

I. Major research and public service activities

Bergen Community College faculty and administrators have been very active during 2006-2007 in research and active participation in professional associations. In addition, faculty and staff have taken an active role in the development and evaluation of academic programs within the college. A partial list of notable conference presentations and publications follows.

Conference Presentations:

- “Students with Learning Disabilities Can Learn Math!,” American Math Association in the Two-Year Colleges (AMATYC) Conference
- “General Education and Diversity Courses,” Keynote Address, Atlantic Cape Community College Faculty In-Service Conference
- "Philosophy and Religion in the Community College," Keynote Address, Norwalk Community College Conference on Philosophy and Religion
- "Musical Expression and Cognitive Neuroscience," Western Canadian Philosophical Association Annual Meeting/Conference
- "Modest Physicalism and Metaphysical Awkwardness: Reply to MacDermid," NJ Regional Philosophical Association Meeting
- “Financial Accounting: Sharing What Works,” Teachers of Accounting at Two-Year Colleges Conference
- “Changing Face of Suburbia,” Statewide conference sponsored by Bergen’s Center for Suburban Criminal Justice
- “The Transformation of South Korea’s National Image During the Vietnam War Era,” Third World Congress of Korean Studies
- Other conferences at which BCC faculty led or participated in presentations include:
 - American Sociological Association
 - League for Innovation Conference
 - National Educators Computing Conference
 - Academy of Criminal Justice
 - Computer Science and Information Technology Symposium
 - American Society of Microbiology Meeting
 - American Society for Aesthetics, National Conference
 - American Society for Aesthetics Meeting, Eastern Division
 - New Jersey Educational Association Higher Education Annual Meeting
 - Budapest International Art Expo

Publications:

- Dynamics of Fitness and Health, 9th Ed.
- Real Estate Law with New Jersey Supplement (co-author)
- Accounting (study guide to Accounting Principles text, co-author)
- “Is There a Psychology of Suburbia?” (article), The New Jersey Psychologist

- “Home is Where the Cart Is: Semantic Inflections of Object and Self” (article), Consciousness, Literature, and the Arts
- “Molecular Genetic Evidence Suggests Long Island as the Geographic Origin For the Present Population of Bay Scallops In Barnegat Bay, New Jersey” (article) Journal of Shellfish Research
- “How to Take a Dip in Ideological Swamps and Keep Breathing,” Women at the Crossroads of Ideologies
- “Suburbia” (article in edited volume), American Icons: An Encyclopedia of the People, Places, and Things that Have Shaped Our Culture
- “Hegelian Music” (poem) Philosophy Now
- “Seeds Sown” (poem) Reflections anthology, International Library of Poetry
- Book Reviews for Bryn Mawr Classical Review, Journal of Aesthetics and Art Criticism, Philosophical Practice

Public Service:

- Secretary to the Board of Trustees, Center for Alcohol and Drug Resources
- American Math Association in the Two-Year Colleges (AMATYC), (President-elect, Corresponding Secretary)
- President-elect, Community College Computing Consortium

Bergen Community College provides service to the community by hosting and/or coordinating a variety of events including blood drives, hazardous waste collection days, the New Jersey Writing Alliance, and the Teen Arts Festival. The College is open to the community for cultural events during Black History Month, Women’s History Month, Asian Heritage Week, and many other ethnic festivals. The “This & That from Here & There” Performing Arts Series brings a variety of cultural events to the population of Bergen County.

Alpha Epsilon Phi chapter of Phi Theta Kappa (the Community College Honor Society) at Bergen Community College has won awards recognizing exemplary service to the community.

Bergen Community College Ciarco Learning Center provides service to the community by hosting and/or coordinating a variety of events including Club Columbia Cultural week; by supporting literacy by providing space at off peak times for volunteer one on one instruction with functionally illiterate adults; and by offering NJ PIN to the public for job searches.

Source: BCC Departmental Annual Reports