

JDAI State Steering Committee

The Juvenile Justice Commission leads a State Steering Committee whose membership includes representation from:

- Attorney General's Office, including police, prosecutors, and the Division of Criminal Justice
- Judiciary, including administration, judges and probation
- Department of Children and Families
- Public Defenders Office
- Office of the Child Advocate
- Department of Education
- County administration representatives
- County Youth Services Commission representatives
- New Jersey Juvenile Detention Association
- Governor's Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Committee
- New Jersey Juvenile Officers' Association
- Institute for Social Justice

In addition, each participating county has a local steering committee that relies on collaboration, leadership and data collection to improve juvenile justice system policy, practice and outcomes.
