

Korey Hagamin

Korey is currently a secondary education major at Camden County College. Korey was originally born and raised in the city of Camden, NJ and currently resides in Blackwood NJ where he works as a direct support professional for Durand Inc., providing services specifically for people who are under the autism umbrella.

Lauren Tiemers

Lauren is a recent graduate of Montclair State University with a B.A. in Liberal Studies and a minor in Psychology. Currently, she is substitute teaching in her local public school district and tutoring elementary-aged children for the summer. She is looking into graduate programs and is eager to start the next chapter in her education.

Elvia Valdez

Elvia began her educational journey began at Middlesex College as an English as a Second Language (ESL) student. After successfully completing the ESL program, she earned her Associate's degree in Human Services in 2022. Currently, she is pursuing her undergraduate degree as a Social Work major at Rutgers State University, graduating in 2024. Balancing a full-time position at PTECH High School, she actively contributes as a member of the PTECH Advisory Committee, Scip Team, and Gender Equity Team. She takes pride in making a positive impact, advocating for gender equity, and providing valuable support to students at PTECH High School, all while working towards her goals in the field of social work and fulfilling her role as a dedicated mother.

Giraidy Vasquez

Giraidy is a senior at Montclair State University. She also is a Dean in a high school in Philadelphia.

Matthew Wilson

After graduating high school, Matthew Wilson briefly attended Camden County College before spending the next 18 years working as a Bartender and Restaurant Bar Manager in FL, MI, TN, PA, & NJ. Currently he serves as Assistant Floor Manager at Restaurant Depot and has re-enrolled this upcoming Fall at Camden County College in Business Administration.

