If you are requesting employment as soon as possible, be sure to indicate YES to question 6 - "Does Applicant Request a Temporary Work Letter?" You must also include a completed "Employment Verification Letter" (EVL) with your application.

Petition for Removal of a Criminal Disqualification

Any person convicted of a crime of moral turpitude must wait five (5) years from the date of conviction or the release from incarceration, whichever date is later, before a petition for the Removal of a Criminal Disqualification can be filed. Any involvement in the alcoholic beverage industry which was not authorized by a Rehabilitation Employment Permit or Temporary Work Letter (TWL) is added to the five year time period and could further result in a determination that the applicant has not met the burden of establishing that the petitioner has behaved in a law abiding manner during the previous five year time period. The application for a Removal of a Criminal Disqualification may take a period of time for the NJABC to process as it will involve an investigation into your background. The time frame will vary depending on the complexity of each individual case. If you are requesting employment as soon as possible, be sure to indicate YES to question 6 - "Does Applicant Request a Temporary Work Letter?" You must also include a completed "Employment Verification Letter" (EVL) with your application.

- (2) Two (2) current full-face passport type photos;
- (3) A non-refundable fee of $100.00 is required for the submission of either application. Payment may be made by money order or certified check payable to "NJ Div. of ABC". (Please do not send cash through the mail);

- (1) An Employment Verification Letter (EVL) completed and signed by the prospective employer (the licensee). Absent a properly completed EVL, a TWL will not be considered.

A preliminary review of all the required documents will be made and a determination to grant or deny the TWL will be rendered. Any employment, at any NJABC licensed business, is prohibited without written authorization from this Division.
