Preface

Founded in 1855, Kean University was the first public post-secondary institution in New Jersey and educated many of the first professionally trained teachers in the state. Kean's main campus is in Union, New Jersey, with additional locations at Kean Ocean in Toms River, New Jersey, and Wenzhou-Kean University in Wenzhou, China. Kean University has a long history of providing affordable, accessible, world-class education to a culturally rich and diverse student population.

Kean University has nearly 15,000 students and offers 50 bachelor degree programs, 34 master degree programs, two post-master professional diploma programs, and four doctoral degree programs across a full range of academic subjects. Degree programs include various subject areas within the liberal arts, natural sciences, social sciences, health professions, applied sciences, visual and performing arts, as well as in business, architecture, design and teacher education.

With five undergraduate colleges – the College of Business & Public Management, the College of Education, the College of Liberal Arts, the College of Natural, Applied & Health Sciences, and Michael Graves College – as well as Nathan Weiss Graduate College, the New Jersey Center for Science, Technology and Mathematics and Kean Online, Kean has transformed from an institution that was once a normal school for training teachers to a comprehensive, world-class university. Kean's nearly 100,000 alumni serve in positions of leadership in business, government, education, the creative arts, law enforcement, medicine and allied health fields, research and science, computer science and much more throughout New Jersey, the United States and the world.

The College of Business & Public Management prepares students for a globalized and rapidly changing business market. The College's Global Business School provides students with unparalleled opportunities to study and work abroad with dynamic multinational corporations.

Since its inception, Kean University has been a leader in teacher education in New Jersey. The College of Education is acknowledged by the New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE) as the largest producer of teachers. Currently, it is accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP).

The College of Liberal Arts offers programs to develop students' analytical and intellectual capabilities through study in the fields of communication, English, history, economics, political science, sociology and psychology. The College houses Kean's School of Fine and Performing Arts and its Theatre Conservatory, Music Conservatory and Fine Arts Conservatory, which feature performance-based programs and world-class learning opportunities with professional actors, musicians and artists.

The College of Natural, Applied & Health Sciences prepares students for distinguished careers in the sciences, technology, and health professions with an outstanding education that values critical thinking to adapt to changing social, economic, and technological conditions. Collaboration with major corporations in the healthcare and technology sectors is an integral part of the College's mission.

Michael Graves College, named after the world-renowned architect and designer who was a guiding force in the development of the College and its School of Public Architecture, is predicated on taking quality design and architecture to a wider public audience. It is setting a new standard in design and architecture education with its innovative programs and state-of-the-art facilities in Kean's Green Lane Academic Building.

Kean's New Jersey Center for Science, Technology and Mathematics educates a new generation of innovators for careers as professional scientists, physicians and educators. NCJSTM combines science and research in an innovative honors curriculum and is transforming science and mathematics higher education through its Research First Initiative (RFI), in which students join faculty-sponsored research teams and learn through actual laboratory experience.

The Nathan Weiss Graduate College features graduate programs in education, liberal arts, fine arts, nursing, occupational therapy, physical therapy, speech pathology, counseling and psychology. The college offers four doctoral degree programs and more than 60 options for graduate study leading to master's degrees, professional diplomas or certifications. The Nathan Weiss Graduate College continues to expand with its new doctoral program in physical therapy, located in the state-of-the-art North Avenue Academic Building. The new Michael Graves College Master of Architecture program will launch in 2019.

Kean Online continues to grow and expand, meeting the needs of today's student looking for quality programs and flexibility in higher education. Offering bachelor's degree completion programs and master's degree courses, Kean Online brings Kean's 160-year tradition of excellence to a wider student population.

With a faculty recognized for teaching distinction, scholarship and service, Kean is poised for future growth. Kean University remains committed to serving New Jersey's students and dedicated to continuing its long tradition of access, opportunity and affordability in education. Each year, Kean proudly builds on this distinguished history and stays focused on the institution's future and student success.

Mission Statement

Kean University is a public cosmopolitan university serving undergraduate and graduate students in the liberal arts, the sciences and the professions. The University dedicates itself to the intellectual, cultural and personal growth of all its members — students, faculty and professional staff. In particular, the University prepares students to think critically, creatively and globally; to adapt to changing social, economic and technological environments; and to serve as active and contributing members of their communities.

Kean offers a wide range of demanding programs dedicated to excellence in instruction and academic support services necessary to assure its socially, linguistically and culturally diverse students the means to reach their full potential, including students from academically disadvantaged backgrounds, students with special needs, and adults returning or entering higher education.

Kean is steadfast in its dedication to maintaining a student-centered educational environment in which diversity can flourish and an atmosphere in which mutual respect characterizes relations among the members of a pluralistic community. The University seeks to combine excellence with equity in providing opportunities for all students.

Kean is a teaching university, and Kean faculty dedicate themselves to student learning as well as academic rigor. The focus on teaching excellence is supported by a commitment to research, scholarship, creative work and innovative uses of technology. The focus includes the advancement of knowledge in the traditional disciplines and the enhancement of skills in professional areas. Kean is committed to providing global educational opportunities for students and faculty.

Kean is an interactive university, and the University serves as a major resource for regional advancement. Kean collaborates with business, labor, government and the arts, as well as educational and community organizations, and provides the region with cultural events and opportunities for continuous learning. Kean is also committed to providing students and faculty educational opportunities in national and international arenas.

a. Name of Basic Skills Placement Test Administered

ACCUPLACER Computerized Placement Test

b. Criteria for Selecting Test Takers

All freshmen not exempt from placement testing are required to take the ACCUPLACER Computerized Placement Test. Freshman-level transfers were tested if writing/math courses were not already completed. For Fall 2016, 77 of 1,494 first-time, full-time (FTFT) students were exempt from all testing based on the following criteria:

Reading: SAT Critical Reading/Verbal scores greater than or equal to 520

Writing: SAT Writing scores greater than or equal to 520

Elementary Algebra: SAT Math scores greater than or equal to 530

Students with an ACT Composite score of 24 or above are exempt from all of the parts of the test (Reading, Writing and Elementary Algebra).

e. Kean Online

Kean University established Kean Online during the 2015-2016 academic year with the offering of the Bachelor's Degree Completion Program in Management and Criminal Justice as well as a Master's degree in Educational Leadership. During the 2016-2017 academic year Kean Online added the following programs including a Master's degree in Hindi/Urdu Language Pedagogy, an R.N. to B.S.N. program, a Certificate program in Educational Leadership and a pre-professional program in Speech Pathology.

In January of 2016, Kean University received approval from the Middle States Commission on Higher Education to become a Distance Learning degree granting institution. This allowed Kean University to offer full graduate and undergraduate programs completely online. Work is currently underway to offer general education courses online so that full programs in Criminal Justice and Management can be offered in this modality. Many courses have been developed for an online and hybrid delivery to support the educational needs of students attending other Kean University locations.

All Kean Online courses are built to meet the highest course design standards and are identical to outcomes and content specified in the official curriculum. The development of the coursework is a collaborative process between faculty, instructional designer and university curriculum committees. The course design is conformed with Quality Matters Rubrics and Standards for ensuring quality and consistency.

2. Other - Agreements with Other Colleges and Universities

Kean Ocean

Kean University and Ocean County College (OCC) continue the Kean-Ocean partnership (established in 2006) to provide higher education in Ocean County beyond the level of the associate degree. Students completing their associate degree can earn a bachelor's degree at Kean Ocean on the OCC campus.

The bachelor's degree programs offered through Kean Ocean include: Accounting, Biology, Biology Pre-Health Professions option, Communication Studies and Communication-Public Relations, Criminal Justice, English, Finance, Global Fitness and Wellness, Graphic Design-Interactive Print Screen (phase-out), History, Management (General and Entrepreneurship options), Marketing, Mathematics, Nursing, Psychology, Public Administration and Sociology along with programs in Elementary and Special Education (K-6 with content areas/second majors in Biology, Communication Studies, English, History, Mathematics, Psychology or Sociology, and 5-8 with subject certification in Biology, English, History or Mathematics), Secondary and Dual Certification in Secondary Education (P-12 certification in Biology, English, History and Mathematics), Physical Education and Health (P-12 Certification), and the newly added Recreation Administration options (Therapeutic, Community and Commercial options). A recently signed letter of agreement with OCC will bring the Theatre and Music programs to Kean Ocean upon completion of the new Performing Arts Center on the OCC campus in three to five years.

Students who have already completed their associate degree have their OCC courses evaluated and matched as closely as possible to the requirements for a Kean degree. Those students who have followed the advance detailed program guide sheets that specify the exact OCC courses to take for fulfilling the requirements of both their OCC associate degree and their Kean bachelor's degrees will be assured complete transferability of their credits.

Kean Ocean also offers master's degrees on the campus of OCC in Counselor Education (with State certification for school counseling) and several options in Nursing.

Kean will continue to review program offerings on an ongoing basis, making additions and deletions as needs and demands indicate program viability or the lack thereof. The Kean Ocean facilities master plan calls for the construction of a five-building campus on the Ocean County College Toms River campus. Construction of the first Kean building, shared jointly with OCC, was completed in August and opened in September 2013. This state-of-the-art facility provides administrative offices, 22 faculty offices, 12 classrooms (one ITV equipped), two seminar rooms and a conference room. This physical presence has both improved the student experience as well as confirmed Kean's commitment to provide affordable higher education to Ocean County and the surrounding region. Beginning in Fall 2016, Kean will be offering classes at the Ocean County College's branch campus, (The Southern Educational Center) in Manahawkin, NJ to bring the upper division educational opportunity to southeastern Ocean County.

Wenzhou-Kean

Wenzhou-Kean in Zhejiang Province, China, has now reached the end of its fifth year of full operation. Student numbers have grown from a class of 205 in Fall 2012 to approximately 1,600 students in Fall 2016. Wenzhou-Kean had its first commencement in May 2016 with over 180 students graduated. In May 2017, over 200 students graduated at its second commencement in Wenzhou, China. The student body is currently comprised mostly of Chinese nationals, with visiting U.S. nationals from the main Kean campus. In the first year, recruitment was from Zhejiang Province. In subsequent years, recruitment has expanded to nine additional provinces of China. However, for the academic year 2017-2018, the university expanded recruitment to Hong Kong, Macao, and Taiwan. All Chinese nationals are recruited through the Chinese National College Entrance Examination. Wenzhou-Kean admits Tier 1 (the top tier) from this examination. In addition, a very small number of students are admitted contingently from Tier 2 through an alternate admission process referred to as "3-in-1."

The number of majors and opportunities for study has grown from an original four majors, in Accounting, Finance, English in a Global Setting and Computer Science, to an additional three majors in Marketing, Global Business and Graphic Design. Kean courses are offered either by Kean faculty contracted to the Wenzhou site or by Kean faculty visiting from the U.S. campus. All entering freshmen are required to participate in an English Intensive Preparatory Program prior to the start of classes. Rising sophomores also have the opportunity to attend the English Immersion Program at Kean University's main campus. Finally, Wenzhou-Kean students may take one to two semesters at Kean's Union campus starting in their junior year.

In the first year of operation (2012-2013), Kean held classes and housed students using space within Wenzhou University, as a collaboration between the two institutions. In the second year, Kean moved into its own campus with a general education building for all classes, administrative support offices and conference rooms, a dining hall and the first residence halls and faculty housing. This group of buildings constituted Phase 1 of the campus building project. Phase 2 was completed in Fall 2015 with new residence halls for all incoming and current students. The next phase will include buildings for the College of Business and Public Management, the Michael Graves College, and a dedicated Library. The School of Business will open in Fall 2017 and new faculty apartments in early 2018.

In 2013, the Middle States Commission for Higher Education affirmed Wenzhou-Kean as an additional location of Kean University. In 2014, following the successful completion of the "in preparation" probationary period, the Chinese Ministry of Education announced the approval of the establishment of Wenzhou-Kean University, making it the first Chinese-United States cooperative university in the Zhejiang province and the second in China. The Chinese Ministry of Education granted approval for Wenzhou-Kean graduates to receive dual bachelor degree certificates from Kean University and Wenzhou-Kean in addition to a Chinese graduation certificate from Wenzhou-Kean, thereby achieving compliance with relevant regulations in China.

Articulation Agreements

A major goal of Higher Education in the State of New Jersey is to have all colleges and universities make it possible for students to transfer (articulate) from one college to another for the purpose of completing a program of study or degree as expeditiously as possible. In addition to special programs with other colleges and universities, Kean University honors the State of New Jersey's Transfer Legislation (Lampitt Bill) policy, the statewide transfer legislation and accompanying implementation agreement, and continues to work with the two-year college sector through the articulation meetings and biannual Two-Year/Four-Year meetings and related conferences. Students graduating from a New Jersey State county college with an A.A. or A.S. degree may be admitted as juniors provided that all transfer admission requirements and related course prerequisites have been met. It is important to note that full transferability of credits depends on a student keeping the same major that was pursued at the county college. All lower division general education requirements are considered completed with the A.A. or A.S. degree, unless one or more of the required courses are prerequisites for additional course work. A.A.S. degrees are not covered by the legislation.

The following is a list of colleges with which Kean University has made articulation agreements:

Brookdale Community College	Mercer County College
County College of Morris	Ocean County College
Essex County College	Passaic County Community College
Hudson County College	Raritan Valley Community College
Middlesex County College	Union County College
College of Saint Elizabeth

Kean University has joint degree programs in Health Information Management, Psychology/Psychiatric Rehabilitation, Clinical Lab Science (CLS), Medical Lab Science and CLS Cytotechnology with Rutgers University (formerly UMDNJ) in Newark. Students complete the general education requirements at Kean and then apply to Rutgers University (formerly UMDNJ) for the professional phase of the program. Upon completion, students receive a joint bachelor's degree from Kean University and Rutgers University (formerly UMDNJ).

Kean University's New Jersey Center for Science, Technology and Mathematics (NJCSTM) has multiple articulation agreements and interested persons must apply through NJCSTM. NJCSTM offers an exciting opportunity for students wishing to pursue careers in engineering science. Kean University and the New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT) have partnered to offer the Engineer Science Scholars Program to highly qualified undergraduate students. Students in this program who meet all the requirements while in college are awarded the B.S. in Science & Technology/Engineering Science degree from NJCSTM at Kean University and then complete their master's degree at NJIT's Newark College of Engineering.

Joint Admission Agreements

Students from New Jersey county colleges that have signed joint admission agreements may be admitted to Kean University by the respective county college. The admission is to the University, not to a major program.

The program is designed to strengthen the academic and support partnership between the two-year college sector and Kean University. Agreements have been signed with:

Brookdale Community College
County College of Morris
Essex County College
Hudson County College
Middlesex County College

Ocean County College
Passaic County Community College
Raritan Valley Community College
Sussex County Community College
Union County College

Partnership Agreements

Partnership agreements are aimed at establishing ties of friendship and cooperation for the purpose of promoting mutual understanding through academic, cultural, scientific, student and personnel exchanges. Partnership agreements have been signed with:

Rutgers University, New Jersey (formerly University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey)
Ocean County College

Kean University and the Union County Vocational and Technical School (UCVTS) Academy for Performing Arts have established a dual-enrollment partnership, allowing students from the Academy to complete their senior year of high school and freshman year of college simultaneously, enrolling in a full college course load.

3. Internally Sponsored Research

Kean University established the Released Time for Research (RTR) Awards program to support the faculty's active interest in research and other scholarly pursuits in 1973. Through this program, the University conducts an annual review and selects faculty, professional personnel and librarians to receive research awards of released time and limited direct costs. Projects funded by Released Time for Research serve to advance the state of the art or knowledge in a particular field of study or professional activity, or to develop a particular area of research or creative work to the point where it can be shared beyond the Kean University community.

Six RTR projects were funded for the 2016-2017 academic year. Successful applicants receive a maximum of six credits of reassigned time during the academic year and a $400 stipend for equipment, supplies and other needs associated with their research.

Seven non-tenured faculty research projects (UFRI) were funded for the 2016-2017 academic year. As with the RTR awards, successful applicants receive six credits of reassigned time during the academic year and a $400 stipend for equipment, supplies and other needs associated with their research.

The Students Partnering with Faculty (SpF) Summer Research Program is a competitive program that has been developed to support and advance student and faculty research and scholarship at Kean University. Through the SpF program, full-time faculty will have the opportunity to submit proposals in collaboration with undergraduate full-time students enrolled in the current semester for the purpose of attaining funding toward a specific student-faculty research project. Students and faculty each receive $3,500 stipends and up to $2,000 for research supplies and expenses. Eleven projects were funded during summer 2017.

The Foundation Faculty Research Award (FFRA) is sponsored by the Kean University Foundation and was initiated this academic year. The fundamental goal of FFRA is to help faculty better position themselves to apply for and receive external funding for their research and scholarly activities. Faculty can apply annually for three consecutive years of funding for up to $5,000 annually. Seven faculty members received this award for the 2016-2017 academic year.

Quality First Initiative (QFI) projects and programs are recommended by the University Planning Council (UPC) for special funding. Initiatives must have a strong potential to demonstrate tangible, effective, specific, and measurable results. Six projects were funded for the 2016-2017 academic year.

Kean is proud of its history of service to the community and continued commitment to scholarship and teaching. Through the vision of the President and the Board of Trustees, the University has answered the call to serve, and continues to be supportive and committed to civic engagement initiatives.

Kean University established the Center for Leadership and Service in May 2009 in response to the University's call to service. The Center functions as a comprehensive connection point for student leadership and service opportunities, thus empowering students to create change and have a positive impact on campus and in the community. It also works with various departments and student groups to plan, organize, implement, and assess service initiatives on behalf of the University. Service-based initiatives are embedded into other aspects of the Center's operations including leadership development programs, student groups and Greek life.

Kean University hosts a number of service projects throughout the year including the September 11 National Day of Service and Remembrance and Martin Luther King Jr. National Day of Service, Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, National Volunteer Week, monthly blood drives, environmental cleanups, Hurricane Sandy relief projects and multiple charitable fundraising and collection efforts. Organizing these volunteer opportunities into defined areas of social concern encourages Kean students to move from understanding the issues to making an impact.

The Kean community recognizes that we are also a part of the communities which surround us, and are therefore committed to the issues which concern them. Community partners and local governments have expressed an increased need for volunteer assistance and Kean has responded to that need by providing countless hours of volunteer service to the community through organized programs, group activities and individual student efforts.

Beginning in 2012, Kean partnered with JumpStart, an AmeriCorps program, to place Kean students in Elizabeth classrooms to support early education and literacy programs. Kean students address other local concerns by working regularly with the Elizabeth Coalition to House the Homeless, Habitat for Humanity and the Community Food Bank of New Jersey. The University general education curriculum requires civic engagement and service as a component of the freshman seminar.

In addition, Kean was honored as the number 2 college or university in New Jersey for blood donations by the New York/New Jersey Blood Services for the past 8 years and has earned a place on the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll from the U.S. Corporation for National and Community Service for the past 6 years.

I. MAJOR CAPITAL PROJECTS UNDERWAY IN FISCAL YEAR 2017

Over the past seven years, Kean University's Union campus has transformed and expanded into a showplace students, faculty, staff and alumni can be proud. The last of the major capital projects will be completed in FY 2017. Through these projects, the University continues its commitment to new classrooms, academic laboratories, performing arts facilities and recreational facilities as part of its overall campus master plan through these projects.

1. Projects Under Construction

a. NJ Highlands Sustainability Sciences Facility @ Highlands Campus

Start Date: October 2016
Completion Date: December 2017

Project Description:

The project includes renovation of an existing facility as well as the construction of an outdoor tree-canopy walkway, outdoor amphitheater and classrooms at Kean's Regional Highlands Center in Mt. Paul, N.J. The project will serve as a catalyst for training New Jersey's next generation of leaders in environmental, life and sustainability sciences.

b. New Childcare Center

Start Date: October 2016
Completion Date: September 2017

Project Description:

The scope of work for this project includes select abatement, demolition and build back of approximately 10,750 square feet in the Kean Technology building. When completed, this facility will provide a convenient, state-of-the-art and centrally located childcare center for the Kean community.

c. New Freshmen Residence Complex

Start Date: March 2017
Completion Date: July 2018

Project Description:

Construction of a new housing complex at the site of the existing campus buildings. The new facility will include 385 new beds and a bistro-style dining hall. This project will be executed under New Jersey's Public Private Partnership legislation.

2. Pending Projects

a. Liberty Hall Academic Center

Start Date: TBD
Completion Date: TBD

Project Description:

Construction of a new multipurpose academic building on the University's Liberty Hall campus. The two story building will be approximately 40,021 sq. ft. The first floor will include a historic research library, classroom and seminar rooms, a gallery for permanent and traveling exhibits, storage, an exhibit hall, a warming kitchen and supporting spaces. The second floor will feature classrooms and seminar rooms, an office suite housing the academic offices of the Kean University Department of History and a rooftop terrace.

b. Roof Replacement Project for Technology Bldg., Nancy Thompson Library, Bruce Hall, Wilkins Theatre & Townsend Hall

Start Date: Fall 2017

Completion Date: Fall 2018

Project Description:

Removal of outdated existing roof systems and replacement with new roofing systems for the 5 buildings named above. Construction will be in 3 phases, tentatively scheduled as;

Phase 1 - Technology Bldg. & Bruce Hall

Phase 2 - Wilkins Theatre & Nancy Thompson Library

Phase 3 - Townsend Hall

3. Completed Projects

a. Multi-Purpose Academic Building (North Avenue)

Project Description:

Construction of a new 125,000-square-foot, glass-façade, five-story academic building located at the corner of North Avenue and Morris Avenue in Union, NJ. The space includes a 500-seat auditorium, classrooms, meeting rooms and offices for a variety of academic programs, including the University's new Allied Health degree in Physical Therapy. Classes were held in the new building beginning September 2016 with Au Bon Pain restaurant open in May 2017.

b. Allied Health Laboratory Fit Out Project (North Avenue Building)

Project Description:

This project was for the fit out of upper floors 3, 4 & 5, including the building of tiered lecture seating platforms and installing finishes with millwork in three large lecture classrooms and re-design of 5th floor office suites. The space has become the home of the University's new Allied Health degree in Physical Therapy. Classes were held in the new building beginning in the Fall Semester of 2016.
