Lon E. Mamolen, Deputy Attorney General

Division of Gaming Enforcement

1300 Atlantic Avenue

Atlantic City, NJ 08401

The agency proposal follows:

Summary

Effective February 1, 2011, the Casino Control Act (Act) was amended. See P.L. 2011, c. 19 (N.J.S.A. 5:12-1 et seq.). Under the amendatory scheme, the Division of Gaming Enforcement (Division) is authorized to assume many regulatory responsibilities formerly held by the Casino Control Commission (Commission). The new rules are intended to replace rules of the Commission regarding hearings on contested cases in those instances where jurisdiction has been transferred from the Commission to the Division. These include proceedings concerning casino service employee enterprises, casino vendors, casino employees, labor organizations, forfeiture of winnings from prohibited persons, regulatory violations by casinos, other entities or individuals, and placement on the exclusion list. See N.J.A.C. 13:69B-1.2. When the Division commences a contested case, it shall give notice and opportunity to be heard to the affected party or parties. See N.J.A.C. 13:69B-2.2. The affected party must request to exercise his or her right to a hearing. See N.J.A.C. 13:69B-2.3 and 2.4. The Director of the Division will determine whether to hear the matter himself or herself, designate a hearing examiner, or transmit the matter to the Office of Administrative Law. See N.J.A.C. 13:69B-2.6. N.J.A.C. 13:69B-2.7 and 2.8 set forth the hearing procedures and the burden of proof in contested cases. The Director or his or her designee may issue a protective order to conceal the identity of a witness to the public or to a party where the safety of the witness so requires. Such order shall issue upon a showing of good cause. See N.J.A.C. 13:69B-2.12. A party affected by an adverse decision of the Director or his or her designee shall have 30 days to appeal such decision to the Commission. See N.J.A.C. 13:69B-2.13. New rules N.J.A.C. 13:69B-3.2 and 3.3 set forth the hearing procedures for emergency rulings issued pursuant to Section 109 of the Casino Control Act. N.J.A.C. 13:69B-4.1 and 4.2 provide for a summary proceeding regarding the preliminary placement on the exclusion list. New rule N.J.A.C. 13:69B-6.1 authorizes the Division to conduct investigative hearings on gaming and casino operations in New Jersey and other jurisdictions on topics which are within the Division's jurisdiction. New rules N.J.A.C. 13:69B-8.1 through 8.5 set forth proceedings in those instances when fees and civil penalties are not paid.

The hearing process under the Division's proposed rules is similar to the process which existed under the rules previously used when the Commission had jurisdiction of these matters. The Commission's practice was to appoint a hearing examiner from among the Commissioners who would hear the matter and produce an initial decision. That decision was then reviewed by the full Commission, which could adopt it, reject it, or send the matter back for further proceedings. The Commission also had the right to send a contested case to the Office of Administrative Law. The Division's rules allow the Director to hear a matter himself or herself or designate a hearing examiner. The Director may also choose to transmit any matter to the Office of Administrative Law. The Director or his or her designated hearing examiner will listen to testimony given under oath, examine documents, and render a decision which will constitute the Final Agency Action. Such decision may then be appealed to the Commission. The process used by the Commission on appeal is subject to rulemaking by the Commission. In both instances, contested cases were initiated following investigation by the Division. A hearing is held, testimony and cross examination are done under oath, documents are admitted into evidence and reviewed, and a decision is made which is ultimately subject to review by the full Commission. The main difference is that previously, the Commission's own hearing examiner rendered the decision which the full Commission reviewed. Under the Division's rules, the Division will render a decision in the first instance which is subject to ultimate review by the full Commission.

In conjunction with the proposed new rules discussed above, the Commission's rules at N.J.A.C. 19:42-4, Preliminary Exclusion Hearings; 6, Investigative Hearings; and 8, Administrative Review of Unpaid Fees and Civil Penalties, are proposed for repeal.

This notice of proposal is not required to be referenced in a rulemaking calendar since a public comment period of 60 days is being provided. See N.J.A.C. 1:30-3.3(a)5.

Social Impact

Adoption of the rules in N.J.A.C. 13:69B will maintain fair and consistent standards and procedures for the conduct of hearings by the Division. The proceedings outlined in N.J.A.C. 13:69B enable the Division to implement and enforce the Casino Control Act, N.J.S.A. 5:12-1.1 et seq., and thus assure the credibility and integrity of the regulatory process and of casino gaming.

Economic Impact

The Division will incur substantial costs in implementing the hearing procedures set forth in proposed N.J.A.C. 13:69B. Among other things, considerable staff time is expended in investigations, appearances and preparation of documents. However, any such costs are far outweighed by the State's interest in providing clear, reasonable and efficient procedures that ensure each affected person a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

Licensees, applicants and other parties also incur costs in complying with the procedural requirements in N.J.A.C. 13:69B. For example, there is time and expense involved in the preparation and filing of requisite submissions, appearances and retaining legal counsel. Nonetheless, compliance with these standards and procedures is essential to the successful implementation of the hearing process required by the Act.

Federal Standards Statement

A Federal standards analysis is not required because the proposed repeals and new rules are authorized by the provisions of the Casino Control Act, N.J.S.A. 5:12-1 et seq., and are not subject to any Federal requirements or standards.

Jobs Impact

The proposed repeals and new rules are not anticipated to create new jobs in the gaming industry or elsewhere except to the extent they may enable more efficient and cost-effective casino operations. If the industry is able to realize these efficiencies and savings, casino operators may be inclined to increase their workforces. However, any attempt to predict the impact of the proposed repeals and new rules upon the number of jobs in the gaming industry would be speculative at this time. No job loss is anticipated as a result of the proposed repeals and new rules.

Agriculture Industry Impact

The proposed repeals and new rules will have no impact on agriculture in New Jersey.

Regulatory Flexibility Analysis

The procedural standards in proposed N.J.A.C. 13:69B apply to persons and entities licensed by and registered with the Division, and applicants therefor. Some casino service industry enterprise licensees and applicants or vendor registrants may qualify as small businesses as defined by the Regulatory Flexibility Act, N.J.S.A. 52:14B-16 et seq.

As is apparent from the preceding statements, if such persons are involved in a contested case, they will have the opportunity to request a hearing and would be subject to the procedural requirements therefor. Some time and minimal administrative costs may be incurred in filing the requisite requests and responses to pleadings and/or notices. Some such persons may choose to be represented by counsel and would thus incur attorney's fees. Most of the rules are merely procedural standards for the conduct of contested cases (for example, burden of proof and evidence rules). Small businesses will not incur any costs in complying with these standards. However, an administrative agency's procedures must, as a matter of fundamental fairness, be consistently applied to all similarly situated parties without exemptions or concessions based upon size. Such uniformity of procedures is also essential to administrative efficiency. The public interest would, therefore, not be served by exempting small businesses from the standards and procedures set forth in this chapter or by establishing different compliance requirements for such businesses.

Smart Growth Impact

The proposed repeals and new rules will have no impact on the achievement of smart growth and implementation of the State Development and Redevelopment Plan.

Housing Affordability Impact Analysis

The proposed repeals and new rules will have no impact on the affordability of housing in the State of New Jersey because they affect the regulation of casinos in Atlantic City.

Smart Growth Development Impact Analysis

The proposed repeals and new rules will have no impact on housing production in Planning Areas 1 and 2, or within designated centers, under the State Development and Redevelopment Plan, because they affect the regulation of casinos in Atlantic City.

Full text of the rules proposed for repeal may be found in the New Jersey Administrative Code at N.J.A.C. 19:42-4, 6 and 8.

2. Identify all unresolved issues to be addressed at a hearing; and
3. Resolve any discovery issues in advance of the hearing.

(a) The Director or hearing examiner appointed by the Director shall identify all legal issues unresolved through the settlement conference.

(b) All requests to reschedule a contested case hearing in a case scheduled before the Director or a hearing examiner shall be directed to the Division's Contested Case Intake Unit.

(c) If an applicant fails to appear for a contested case, the applicant's request for hearing may be deemed withdrawn and the Division may take final action, including, without limitation:

1. Denial of any pending initial or resubmission application;
2. Revocation of a license or registration;
3. Prohibition of direct or indirect business with casino licensees or applicants;
4. Imposition of a monetary penalty;
5. Placement on the exclusion list;
6. Order forfeiture of any winnings or things of value obtained by a prohibited person and seized pursuant to N.J.A.C. 13:69G-3.2; or

(e) If the applicant or respondent chooses not to testify on his or her own behalf, the Division shall have the right to call the applicant or respondent to testify, and he or she may be questioned as if under cross-examination.

13:69B-2.8 Burden of proof

(a) The Division shall have the affirmative obligation to establish by a preponderance of the evidence violations of the Act or disqualification pursuant to N.J.S.A. 5:12-86.

(b) The Division shall have the affirmative obligation to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that a candidate for exclusion satisfies the criteria for exclusion set forth in N.J.S.A. 5:12-71 and N.J.A.C. 13:69G-1.3. In a hearing pursuant to N.J.A.C. 13:69G-1.8, the excluded person shall have the affirmative obligation to show cause why he or she should be removed from the list.

(c) Matters pertaining to candidates for preliminary exclusion shall be handled in accordance with N.J.S.A. 5:12-71, N.J.A.C. 13:69G-1.5A and N.J.A.C. 13:69B-4.1 and 4.2.

(d) An applicant or respondent shall have the affirmative obligation to establish by clear and convincing evidence affirmative qualification for licensure.

(e) An applicant or respondent shall have the affirmative obligation to establish by clear and convincing evidence rehabilitation in accordance with N.J.S.A. 5:12-91d.

(f) The Division, in a hearing seeking forfeiture, shall have the affirmative obligation to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the respondent is a prohibited person as defined in N.J.A.C. 13:69G-3.1 and was engaged in a gaming transaction. Any winnings or other things of value resulting from a gaming transaction that are not claimed within six months of the date of the transaction shall be presumed to have been won by a prohibited person who has waived his or her right to a hearing. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the winnings or things of value seized from the respondent were obtained from engaging in a gaming transaction and therefore subject to forfeiture. In order for the respondent to rebut this presumption the respondent shall have the affirmative obligation to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the winnings or things of value, or any portion thereof, were not obtained from engaging in a gaming transaction.

13:69B-2.9, 2.10 and 2.11 (Reserved)

13:69B-2.11A Wage executions

(a) The Division may condition the granting or retention of a license or registration or the granting of a petition pursuant to N.J.A.C. 13:69A-8.9 or 8.10 upon compliance with a court order or a consent agreement with the Division pursuant to which a portion of an applicant's, licensee's, registrant's or petitioner's wages will be withheld as an installment payment against a financial obligation owed or secured, directly or indirectly, to this State or any subdivision thereof or other governmental entity.

(b) Any individual who is subject to a Division order pursuant to (a) above shall:

1. Submit a copy of the Division order and the relevant court order or consent agreement to his or her current employer and to any future casino employer until the obligation is paid in full; and

2. Notify the Division when the terms of the court order or consent agreement have been satisfied, including evidence that the obligation has been paid in full. Such notice shall be directed to the Division at the address specified in N.J.A.C. 13:69B-2.3.

13:69B-2.12 Motions for reconsideration; motions to reopen the record; motions for relief; dispositive motions; protective orders

(a) Any party may, within 10 days after the service of a final Division order, file a motion for reconsideration which motion may seek to reopen the record. The motion shall be in writing and shall state the grounds upon which relief is sought. The Division may grant such motion, under such terms and conditions as the Division may deem appropriate, when the Division finds just cause for reconsideration of the order based upon legal, policy or factual argument advanced by the movant or raised by the Division on its own motion.

(b) Any party may, within one year after the service of a final Division order, file a motion to reopen the record based upon newly discovered evidence. The motion shall be supported by an affidavit of the moving party or counsel showing with particularity the materiality and necessity of the additional evidence and the reason why such evidence was not presented at the original hearing or on a motion for reconsideration pursuant to (a) above. The Division may grant such motion upon a showing that the newly discovered evidence is material and necessary, that sufficient reason existed for failure to present such evidence and that the evidence is reasonably likely to change the final decision of the Division. Upon reconsideration, the Division may modify its decision and order as the additional evidence may warrant.

(c) Any party may, within one year of the service of a final Division order, file a motion for relief from such an order. The motion shall be in writing and shall state the grounds upon which relief is sought. The Division may grant such motion and vacate or modify the order, reopen the record, or grant a hearing pursuant to N.J.S.A. 5:12-107, upon a showing of the following:

1. Mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect;
2. Fraud, misrepresentation or other misconduct of an adverse party; or
3. Any other reason consistent with the public policy of the Act and in the interests of justice.

(d) No motion filed pursuant to this section, and no order granting such motion, shall suspend the operation of any Division order unless otherwise specified by order of the Division.

(e) Dispositive motions may be filed by a party to the hearing in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.1. Dispositive motions shall be supported by briefs and, when appropriate, certifications in support of factual claims relating to the motion; or

(f) The following concern protective orders:

1. Upon motion filed with the Director and for good cause shown, the Director may at any time order that the name, address or any other identifying facts about a witness be denied or restricted.

2. Upon motion filed with the Director and for good cause shown, the Director may order the identity of a witness while testifying at a contested case hearing be concealed from the parties and the public.

3. In determining the motion, the Director may consider the following factors: protection of witnesses and others from physical harm, bribes, economic reprisals and other intimidation; protection of confidential relationships and privileges recognized by law; and any other relevant considerations.

13:69B-2.13 Appeal from Division decision

Within 30 days from the issuance of a Division decision by the Director or a hearing examiner appointed by the Director, a party may appeal the decision, upon notice to the Division, to the Casino Control Commission which may review and decide any appeal of a final Division decision pursuant to N.J.S.A. 5:12-63b.

SUBCHAPTER 3. EMERGENCY RELIEF

13:69B-3.1 (Reserved)

13:69B-3.2 Orders granting emergency relief; form; service

(a) An order suspending a license or registration shall be effective from the date of Division action or within such additional time as the Division may, upon a showing of good cause, permit.

(b) An order temporarily prohibiting business between a casino service industry or vendor registrant and casino licensees or applicants, or any agent or employee thereof, shall become effective 15 days from the date of Division action unless the Division extends the time period for good cause shown.

13:69B-3.3 Emergency orders; hearings; complaints

Within five days after issuance of an emergency order pursuant to section 109 of the Act, the Division shall cause a complaint to be filed and served upon the person involved in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the rules of the Division. Thereafter, the person against whom the emergency order has been issued and served shall be entitled to request a hearing before the Division.

SUBCHAPTER 4. PRELIMINARY EXCLUSION HEARINGS

13:69B-4.1 Preliminary placement on the exclusion list

(a) In accordance with the provisions of N.J.A.C. 13:69G-1.5A, the Division may preliminarily place a candidate on the exclusion list pending completion of the plenary hearing for exclusion.

(b) Unless otherwise ordered by the Division, a plenary hearing on the exclusion shall be initiated within 30 days after the receipt of a request for a plenary hearing or the date of the preliminary placement on the list, whichever is later.

13:69B-4.2 Preliminary exclusion; burden of proof; service of order

(a) An action for preliminary exclusion shall be a limited pre-exclusion proceeding. The purpose of such action is to determine if there is a reasonable possibility that a candidate satisfies the criteria for exclusion established by section 71 of the Act and N.J.A.C. 13:69G-1.3.

(b) Preliminary exclusion shall be decided on the basis of the reliable documentary or other supporting evidence.

(c) A preliminary order of the Division designating a candidate as an excluded person shall, within five days of its entry, be served upon the candidate and all casino licensees.

(d) A Division order denying an application for preliminary placement of a candidate on the list shall be served upon the candidate.

SUBCHAPTER 5. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER 6. INVESTIGATIVE HEARINGS

13:69B-6.1 Investigative hearings

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 5:12-66 and 76, the Division may conduct investigative hearings concerning the conduct of gaming and gaming operations, the operation and administration of casino control laws in this and in other jurisdictions, and any other matters within the scope of the powers, duties and responsibilities of the Division.

SUBCHAPTER 7. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER 8. ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW OF UNPAID FEES AND CIVIL PENALTIES

13:69B-8.1 Commencement

(a) The Division may, on its motion, administratively review the failure to pay any civil penalty where cause exists to question whether all required fees or civil penalties have been paid.

(b) The Division shall initiate the administrative review by notifying any person who apparently has failed to pay a required fee or civil penalty that the Division may impose the sanctions set forth in N.J.A.C. 13:69A-9.3(f) unless the person attends or is represented at an administrative review conference conducted by the Division.

(c) The notice scheduling an administrative review conference shall be served by regular or certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice shall specify a date for the conference that is not earlier than 15 days after the date the notice is served and shall schedule a date subsequent to the date of the conference on which the Division shall take further action pursuant to N.J.A.C. 13:69A-9.3(f).

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subchapter, the question of an outstanding fee or civil penalty may be consolidated with a contested case matter and scheduled for a hearing pursuant to N.J.A.C. 13:69B-2.

13:69B-8.2 Repayment plans

If, at any time after the administrative review is initiated, the person admits the debt but reasonably demonstrates that it cannot immediately pay in full, then the Division may structure a repayment schedule consistent with the ability to pay. If the person agrees to the terms of the repayment schedule, further action in the administrative review shall be postponed in order to afford the person the opportunity to satisfy the terms of the repayment agreement. If a default occurs under a repayment agreement, the administrative review shall be reinstated; provided, however, that no further repayment plan shall be allowed unless the debtor demonstrates that extraordinary circumstances exist. The administrative review shall cease and the matter shall be closed once the Division is satisfied that the person has fully complied with the terms of the repayment agreement.

13:69B-8.3 Administrative review conference

(a) The administrative review conference is an informal proceeding designed to facilitate a fair, expeditious and orderly disposition of the Division's administrative review of unpaid fees and civil penalties. Any person that is notified to attend such a conference is required to appear and may be represented by counsel. If the person so notified is a corporation, it may appear without counsel provided it does so through one of its principals.

(b) Attendance at a scheduled administrative review conference is mandatory. The failure to attend such a conference shall constitute cause to dismiss immediately all applications, or suspend all licenses, registrations or permissions held, submitted by or granted to the person served with notice pursuant to N.J.A.C. 13:69B-8.1.

(c) During the administrative review conference, the person required to attend the conference may present any information that would demonstrate that all required payments have been made.

13:69B-8.4 Disposition of fee matters and civil penalties
