

Disaster Management for Public Service

MGT-317
(TEEX)

Course Information Sheet

Location: NJSP Headquarters, ROIC, West Trenton, NJ 08628

Dates: May 31 – June 1, 2016 Two (2) days

Time: 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. (each day)

Pre-Course Recommendations

- Required: IS-100, IS-200, and IS-700
- Recommended: IS-800

Additional Information:

Prior to the course delivery, all participants must establish a FEMA Student Identification Number (SID)

Course Purpose:

The Disaster Management of Public Service course is designed to provide public service and other responsible professionals with the knowledge and skills necessary to protect their communities and infrastructure from potential or actual threats. During this course, participants will work together in multidisciplinary teams to apply the course information with their professional experience in a variety of hands-on, small group activities, and disaster scenarios.

Course Objectives

At the end of this course, the students should be able to:

- Describe natural and man-made disasters to which public services may be vulnerable
- Recognize the how emergency planning, regulatory systems, and directives guide disaster response
- Describe how response factors, such as hazard control zones, resources, and responder safety, and responder safety impact an event
- Identify the value of recovery resources, such as funding assistance and demobilization
- Apply the principles of ICS in response to a public service incident

Target Audience

The target audience for this course is emergency management personnel who are expected to identify and mitigate hazards, and who plan and manage disaster response and recovery efforts within their jurisdictions. Representatives from public service agencies, fire services, law enforcement, emergency medical services, emergency planning, public health, and hazardous materials response organizations are encouraged to attend.

Class size limited to 24, registration is required: NJOEM Training Application. Fill out the application completely and email it to FTU@gw.njsp.org. Questions may be directed to LPPREIDL@gw.njsp.org, 609-963-6962 or fax it to 609-671-0160. You will be contacted by email when your application is received and approved.