

OFFICE OF BIAS CRIME AND COMMUNITY RELATIONS

presents a training program entitled:

HATE ON THE INTERNET

A Program for School Teachers, Administrators & Staff

On April 19, 1995, the day of the Oklahoma City terrorist attack, there was one hate site on the World Wide Web.

In March 2000 The Simon Wiesenthal Center identified 2,800 problematic sites.

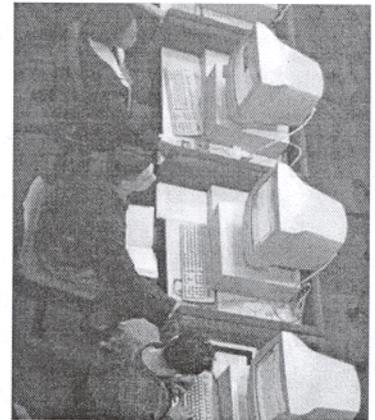

Today over 200 million people use the internet. This number doubles every 100 days.

This one-hour training program for educators will take an in-depth look at how our youth are targeted on the internet.

- Hate sites
- Hate Music
- Hate Groups
- Problematic Sites
(i.e. bomb making, etc.)

Instructors include Experts in Internet Hate Crimes &
Prejudice Reduction.

Learn how to educate your students about hate on the Internet!
