I. Introduction

The New Jersey Division of Mental Health and Addiction Services (DMHAS), in partnership with consumers, family members, providers and other stakeholders, promotes wellness and recovery for individuals managing a mental illness, substance use disorder and a co-occurring mental illness and substance use disorder through a continuum of prevention, early intervention, treatment and recovery services delivered by a culturally competent and well-trained workforce. One of the operating principles of the DMHAS is to insure that services are delivered by means of a comprehensive system of care that emphasizes provision of care in the least restrictive clinically appropriate settings and promotes the highest level of functioning for all service users.

Moreover, the DMHAS believes that people with a mental illness can achieve wellness and recovery. This belief is grounded in a growing body of research and knowledge in the recovery field, as well as first-hand accounts from people recovering from mental illness. DMHAS recognizes that consumers of mental health services are able to identify and articulate their service and support needs. Consequently, service and treatment delivery must be individualized, person centered and family driven. These services will provide meaningful choices to consumers with regard to treatment options.

The DMHAS aligns itself with the goals of the President's New Freedom Commission Report of 2003. Germane to this Request for Proposals (RFP), these goals include: 1) Americans will understand that mental health is essential to overall health; 2) mental health care must be consumer and family driven; 3) disparities in mental health service should be eliminated; and 4) early mental health screening, assessment and referral to services are common practice. The New Freedom Commission Report also underscores a vision for a service delivery system that: provides consumers with real and meaningful choices concerning treatment options and providers; understands the cultural and linguistic needs of the consumer and family; offers services that focus on "facilitating recovery and building resilience," rather than merely managing symptoms; integrates the principles of trauma informed care in workforce development and all levels of care; maximizes opportunities for consumers to receive treatment in community based settings; and reduces the use of seclusion and restraints.

The current RFP is announcing the availability of funds to increase DMHAS funding in career Supported Employment (SE) in 13 counties in NJ and consolidates SE resources in one county (Mercer). Specifically, the RFP applies to the following counties: Atlantic; Burlington; Camden; Cape May; Cumberland; Gloucester; Hunterdon; Mercer; Ocean; Passaic; Salem; Sussex; and Warren. Although career services does include post-secondary educational opportunities, the focus of this RFP is on integrated employment.

Supported Employment (SE) is an important psychiatric rehabilitation service that supports an individual's recovery. Research has demonstrated that contrary to generally held beliefs, consumers do not experience negative consequences such as increased symptoms, hospitalization, homelessness, suicide, treatment drop out, or reduced self-esteem by participating in SE, working in competitive jobs, or leaving day treatment settings; rather the research has demonstrated that being competitively employed can improve one's recovery outcomes (Bond, Becker, Drake, et al, 2001). However, some individuals may require direct assistance in obtaining employment in a setting that is integrated (whereby individuals have the opportunity to interact with individuals who do not have a disability). Some of these same individuals may require emotional, intellectual or physical support either on or off the job site in order to achieve the task demands of the job and/or fit into the employment culture to be successful. SE makes this direct assistance available.

II. Background

Assisting consumers to form an attachment to the workforce through employment and educational opportunities is a critical component in their recovery, full inclusion in their community, and, ultimately, becoming economically independent. Surveys completed by consumers indicate that employment and education are near the top of their priorities, decent affordable housing being number one. According to recent New Jersey mental health planning estimates, there are between 124,500 and 154,200 adults with serious mental illness (SMI). The research on competitive employment for consumers indicates that their unemployment hovers between 85% and 90% which means between 112,000 and 139,000 consumers of working age are unemployed in at any given point in time New Jersey, often on entitlements such as Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI). Most of these individuals have talents, assets and skills which can facilitate their entry into the workforce with the right match, guidance and support. The career service of SE has been found to be a highly successful strategy in promoting integrated employment outcomes for consumer with mental illness and co-occurring disorders (COD). As a career service, SE has been identified as an evidence based practice (Bond, and Lynde, 2004) and is being strongly encouraged by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). DMHAS has been providing SE as a contracted service for past 26 years in collaboration with the Department of Labor and Workforce Development, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation Services (DVRS). At present, there is at least one DMHAS-contracted SE provider in each county of the State.

III. Purpose of Request

DMHAS is announcing the availability of funds to provide recovery-oriented career services, specifically SE for persons with SMI and/or COD. Applicants will propose strategies that promote and actively support recovery, independent living, economic self-sufficiency, personal growth and fulfillment through employment.

The overall intention of this RFP is to continue the DMHAS service delivery system's capacity to promote integrated employment opportunities through the following goals:

1. Maximize the number of individuals with SMI/COD who secure and retain competitive employment in integrated settings with support;
2. Ensure that employment and career development are integral to the agency's recovery mission and service system in core functions such as

- planning, systems development, monitoring, evaluation and human resource development;
3. Make available a flexible array of services and supports that assist individuals to obtain and retain part or full-time integrated competitive employment and/or career-related education/training based on informed choice and the person's strengths and preferences; and
  4. Build intra-agency, local and regional inter-agency/resource partnerships with such entities as psychiatric rehabilitation, clinical and housing providers, as well as business and industry to maximize resources, support and insure the continuity of service delivery.

Bond and Lynde (2004) stressed that "competitive employment is inextricably linked to the recovery process for many people in recovery" and that the "establishment of meaningful roles and purpose beyond the limitations of a mental health diagnosis or disability, the opportunity to take a risk and fail, and the development of one's own life in the community" are imperative to an individual's recovery.

SE is a process which involves the individual in a series of employment-related activities leading up to entry into integrated employment and then in providing or arranging for support both on and off the job site. Integrated employment is defined as part-time or full-time work in business and industry that is open to anyone, with wages and benefits equivalent to those paid for the same work performed by individuals who do not have SMI/COD. Jobs are to be integrated into the general workforce and not segregated in a manner where individuals are only working with other individuals with identified disabilities. Individuals' work performance must be comparable to that of their non-disabled co-workers in the general labor market. SE activities include helping individuals confirm their preferred occupational alternative, identify job preferences and characteristics, clarify preferred critical employment supports and reasonable accommodations including treatment, provide individualized job development and deliver ongoing mental health and related supports with the goal of maintaining integrated employment.

In their narrative, successful applicants will demonstrate concrete and specific examples of how these components have been embraced and will be integral in the design of their proposed SE career service. They should demonstrate how the proposed services will advance and promote the systems change efforts of the Division towards wellness and recovery, articulating a guiding vision and measurable goals and objectives that frame employment and education as key clinical and psychiatric rehabilitative services in the consumer's recovery process.

IV. Program Description

Consistent with the DMHAS' commitment to the principles of wellness and recovery, the proposed SE service is to be implemented in a manner that reflects recovery as an overarching value, as well as an operational principle. SE promotes a Psychiatric Rehabilitation Readiness Determination (PRRD) which assesses the individual's readiness to change, intervene to increase readiness if needed, and increases the skills and supports each person needs to enjoy life to its fullest. The primary focus is on improving performance competencies in specific settings while simultaneously focusing on personal choices, satisfaction, and self-determination. A PRRD assessment is not time limited; rather it is ongoing and incorporates active skill building and environmental support development designed to assist in forming and achieving mutually agreed goals in living, learning, working and/or social environments.

The outcome of PRRD services is the consumer's obtainment and maintenance of valued roles as a result of a systematic approach of rehabilitation diagnosis, goal setting, personal skill development, resource development, and follow-up service. Consumers will be encouraged and supported in determining their own goals and the priority of rehabilitation services.

DMHAS believes that a strong, responsive SE service must have an individualized career profile and be consumer-driven and a collaborative partnership that encourages growth toward independence by recognizing consumer strengths and resources and addressing consumer individualized needs and priorities. A career profile is a process by which consumers' wants, needs and desires in relation to work, as well as their skills, credentials, experiences and challenges, are explored and articulated. It provides the employment specialist basis to assist the consumer in finding jobs that match his/her preferences, strengths, experiences, and unique challenges rather than jobs that are simply available in a pool. This type of match or congruence between the individual and the job critically affects satisfaction, tenure, and success. Individual preference is paramount.

SAMHSA has identified 10 fundamental components of recovery as part of the national consensus statement on mental health recovery. The components are:

1. Self-direction;
2. Individualized and Person Centered;
3. Empowerment;
4. Holistic;
5. Non-Linear;
6. Strengths-based;
7. Peer Support;
8. Respect;
9. Responsibility; and
10. Hope.

DMHAS intends to fund an individualized placement approach to SE, through which the consumer identifies a quality integrated employment opportunity. The following are SE principles identified in the SAMHSA SE Toolkit.

Practice Principles of Supported Employment

1. Every person with SMI and/or COD who wants to work is eligible for supported employment.

2. Employment services are integrated with the consumer's mental health treatment services. While not a requirement to participate in SE, accessing and collaborating with the consumer's treatment provider enhances employment outcomes.
3. Competitive employment is the expected outcome.
4. Personalized benefits counseling is provided.
5. The job search starts soon after an interest to work is expressed.
6. Employment specialists systematically develop relationships with employers based upon consumers' work preferences.
7. Job supports are continuous.
8. Consumers preferences are honored.

V. Functions of Supported Employment

SE is designed to assist consumers with SMI and/or COD who are unemployed or sporadically employed, with or without entitlements such as SSI or SSDI. Successful applicants should be able to outline their proposed SE services by answering the following:

1. Describe the process that incorporates receiving referrals directly from those seeking SE services, as well as referrals from mental health and/or substance use providers and family members. Please describe how the applicant will disseminate these processes county wide;
2. Discuss how the applicant will ensure that SE services are integrated with comprehensive mental health treatment whether within the host agency or outside of the host agency's treatment/service continuum;
3. Articulate admission criteria (inclusionary, and exclusionary, if applicable) which illustrates SE principles, with the consumer's stated desire to work as an overarching criteria. Indicate how referral sources will be informed of criteria;
4. Describe an intake process which captures the consumer's desire to work including wants, needs, interests, and skills, as well as information about entitlements, previous work history and clinical information. Explain how the applicant will conduct a PRRD (see Programs Description page 6) and how the results of the PRRD will be used;
5. Describe the applicant's career profile process, including what and how the information is used to assist the consumer to secure a desired job within a chosen field. Explain how the applicant will work with individuals who identify jobs that they are interested in, but do not possess the skills or credentials needed for the job;
6. Discuss how the applicant will determine occupations and projections for employment opportunities available from local business and industry needs, local wages, and placement;
7. Demonstrate the applicant's existing relationships with local community businesses, Chambers of Commerce or other trade groups. Describe the development of a marketing plan targeted toward assisting in the procurement of chosen jobs within the business community;

8. Illustrate the applicant's individualized job development and placement processes;
9. Discuss in detail how benefits planning with participants will be accomplished and what information and/or records might be required to accomplish such planning. Discuss how the applicant will provide or procure the personalized benefits counseling for participants on entitlements to reduce fear and concern from participants, families and providers;
10. Explain what employment-related supports, including natural supports will be provided, who might provide them and where. Additionally, outline how those supports will be documented;
11. Describe the number of consumers who are expected to be placed into competitive employment as a result of this initiative and how the applicant arrived at the figure. Indicate the applicant's willingness to accept consumers referred by DMHAS staff, including State Psychiatric Hospitals and any foreseen barriers in this process. Provide an explanation as to how the applicant intends to serve individuals who have been, or are involved in, the criminal justice system; and
12. Discuss how the applicant will provide services in a fashion that retains the anonymity of the participant who wishes not to disclose their illness to an employer.

VI. Population to be Served

The population to be served includes individuals with a serious and persistent mental illness and/or COD who are unemployed, underemployed or employed sporadically and have difficulty securing and maintaining employment. The population includes consumers who are presently in DMHAS State Psychiatric Hospitals but are preparing for an imminent discharge. The SE program that will engage with the consumer in the hospital will be from the county that the individual will move to upon discharge.

VII. Staff

In order to enhance SE fidelity and provide to the Evidenced Based Practice (EBP) as described by SAMHSA, qualified staff is crucial.

SE services are being rebid in the 13 counties. Current SE providers, as well as providers who do not currently provide SE services and meet with the eligibility requirements identified in Section III of this RFP, are eligible to respond to the current RFP. Consequently, it is possible that there will be an awardee who is not currently the SE provider in a particular county. Since SE is available in every county, individuals currently employed in SE may be impacted through this solicitation. Each applicant must provide an attestation that they will consider hiring individuals impacted by this solicitation should the awardee not be the SE provider currently operating in the county. Additionally, the new applicant, if appropriate, must articulate a timeline and transition plan from the currently funded SE agency.

The minimum staffing for a SE program shall be at least two qualified full-time equivalents (FTE) employment specialists. The staff must have experience in working with individuals who are diagnosed with a mental illness and with a co-occurring mental illness and substance use disorder. One of the staff must be in the role of a Team Leader or Coordinator. The Team Leader or Coordinator must minimally have a Master's degree in Human Services or the psychiatric rehabilitation field and have experience delivering employment services. The requirement of a Master's prepared individual as the Team Leader/Coordinator comports with SAMHSA's "Supported Employment – Evidence Based Practices" Toolkit. However, in recognition that there are individuals currently employed in the role of the Team Leader/Coordinator who do not possess a Master's degree, the DMHAS will permit the grandfathering of existing Team Leaders/Coordinators without a Master's degree. Accordingly, the expectation is that when the position becomes vacant due to turnover that the agency will make every reasonable effort to hire an individual with a Master's degree to hold the position of Team Leader or Coordinator. In the event that the agency is unable to hire an individual with a Master's Degree after active recruitment efforts to hire a Master's prepared individual, the agency may request a waiver from the DMHAS-designated program manager overseeing SE.

1. Provide the proposed staffing level with the number of FTEs by position.
2. Submit a proposed organizational chart; identify current vacancies.
3. Provide information about your strategies for recruitment, retention and support of qualified staff.
4. Describe your organization's efforts to employ Peer Support Professionals and the support offered to these individuals to become appropriately credentialed.
5. List and describe any contractual relationships that you anticipate necessary to carry out the SE services.
6. Describe the applicant's personnel develop including an individualized learning plan.
7. For any existing, or positions that are to be recruited, provide a job description of each position.
8. Provide an attestation that the awardee will consider hiring any staff member potentially displaced through this solicitation.
9. Provide a timeline and transition plan, if appropriate.

VIII. Quality Improvement

The applicant's organization has procedures promoting and ensuring consumer rights.

The applicant's organization's has an evaluation process which describes how consumer input is included in the program.

The applicant has the ability to monitor individual job satisfaction and support consumers to pursue career development and advancement opportunities.

Attach a sample of consumer employment outcome data for the most recent two years that is relevant to the services that your organization provides.

Describe how the agency will comply with SAMSHA SE requirement and ensure that SE fidelity is conducted and measured independently.

IX. Provider Qualification

In order to be eligible for consideration for this RFP:

1. The applicant must be a fiscally viable for-profit or non-profit organization and be able to document the extent of their experience in successfully providing career services to individuals with mental illness and with a co-occurring mental illness and substance use disorder;
2. The applicant must be able to clearly demonstrate the ability to provide, or have had experience and success in providing career services; integrated employment and to a lesser extent educational services and support for adults consumers with mental illness and/or COD described in this RFP;
3. The applicant must demonstrate the ability to comply with all rules and regulations for any DMHAS program element of service proposed by the applicant;
4. Non-public applicants must demonstrate that they are incorporated through New Jersey Department of State and provide documentation of their current non-profit status;
5. The applicant must be a government entity or a corporation duly registered to conduct business in the State of New Jersey. Applicants may contact the DMHAS Contract Unit at 609-777-0628 with any general questions about requirements in these manuals.

IMPORTANT NOTE: DMHAS reserves the right to use information and outcome measure as benchmark when scoring existing providers whose performance of providing SE services is below the threshold of the minimum of 85% on the selected outcome reporting on the QCMR contracts. The DMHAS reserves the right not to confer an award to an agency whose current outcome data indicates that they are below the minimum contract requirement. If the potential applicant to this RFP currently has outcome data that does not meet or exceed the threshold of 85%, the applicant must provide the reason(s) why they are not currently meeting the threshold and articulate in their proposal the actions that will be taken in order to satisfy the outcome threshold in the proposed service.

XII. Clustering, Incentives, and Fiscal Consequences Related to Performance

Agencies awarded pursuant to this RFP will be separately clustered until the DMHAS determines, in its sole discretion, that the program is stable in terms of service provision, expenditures, and applicable revenue generation.

Contract commitment will be negotiated based upon representations made in response to the RFP. Failure to deliver commitments may result in termination of the contract.

Operating expenses for SE services will be awarded with sufficient time to implement service provision on or about January 12, 2015. Should service provision be delayed, through no fault of the provider, funding continuation will be considered on a case-by-case basis based upon the circumstances creating the delay. In no case shall the Division be required to continue funding when service commencement commitments are not met and in no case shall funding be provided for a period of non-service provision in excess of three months. Should services not be rendered, funds provided pursuant to this agreement shall be returned to the Division.

XIII. Proposal Criteria

Articulate that the agency understands wellness and recovery principles, trauma informed care and cultural competence, as it relates specifically to SE.

Demonstrate the applicant's history of providing high quality SE, employment or career services to individuals with SMI and/or COD by discussing recent and current program specific quality improvement efforts.

Describe the applicant's knowledge of evidence-based and best practices in SE and employment services.

Provide a specified timeframe for phase-in and full implementation of all components of SE operations based on a December 8, 2014 award date. Please note that services are required to be fully operational no later than February 1, 2015 unless the applicant is the current SE provider in which case SE services are expected to continue without interruption.

Existing SE services for Atlantic, Cape May, Salem, Cumberland, Gloucester, Camden, Burlington, Mercer, Hunterdon, Warren, Sussex, Ocean and Passaic Counties are being re bid through this RFP. These services are currently provided by existing agencies and as such, there are staff under their employ that may be displaced by the applicant awarded this service as a result of this RFP. Applicants are expected to consider prospectively displaced employees for hire in their SE services proposal. Consequently, applicants must identify employee recruitment and retention strategies and include a statement in their proposal that indicates the applicant's willingness to consider for employment those employees who will be displaced as a result of this RFP.

If the successful applicant is not the current provider, describe how SE services for current active participants will be continued without interruption.

Clearly state the projected number of adults the applicant proposes to serve annually in SE, while not exceeding the maximum amount of State funds available for this SE award. Such numbers should be based upon best practices. Applicants must submit proposed DMHAS Annex A contract commitments with the units of service based upon a unit cost of $58 for a total of 2,586. The applicant will explain how and why they will distribute those total units of service between the different Annex A categories. Those documents are available at:

Describe how the applicant will educate referral sources regarding such admission criteria and what constitutes a quality referral.

Clarify an intake process which focuses on the consumer's desire to work, including their wants, needs, interests and skills. Please describe the components of the proposed intake process.

Detail applicant's knowledge of the PRRD profile. Explain how this information will be used.

Describe a career profile process with the consumer which builds on intake information and identifies skills, abilities, credentials and experience relevant for the desired job, occupation or field. Determine whether additional credential and/or experience is required for the chosen job, occupation or field and assist the consumer to select the next best steps which may include further education or work experience.

Discuss how the applicant will research demand occupations and establish projections for employment opportunities available from local business as well as industry needs and local wages.

Highlight how relationships with local community businesses, Chambers of Commerce or other trade groups will be established and maintained and how a marketing plan targeted toward assisting in the procurement of chosen jobs within the business community will be developed.

Describe the applicant's active individualized job development and placement process as the primary method of assisting consumers to become employed. Describe other methods, such as a consumer self-directed job search only if jointly agreed upon by the consumer and the provider as a preferred strategy for employment procurement.

Articulate how benefits planning with participants will occur in order to minimize the impact of work on entitlements such as SSDI or SSI. Such planning should inform the participant as to potential changes in cash or health benefits and what reporting requirements are necessary.

Describe how employment and employment-related supports on or off the job-site are arranged or provided. Such supports will be identified with the participant and a support plan will be developed in order for those supports to be available to the consumer. Describe how relationships with mental health and/or substance use providers that might deliver these supports will be initiated and/or maintained.

XIV. Proposal Requirements

Pages must be clearly numbered. An additional 5 pages are allowed if a response is required regarding Section XIV, item B.

- D. Applicants applying for more than one county must submit separate proposals for each county for which they are applying.

XV. Budget Requirements

The applicant must demonstrate their ability to provide mental health services in a cost effective manner within the available resources. A program budget with the following characteristic must be submitted:

- A. Provide a detailed budget information employing the Annex B categories for expenses and revenues, utilizing commonly used software such as Microsoft Excel. The budget must be presented in two clearly labeled separate sections:
1. One to show the full annualized operating costs and revenues in line item detail excluding one-time costs; and
  2. One to show only the one-time costs.
- B. Annualized budgets must show and project all expected revenues and explain assumptions of the methodology used to determine projections.

Budget Notes are often useful to help explain costs and assumptions made regarding certain non-salary expenses and the calculations behind various revenue estimates. Please note that reviewers will need to fully understand the budget projections from the information presented, and failure to provide adequate information could result in lower ranking of the proposal. Please provide budget notes if you believe such notes would assist the reviewers. Enter notes, to the maximum extent possible, on the budget template file itself.

1. Include name and addresses of any organization providing support other than third party payers.
2. For personnel line items, staff names should not be included, but the staff position titles and hours per workweek are needed.
3. Provide the number of hours associated with each line of any clinical consultant so that cost/hour may be considered by the evaluators.
4. Staff fringe benefit expenses may be presented as a percentage factor of total salary costs, and should be consistent with your organization's current fringe benefit percentage.
  - i. If applicable, General & Administrative (G & A) expenses, otherwise known as indirect or overhead costs, should be included if attributable and allocable to the proposed program. Since administrative costs for existing DMHAS programs reallocated to a new program do not require new DMHAS resources, applicants that currently contract with DMHAS should limit your G & A expense projection to "new" G & A only.

Please note that SE is currently not reimbursable under Medicaid guidelines. Should such reimbursement become available in the future, awarded programs will be required to enroll in the Medicaid program, bill for all covered services for all covered individuals, and apply such revenue to their SE program. DMHAS support will then be commensurately reduced.

C. Provide written assurances that if your organization receives an award pursuant to this RFP:

1. The program will seek Medicaid reimbursement when such reimbursement becomes available; and
2. Maintenance of effort statement certifying that the proposed service, if awarded, will increase the level of service currently provided by the organization and the award will not fund or replace existing services.

The consumer and family advisory group will meet with members of the RFP review committee, providing their input regarding each of the proposals submitted.

The Division reserves the right to reject all proposals when circumstances indicate that it is in its best interest to do so. The Division's best interests in this context include, but are not limited to, loss of funding, inability of the Applicant(s) to provide adequate services, and indication of misrepresentation of information and/or non-compliance with State and federal laws and regulations, existing Department Contracts, and procedures set forth in DHS CPIM Policy Circular P1.04. The Division will notify all applicants of awards, contingent upon the satisfactory final negotiation of a contract, by November 24, 2014.

Such supports will be identified with the participant and a support plan will be developed in order for those supports to be available to the consumer. The outcome measures should include how many on the agency SE program active caseload are full-time and how many are part-time; job tenure as the mode length on a job of consumers who are, or have worked, and the annual number of new placements out of the total active caseload.
