DIVISION OF DISABILITY SERVICES: Notice of Availability of Grant Funds for the Food Pantry Accessibility project.

The NJ Department of Human Services (DHS), the Division of Disability Services (DDS) hereby announces the availability of grant program funds from the Kessler Foundation's Special Initiatives Program, for emergency food provider organizations to implement a physical accessibility improvement plan.

I. Statement of Need/ Background

Approximately 54 million people in the U.S. live with a wide array of physical, cognitive and emotional disabilities. As such, people with disabilities constitute the single largest minority group identified in the U.S., surpassing older adults, African Americans and Hispanics. Based on this prevalence, it is estimated that over one million N.J. residents have disabilities of varying severity. With a 70% unemployment rate, and more than 40% of homeless adults experiencing disability, people with disabilities represent some of the most food insecure individuals living in N.J.

Emergency food providers are serving record numbers. Often, facilities that operate food pantries and other emergency assistance programs are inaccessible to someone using a walker, wheelchair or other assistive device. Due in part to stairs, narrow doorways and other barriers people with physical disabilities cannot access these buildings or the life saving programs that are provided within. Many of these barriers can be fairly easy and relatively inexpensive to overcome.

II. Objective

The overall goal of this project is to maximize the physical accessibility and use of emergency food provider assistance and other services provided within for people with disabilities living in N.J. DDS will make funds available to a carefully selected number of emerge food providers operating in N.J., for the purposes of making capital improvements to the organization's building enabling people with physical disabilities to access the services provided within.

DDS will award two (2) to three (3) small grants to emergency food providers that demonstrate the need for accessibility and develop a well detailed plan on how to make their building more accessible. Preference will be given to emergency food providers that offer additional assistance programs such as SNAP (food stamps) at the same location. In many cases, minimal capital improvements will afford people with physical disabilities access to the food, clothing and other assistance that is provided in these buildings.

DDS reserves the right to make the determination of awarding one (1) larger grant, if that accessibility plan is highly feasible and documented as such, and will result in reaching a significant number of people with disabilities who have not had access to these services in the past.
