

New Jersey Human Relations Council

18th Annual Leadership Conference

“Offering Community Based Solutions for Children of Incarcerated Parents: Your Rights, Our Commitment.”

Wednesday, May 21, 2014

Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex
25 Market Street, Trenton, NJ 08625
4th Floor Conference Center

Registration: 8:15 a.m. - 9:00 a.m.
Conference: 9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

The conference will feature a panel of experts, advocates and activists, and governmental agencies, non-profits, and community based organizations that offer support to children of incarcerated parents (COIP). This year's conference marks the last of a series of Human Relations Council conferences addressing the challenges confronted by COIP. The panelists will give an overview of their respective services, and offer solutions to a host of critical issues involving acts of prejudice, bias, and discrimination, that affect this growing population.

The panel discussion will be followed by the presentation of Unity Awards to exceptional individuals, and organizations that live and/or work in New Jersey and have made outstanding contributions promoting diversity and unity in their communities. The focus of the awards this year will be for contributions made on behalf of children of incarcerated parents.

THE CONFERENCE IS FREE OF CHARGE, BUT REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED BY MAY 14, 2014, SO THAT THERE ARE ADEQUATE REFRESHMENTS AND PARKING.
