

CRACKDOWN REPORT

NEW JERSEY DIVISION OF HIGHWAY TRAFFIC SAFETY

2018 YEAR-END HOLIDAY CRACKDOWN • DECEMBER 7, 2018 – JANUARY 1, 2019

Every life lost in a traffic crash is to be mourned. When a death occurs during the holiday season, and at the hands of an impaired driver, it seems all the more tragic. The year end holidays should be a festive time, however the decision by some to drive after drinking alcohol or using drugs often reaps disastrous results. According to NHTSA, 10,874 people were killed on our nation's roads in 2017 in impaired driving crashes, including 885 in the month of December. Almost 30 percent of all fatal crashes in the U.S. involve a drunk driver. In New Jersey, during the five year period 2012-2016 there were approximately 38,000 alcohol involved crashes and more than 718 fatalities.

The issue of impaired driving is not new. Great strides have been made over the years, however the numbers clearly show that a renewed focus is needed. To that end, the New Jersey Division of Highway Traffic Safety (NJDHTS), police departments around the state, and other traffic safety agencies joined together to carry out the Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over 2018 Year End Holiday Crackdown. The goal of the crackdown was to mobilize New Jersey's law enforcement community during the final weeks of the year to raise public awareness about the dangers of impaired driving through a combination of high visibility enforcement and outreach activities.

NJDHTS invited all 491 police agencies in New Jersey to support the campaign during the period December 7, 2018 – January 1, 2019 with 161 receiving overtime enforcement grants, most in the amount of $5,500 each. The remaining non-funded agencies were asked to support the crackdown through the use of their own resources. Participating police departments were also asked to engage their communities through the dissemination of local press releases and public service announcements, and by displaying Variable Message Boards with the campaign theme.

THE RESULTS

The Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over 2018 Year End Holiday Crackdown resulted in 1,269 DWI arrests (alcohol and drugs), down from 1,400 during the 2017 campaign. In addition, participating police agencies issued 5,704 and 3,125 speeding and seat belt summonses, respectively. 76% (372) of New Jersey's police agencies participated in the crackdown. A number of departments reported noteworthy accomplishments, including 15 agencies making 14 or more DWI arrests during the campaign.
