Spread Fun! Not Flu.

Even healthy kids can get seriously ill from the flu and can easily spread it to others.

Children who are 6 through 59 months of age and attending licensed child care and preschool facilities in New Jersey are required to have flu vaccine by December 31 of each year.

(N.J.A.C. 8:57-4.19)

NJ Immunization Requirements: http://nj.gov/health/cd/imm.shtml
CDC Flu Information: www.cdc.gov/flu

NJ Health
New Jersey Department of Health

Poster Design: Jan Applebaum, NJ Department of Health H5717