

Children and Youth Against

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

No one should be for sale

Thursday, October 16, 2014

7:30 pm

Union Baptist Church
DC Rice Hall
14 Midland Avenue
Montclair, NJ

Slavery was abolished 150 years ago...
And yet there are more people in slavery today
than at any other time in our history.

In partnership with the children and youth ministry of Union Baptist Church and the students from Renaissance @ Rand Middle School a creative and sensitive presentation will be made.

Detective Kim Nelson-Edwards, Montclair Police Department will share resources to help youth who may find themselves in difficult situations.

Visit Eventbrite.com to Pre-Register

Eventbrite

Union Baptist Church

12 Midland Avenue

Montclair, NJ 07042

(973) 746 – 3270

www.unionbaptist-montclair.org

Rev. Dr. Campbell B. Singleton, III

Senior Pastor