Division of Criminal Justice Academy

The Division of Criminal Justice Academy has been a Police Training Commission approved academy since 1980. Established originally to conduct the Basic Course for Investigators, the Division of Criminal Justice Academy has expanded its curriculum to include other PTC approved courses, such as the revised Modified Basic Course for Investigators, the Basic Course for Arson Investigators and the Arson Investigation In-Service Course. In addition, the Academy conducts a wide variety of specialty and management development courses not generally available at other police academies. The Academy also provides continuing education to state investigators and deputy attorneys general from the Division of Criminal Justice.

Course Registration

To register for a course, submit a copy of the registration form located at the end of the catalog. To assist in planning course enrollment and providing confirmation of enrollment, when possible, registrations should be submitted at least 30 days prior to the course start date to the address below:

Criminal Procedure Update MBCI Course

This two-day program will update assistant prosecutors, police instructors and newly-appointed prosecutor's investigators with police experience in the recent developments in the laws of search warrants and exceptions to the warrant requirement, as well as Identity Theft and Document Fraud. The seminar will focus on the court decisions which have been recently handed down by the United States Supreme Court and the New Jersey courts. In addition to providing a comprehensive update of new material, the seminar will simultaneously serve as a refresher for those persons who have not had an opportunity to attend a criminal procedure update for a number of years. Moreover, throughout the course, innovative teaching techniques and procedures will be offered, along with helpful suggestions for instructing new or veteran officers in this topic.

Who should attend: Assistant prosecutors, deputy attorneys general and police instructors. Prosecutor's investigators/detectives who must attend the "Modified Basic Course for Investigators," that is, prosecutor's investigators/detectives who have previously completed the Basic Course for Police Officers in New Jersey, who have not had a break in law enforcement service for more than three years, and who are seeking certification as county prosecutor's investigators or detectives.

Registration Limitations: Registration will be limited to county prosecutor's investigators who are required to attend in order to obtain PTC certification. However, 30 days before the class begins, registration will be opened to all law enforcement personnel.

Cost: No charge

Domestic Violence Investigation for Law Enforcement Executives

This course will discuss recent changes in domestic violence law and procedures, criteria for the seizure of weapons and the development of standard operating procedures. Instruction will also cover updated information regarding the role and function of crisis teams.

Who should attend: Law enforcement executives and command level personnel.

Cost: No charge

Dates: 05/21/09 (Burlington County Police Academy)
10/08/09 (John Stamler Police Academy, Union County)

Domestic Violence Investigation for Municipal Law Enforcement

This course provides a clear and concise, yet comprehensive, presentation of relevant state and federal court decisions as well as strategies for effective investigation and prosecution at the municipal level. The intent of this course is to provide innovative strategies and techniques that will assist in the investigation and prosecution of domestic violence cases without the participation or cooperation of the victim.

Who should attend: Municipal police officers, detectives and investigators.

Cost: No charge

Date(s): 05/20/09 (Burlington County College Police Academy)
10/07/09 (John Stamler Police Academy, Union County)

11/20/09 (Middlesex County Prosecutor's Office)

Internal Affairs Policy and Procedures (4 Day)

The receipt and handling of complaints of police misconduct are governed by the statewide Internal Affairs Policy issued by the Attorney General. This program is essential to familiarize the internal affairs officer with the Attorney General's directives for conducting internal affairs investigations. Moreover, the course covers significant topics in internal affairs investigations, including interviewing subject officers, search and seizure, maintaining records, discipline and confidentiality. This course is NOT an annual update of internal affairs procedures; if you attended in 2007 you will not be allowed to attend in 2008. Confirmation will be sent to the registrant approximately one month prior to the course. It is the registrant's responsibility to notify their supervisor of their acceptance.

Registration is strictly limited:

1. No more than two individuals from one agency
2. Only individuals who are assigned to an Internal Affairs unit
3. Only individuals whose registration form is signed by the agency head (Chief or Director)
4. Anyone who was registered for a prior course and failed to attend without prior notification will not be permitted to register.

Who should attend: Law enforcement officers who are assigned to the internal affairs function as certified by the chief or agency executive.

Cost: $150

Date(s): 9/14/09 - 9/17/09 (John Stamler Police Academy, Union County)
12/14/09 - 12/17/09 (Burlington County College Teleconferencing Center)

No one will be admitted to class without their confirmation letter.

Registration is for an individual, not an agency. If the Chief wishes to make a substitution, a new registration form must be submitted at least two days before the class begins.

Interview and Interrogation MBCI Course

This two-day course provides the fundamentals of interview and interrogation and explores strategies which may be employed in each. Included are understanding verbal and non-verbal behavior, preparing for the interview or interrogation, developing questions in a structured interview, and choosing the setting for the interview. The course includes practical exercises. Class size is limited.

Who should attend: Prosecutor's investigators/detectives who must attend the "Modified Basic Course for Investigators," that is, prosecutor's investigators/detectives who have previously completed the Basic Course for Police Officers in New Jersey, who have not had a break in law enforcement service for more than three years, and who are seeking certification as county prosecutor's investigators or detectives and other law enforcement personnel.

10/15/09 - 10/16/09 (Middlesex County Prosecutor's Training Center)

Investigator Safety and Security MBCI Course

This one-day course will provide students with the principles and procedures for investigator safety and security when approaching suspects. Included will be tactical positioning and suspect body language, draw and challenge, reflex tension and chain reaction shooting. The course will include practical exercises. Class size is limited.

Requirements: Casual dress for class participation (casual shirt and slacks; no jeans or tee shirts). Dress must include belted slacks, duty holster and weapon.

Who should attend: Prosecutor's investigators/detectives who must attend the "Modified Basic Course for Investigators," that is, prosecutor's investigators/detectives who have previously completed the Basic Course for Police Officers in New Jersey, who have not had a break in law enforcement service for more than three years, and who are seeking certification as county prosecutor's investigators or detectives and other law enforcement investigators.

Registration Limitations: Registration will be limited to county prosecutor's investigators who are required to attend in order to obtain PTC certification. However, 30 days before the class begins, registration will be opened to all law enforcement personnel.

Cost: No charge

Date(s): 3/24/09 (Middlesex County Prosecutor's Office Training Center)
6/23/09 (Middlesex County Prosecutor's Office Training Center)
10/14/09 (Middlesex County Prosecutor's Office Training Center)

Modified Basic Course for Investigators

Effective June 1997, the PTC replaced the Modified Basic Course for Investigators (MBCI) with a requirement that newly-hired county prosecutor's investigators and detectives with previous law enforcement experience and training must complete, within twelve months of appointment, a core in-service training curriculum consisting of the following courses: Criminal Procedure Update; Internal Affairs Policy and Procedures, MBCI (1-Day Course), Interview and Interrogation; and Investigator Safety and Security. Information concerning each of these specific courses is provided elsewhere in this catalog.

Who should attend: Prosecutor's investigators/detectives who have completed the Basic Course for Police Officers in New Jersey, have not had a break in law enforcement service for more than three years, and are seeking PTC certification.

Registration Limitations: Registration will be limited to county prosecutor's investigators who are required to attend in order to obtain PTC certification. However, 30 days before the class begins, registration will be opened to all law enforcement personnel.

Physical Conditioning Instructor Course

The Physical Conditioning Instructor Course is a 40-hour course conducted over five days. The course is designed to prepare law enforcement officers to implement and teach a physical fitness program in their police agencies or in a police academy. It is a prerequisite for certification by the Police Training Commission as a Physical Conditioning Instructor. The course requires participation in practical exercises as well as classroom instruction on fitness related topics. Class size is limited (18).

Who should attend: Law enforcement officers who require physical conditioning instructor certification by the Police Training Commission.

Requirements: Students must successfully complete a physical conditioning entrance test consisting of strength, resistance and cardiovascular exercises to receive certification. Appropriate exercise clothing should be worn to class.

Cost: $150

Date(s): 3/30/09 - 4/03/09 8:30 am - 4:30 pm (DCJ Academy, Sea Girt)

Police Bicycle Patrol Course

The Juvenile Justice Commission Training Academy, Sea Girt, N.J., is offering three five (5) day Patrol Bicycle Courses in 2009. The courses will be held at their academy in June, July and August.

For more information or registration contact DI Tim Madas, Juvenile Justice Commission Training Academy at (732) 974-4334.

Radar Instructor Refresher

The refresher course is required for DCJ radar instructors once every three years. A radar instructor/operator certificate is issued for three years. In the third year, prior to expiration, each instructor must attend the refresher course. We notify the instructors in writing prior to the annual schedule that they're required to attend to renew their certification. The course is conducted from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Who should attend: Law enforcement officers who teach radar operations..

09/23/09 (Somerset County Police Academy)

Street Encounters, Stops and Frisks

This course is intended for assistant prosecutors and others who instruct police officers on the legal aspects of inquiries, stops and frisks. It focuses closely on the distinctions between an inquiry and a Terry stop, how reasonable suspicion is determined, and how the Terry stop has been expanded to cover more than people. It also examines the criteria for a frisk and discusses the plain touch concept approved by the federal Supreme Court. Throughout the course, innovative teaching techniques and procedures will be offered, along with helpful suggestions for instructing new or veteran officers.

Who should attend: Assistant prosecutors, deputy attorneys general, police instructors.

Cost: No charge

Date(s): 5/27/09 (Middlesex County Prosecutor's Training Center)
11/12/09 (Burlington County College Teleconferencing Center)

Subgun Instructor Course

This five-day course prepares the law enforcement firearms instructor to teach the fundamentals of operating the law enforcement submachine gun. Successful completion of this course certifies the instructor to qualify subgun operators under the Attorney General's Requalification Guidelines. Instruction includes nomenclature, malfunction clearance, semi-automatic and full automatic manipulation drills, shooting on the move, and other street relevant courses of fire.

Class size is limited (25).

Who should attend: Law enforcement firearms instructors who wish to instruct and qualify law enforcement officers in the use of a submachine gun in accordance with the New Jersey Attorney General's Requalification Guidelines.

Requirements: Previous attendance to a Firearms Instructor Course. Candidates must provide a copy of a certificate confirming successful completion of a Firearms Instructor Course upon registration.

Candidates must achieve a 90% score on the Automatic/Semi-Automatic Qualification Course (ASQC), the subgun low light qualification course and pass a written examination to successfully complete the course. Necessary equipment includes: a submachine gun with sling; at least two 30-round magazines for the subgun; 2,500 rounds of ammunition for the subgun; a flashlight or subgun attached light device; service handgun and holster; 100 rounds of ammunition for the handgun; wrap-around eye protection; hearing protection; baseball style or other hat with wide front brim; long sleeve shirts; rain gear (no ponchos); and a cleaning kit.
