The HRC Diversity Award, sponsored by the NJ Human Relations Council, is designed to recognize exceptional individuals who live and/or work in New Jersey and have made an outstanding contribution to our community to promote diversity.

Organizations, corporations, agencies and educational institutions of all levels are encouraged to nominate outstanding individuals who have made a difference in the area of diversity. A nominee may be employed/a volunteer in the field of:

- Business/Management: Managers, corporate officials, customer service, research, scientists, etc.
- Education: Teachers or administrators in public, private schools or higher education who have been innovative or very dedicated to diversity education.
- Government/Law Enforcement: Government or law Enforcement agencies: elected officials, administrators, or staff who have made unique contributions or have performed outstanding service.
- Journalism/Media: Writers, editors, commentators, authors - those who may significantly affect community diversity promotional efforts.
- Social Service and Volunteerism: Any community agencies, professional practitioners and citizens in the community.
- Youth Leaders: Youth group that promotes diversity in the community
- Faith Community: Outstanding initiatives for promoting intercultural/interfaith understanding

The recipient of the award will be honored at the next NJHRC Leadership Conference. The HRC must receive nominations for the 2016 Diversity Award no later than June 30, 2016. Please complete the enclosed form and include a narrative statement of 200 words or less on your nominee's specific accomplishments within the community (rather than a listing of titles, boards served on, etc.) For example, you might nominate someone who has initiated, designed or implemented an innovative diversity program in the community, school or workplace.
