft by deception. As a result of such conviction, Camara was disqualified from public service pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq. Camara did not challenge the disqualification before the Commissioner of Education. Camara currently holds a Teacher of Audio/Visual Broadcast Production Technology Certificate of Eligibility, issued in April 2005 and a Teacher of Audio/Visual Broadcast Production Technology Provisional certificate, issued in September 2006. Upon review of the above information, at its May 3, 2007 meeting, the State Board of Examiners voted to issue Camara an Order to Show Cause.

The Board sent Camara the Order to Show Cause by regular and certified mail on May 8, 2007. The certified mail copy was returned unclaimed. The regular mail copy was not returned. The Order provided that Camara must file an Answer within 30 days. Camara did not respond to the Order. Thereafter, the Board sent Camara a second notice by regular and certified mail providing him an additional 15 days in which to file an Answer. Neither copy was returned. The notice explained that if he did not file a response, the allegations in the Order to Show Cause would be deemed admitted and the Board of Examiners would decide the matter based on the evidence before it. Once again, Camara did not file an Answer. On October 5, 2007, the Board sent Camara correspondence allowing him the opportunity to appear before the Board and/or submit documentation to present testimony regarding the penalty phase of his hearing. Camara did not respond.

At its meeting of November 1, 2007, the State Board of Examiners reviewed the charges in the Order to Show Cause. Since there was no response, the Board of Examiners determined that no material facts related to Camara's offense were in dispute since he had never denied that he had been convicted of the offense nor did he deny the resulting disqualification. It is therefore ORDERED that the charges in the Order to Show Cause are deemed admitted for the purpose of this proceeding.

The issue before the State Board of Examiners in this matter, therefore, is whether Camara's conviction and disqualification, which was predicated on the same offense as was set forth in the Order to Show Cause, represent just cause to act against his certificates pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:9-17.5. The Board finds that they do.

In enacting the Criminal History Review statute, N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1 et seq. in 1986, the Legislature sought to protect public school pupils from contact with individuals whom it deemed to be a danger to them. Individuals convicted of a crime of dishonesty, such as theft, fall squarely within this category. This strong legislative policy statement is in accord with the Commissioner's long-held belief that teachers must serve as role models for students. "Teachers... are professional employees to whom the people have entrusted the care and custody of ... school children. This heavy duty requires a degree of self-restraint and controlled behavior rarely requisite to other types of employment." Tenure of Sammons, 1972 S.L.D. 302, 321.

Furthermore, unfitness to hold a position in a school system may be shown by one incident, if sufficiently flagrant. Redcay v. State Bd. of Educ., 130 N.J.L. 369, 371 (Sup. Ct. 1943), aff'd, 131 N.J.L. 326 (E & A 1944). Accordingly, the State Board of Examiners finds that Camara's conviction and disqualification from service in the public schools of this State because of his conviction for theft by deception provide just cause to take action against his certificates.

That strong policy statement on the part of the Legislature set forth in N.J.S.A. 18A:6-7.1(b) also offers guidance to the State Board of Examiners as to the appropriate sanction in this matter. An individual whose offense is so great that he or she is barred from service in public schools should not be permitted to retain the certificate that authorizes such service. Nor should a person who has been disqualified from teaching in a public school be permitted to continue to hold himself out as a teacher. Thus, because the Legislature considers Camara's offense so significant, the State Board of Examiners believes that the only appropriate sanction in this case is the revocation of his certificates.

Accordingly, on November 1, 2007 the Board of Examiners voted to revoke Camara's Teacher of Audio/Visual Broadcast Production Technology Certificate of Eligibility and Teacher of Audio/Visual Broadcast Production Technology Provisional certificate. On this 21st day of February 2008 the Board of Examiners voted to adopt its formal written decision and it is therefore ORDERED that the revocation of Dario Camara's certificates be effective immediately. It is further ORDERED that Camara return his certificates to the Secretary of the State Board of Examiners, Office of Licensure, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, NJ 08625-0500 within 30 days of the mailing date of this decision.
