

AND JUSTICE FOR ALL... Restoring Our Faith in Police and Community Relations
New Jersey Human Relations Council 19th Annual Leadership Conference
Wednesday, November 16th, 2016 Kean University, Union, NJ

- 8:30am Registration – continental breakfast
- 9:00-9:10am Welcome and opening remarks
Emcee – Philip Freeman, Assistant Director at NJ Division on Civil Rights
- 9:10-10:10am Panel – Defining the issue & challenges
Elie Honig, Director of NJ Division of Criminal Justice
Dianna Houenou, Policy Counsel for ACLU-NJ
Lukata Mjumbe, Pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Irvington
Joseph Mazza, consultant, Lieutenant (retired) North Brunswick PD
- 10:20-11:10am Keynote - Dr. Paula Rodriguez-Rust of Spectrum Diversity
Understanding key issues facing people who identify as LGBTQ, and the challenges of being transgendered in a binary female/male world
- 11:20-11:50pm NJHRC 2016 Unity Award winners announced
Individual – Charles Newman
Law Enforcement – Major Ronald Hampton
Youth Leadership – Griffin Spielman
Social Service – Roots & Wings
Education – Dr. Paula Rodriguez-Rust
Faith-based Community – MOSAIC Project
Government Service – Maureen O’Brien, Esq.
- Noon-1:00pm Panel – Best practices in improving police and community relations
Major Ronald Hampton, New Jersey State Police
Grace Park, Acting Prosecutor of Union County
Jasmine Crenshaw, leader of Newark Communities for Accountable Policing
Director Ernest Parrey, Jr., Trenton Police Department
- 1:00pm Closing remarks