As a member of the Army National Guard, you are part of the mission of the Guard, serving and protecting your country and local community.

For this commitment and dedication, soldiers in the Army National Guard may be eligible for numerous financial and education incentives as listed below.

- 100% free tuition for undergraduate and graduate studies at any New Jersey state college or university (see list of schools on back).
- Federal tuition assistance for private and out-of-state schools.
- Student loan repayment for qualifying federally insured loans.
- Montgomery GI Bill which pays a tax free monthly stipend to college students and students enrolled in technical schools.
- Enlistment and reenlistment bonuses. Ask your recruiter about current bonus amounts.
- Guard Recruiting Assistance Program which pays Guard members $2,000 for each new recruit that enlists.
- Monthly part-time paycheck.
- Retirement pay and benefits.

Since 1636, the citizen-soldiers of the Army National Guard have defended the homeland and fought the nation's wars. Soldiers in the Army National Guard traditionally serve one weekend a month and perform a two week annual training in order to prepare for these vital missions.
