DEPARTMENTAL BULLETIN NO. 4-12*

18 June 2012

DMAVA EMPLOYEE (800) NUMBER EMERGENCY HOT-LINE (IASD)

1. This Bulletin applies to all employees within the New Jersey Department of Military and Veterans Affairs (DMAVA).
2. Effective 1 July 2004, the Department instituted a toll free telephone number for employees to call in the event of a declared state of emergency, closing or delayed opening due to inclement weather or other emergency situation(s).
3. The purpose of the toll free number is to provide additional information and guidance to employees for such events as: closing the building due to an unforeseen event; instructions for employees to report to alternate work locations; reporting requirements during a state of emergency, etc.
4. Instructions for accessing the toll free employee emergency hotline are contained in Enclosure No. 1 of this bulletin. Managers and supervisors are instructed to give this bulletin the widest dissemination possible to insure that all employees are aware of the emergency hotline number (866-232-5798) and call-in procedures.
5. Messages will be administered as follows: State employees, the Director, Human Resources; Federal and National Guard employees, the J-1 Human Resources Office at JFHQ.
6. Questions or inquiries concerning this departmental bulletin should be addressed to the Director, DMAVA (State) Human Resources at (609) 530-6885 or the Director, Federal Human Resources at 609-562-0852.
