

D. Infection Control Overview

Infection Control provides guidance on principles of infection control for limiting the spread of pandemic influenza:

- Guidelines on infection control for healthcare entities (hospitals, long term care facilities, home care agencies, emergency medical services, primary care centers, private health professionals, alternate care sites)
- Guidance for the public and non-healthcare entities (schools, community, worksite)