NOTICE

1. Pursuant to Section 74.1 of the Casino Control Act, information supplied to the Commission and Division of Gaming Enforcement or otherwise obtained by either of them, is confidential and shall not be revealed, except in the course of the necessary administration of the Casino Control Act, or upon the lawful order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or with the approval of the Attorney General, to a duly-authorized law enforcement agency. Nevertheless, pursuant to Section 80b of the Casino Control Act, an applicant or licensee waives any liability of the State of New Jersey and its instrumentalities and agents for any damages resulting from any disclosure or publication in any manner, other than a willfully unlawful disclosure or publication.

2. An applicant for, or holder of, a license or registration under the Casino Control Act, is subject to inspections, searches and seizures, as authorized by the Act and by the regulations of the Division of Gaming Enforcement. More specifically, Section 79 of the Act, N.J.S.A. 5:12-79a(6), empowers the Division of Gaming Enforcement to conduct searches, administrative inspections and, with the approval of the director, to “inspect the person, and personal effects present in a casino facility licensed under this act, of any holder of a license or registration, issued pursuant to this act while that person is present in a licensed casino facility.”

3. Pursuant to Section 92e of the Casino Control Act, no Casino Hotel Alcoholic Beverage license shall be issued to any person, unless that person shall provide proof of valid business registration with the Division of Revenue in the Department of Treasury.

Effective September 1, 2001, businesses that register with the Division of Revenue are issued a business registration certificate. This certificate will serve as proof of valid business registration for the purposes of Casino Hotel Alcoholic Beverage licensure.

If the prospective applicant for issuance or renewal of a Casino Hotel Alcoholic Beverage License has not registered with the Division of Revenue as required by New Jersey law, it can do so by utilizing the Division of Revenue’s online registration service at:

<http://www.state.nj.us/treasury/revenue/gettingregistered.html>

by calling the Registration Hotline at (609) 292-1730 to obtain a registration form, or by downloading a paper registration form from the Internet at:

<http://www.state.nj.us/treasury/revenue/revprnt.shtml>

Once the prospective license applicant has registered with the Division of Revenue, that agency will send the prospective license applicant a business registration schedule.
