DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

FINAL DECISION

OAL DKT. NO. HPW 00848-24 M.W.

AGENCY DKT. NO. C123419001 (ATLANTIC CO. DEPT OF FAM. & COM. DEV)

Petitioner challenges the correctness of the Respondent Agency's calculation of monthly Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program ("SNAP") benefits. Because Petitioner appealed, the matter was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing. On March 7, 2024, the Honorable Robert D. Herman, Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ"), held a telephonic plenary hearing, took testimony, and admitted documents into evidence. The record remained open for the receipt of additional requested documentation from the Agency, which was submitted in the afternoon on the date of the hearing, and the record then closed. On March 21, 2024, the ALJ issued an Initial Decision, affirming the Agency's determination.

No Exceptions to the Initial Decision were filed.

As Assistant Commissioner, Division of Family Development ("DFD"), Department of Human Services, I have considered the ALJ's Initial Decision, and following an independent review of the record, the ALJ's Initial Decision is hereby ADOPTED, and the Agency determination is AFFIRMED, based on the discussion below.

Regulatory authority applicable to SNAP benefit cases, defines income as "all income from whatever source unless such income is specifically excluded." See N.J.A.C. 10:87-5.3. Additionally, for SNAP benefits cases, unearned income includes survivors, disability, and Social Security benefits for both adults and children in the household. See N.J.A.C. 10:87-5.5(a)(2).

In order to determine an applicant's eligibility for SNAP, the applicant's income and resources must be below a certain threshold. N.J.A.C. 10:87-6.16 outlines the procedures used to calculate net income and benefit levels for SNAP recipients. The regulation provides that the applicant's monthly net income is determined by adding together all earned and unearned income, then subtracting all income exclusions. Then, the standard deduction, based upon the size of the household, is subtracted from the income.

Thereafter, the household is evaluated to determine if a medical deduction is appropriate, which is if the household has medical expenses that exceed $35.00. If the household is entitled to a medical deduction, then the amount in excess of $35.00 is subtracted from the applicant's income. Then, the applicant is evaluated for an excess shelter deduction. Such a deduction is permitted when the individual's shelter costs exceed 50% of their net income. If this deduction is allowable, then the difference between the shelter costs and the 50% net income, or up to the maximum allowable amount, is subtracted from the individual's income. The remaining figure is Petitioner's net income. This net income is then compared against the maximum allowable net income amount for the household's size, as outlined at N.J.A.C. 10:87-12.3, to determine eligibility. If eligible, the household's monthly SNAP allotment shall be equal to the maximum food stamp allotment for the household's size, reduced by 30 percent of the household's net monthly income. See N.J.A.C. 10:87-12.6(a)(1).

Here, the record shows that on October 12, 2023, the Agency, as the result of a new hire match, contacted Petitioner with respect to the earned income of Petitioner's daughter, and requested that Petitioner contact the Agency with copies of paystubs. See Initial Decision at 2, 4; see also Exhibit R-1 at 5. Petitioner provided the Agency with the requested information, and on the basis of that information, the monthly earned income amount from Petitioner's daughter's employment was included in the household SNAP benefits allotment calculations, resulting in an increase in the household's SNAP net income, and a reduction in the household's monthly SNAP benefits allotment to $217. See Initial Decision at 3, 4; see also Exhibit R-1 at 7-8A, 16. Based on the testimony and documentary evidence presented in this matter, the ALJ issued a thorough and comprehensive Initial Decision, applying law to fact, and outlining how the SNAP benefits allotment had been calculated. See Initial Decision at 6-7; see also Exhibit R-1 at 16. Based on the foregoing, the ALJ concluded that the Agency's calculations of Petitioner's monthly SNAP benefits allotment, after inclusion of Petitioner's daughter's earned income, was correct and must stand. Id. at 8. Based upon an independent review of the record, I agree.

Accordingly, the Initial Decision in this matter is ADOPTED, and the Agency's determination is hereby AFFIRMED, as outlined above.

Officially approved final version. April 16, 2024
