URSHELL K. PEARSON)

The Grand Jurors of and for the State of New Jersey, upon their oaths, present that:

COUNT ONE

(Official Misconduct - Second Degree)

URSHELL K. PEARSON

between on or about September 24, 2007 and on or about October 4, 2007, in the City of Camden, in the County of Camden, elsewhere, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did commit the offense of official misconduct, the said URSHELL K. PEARSON, with purpose to obtain a benefit for himself or another or to injure or deprive another of a benefit, did commit acts relating to his office, but constituting unauthorized exercises of his official functions, knowing that such acts were unauthorized or that he was performing them in an unauthorized manner, or did knowingly refrain from performing a duty imposed upon him by law or clearly inherent in the nature of his office, and the said URSHELL K.

PEARSON, then and there being a public servant to wit: a Foreman Plumber for the Board of Education, City of Camden, having thereby the official functions and duties, among others, to travel throughout the City of Camden to maintain the various facilities owned and operated by the Board of Education, City of Camden, to not steal, abuse, misuse, or misappropriate Board of Education property or resources, to not falsify Board of Education records, to not violate the policies, regulations or administrative directives of the Board of Education, to perform his duties in a legal and proper manner, to display good faith, honesty and integrity, and to be impervious to corrupting influences, did with a purpose to obtain a benefit for himself, make false entries into a fuel record maintained by the Board of Education, City of Camden, knowing that such acts were unauthorized or that he was committing such acts in an unauthorized manner, contrary to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 2C:30-2, and against the peace of this State, the government and dignity of the same.

COUNT TWO

(Official Misconduct - Third Degree)

URSHELL K. PEARSON

on or about August 13, 2007 and on or about December 5, 2007 in the City of Camden, in the County of Camden, elsewhere, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did commit the offense of official misconduct, in that the said URSHELL K. PEARSON, acting with the purpose to obtain a benefit for himself or another under $200 or to injure or to deprive another of a benefit, did commit acts relating to his office, but constituting unauthorized exercises of his official functions, knowing that such acts were unauthorized or that he was committing them in an unauthorized manner, or did knowingly refrain from performing a duty imposed upon him by law or clearly inherent in the nature of his office, and the said URSHELL K. PEARSON, then and there being a public servant to wit: a Foreman Plumber for the Board of Education, City of Camden, having thereby the official functions and duties, among others, to travel throughout the City of Camden to maintain the various facilities owned and operated by the Board of Education, City of Camden, to not steal, abuse, misuse, or misappropriate Board of Education property or resources, to not falsify Board of Education records, to not violate the policies, regulations or administrative directives of the Board of Education, to perform his duties in a legal and proper manner, to display good faith, honesty and integrity, and to be impervious to corrupting influences, did, with purpose to secure a benefit for himself or another, knowingly unlawfully take, or exercise unlawful control over, movable property, to wit, gasoline in excess of his weekly allotment of twenty-five (25) gallons, from the City of Camden, to which he was not entitled, having a value under $200, contrary to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 2C:30-2, and against the peace of this State, the government and dignity of same.

COUNT THREE

(Pattern of Official Misconduct - Third Degree)

URSHELL K. PEARSON

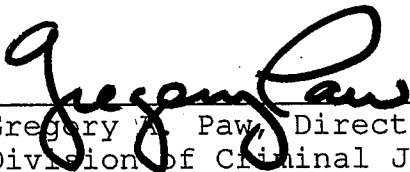

on or about August 13, 2007 and on or about December 5, 2007 in the City of Camden, in the County of Camden, elsewhere, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did commit the offense of pattern of official misconduct, that is, the said URSHELL K. PEARSON, then and there being a public servant, to wit: Foreman Plumber for the Board of Education, City of Camden, having thereby the official functions and duties, among others, to travel throughout the City of Camden to maintain the various facilities owned and operated by the Board of Education, City of Camden, to perform his duties in a legal and proper manner, to display good faith, honesty and integrity, and to be impervious to corrupting influences, did commit two or more acts of official misconduct, each in violation of N.J.S.A. 2C:30-2, as specified in Counts One and Two of this Indictment, the provisions of which are incorporated as if set forth fully herein, contrary to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 2C:30-7, and against the peace of this State, the government and dignity of the same.

COUNT FOUR

(Tampering with Public Records or Information - Third Degree)

URSHELL K. PEARSON

on or about September 24, 2007 at the City of Camden, in the County of Camden, elsewhere, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, with purpose to defraud or injure, did make a false entry in a record, document or thing belonging to, or received by or kept by, the government for information or record, or required by law to be kept by others for information of the government, that is, the said URSHELL K. PEARSON, knowing the same to be false, did enter the incorrect amount of five (5) gallons in a fuel log maintained by the Board of Education, City of Camden, for gasoline received in his personal vehicle from a refueling site operated by the said Board of Education, contrary to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 2C:28-7a(1), and against the peace of this State, the government and dignity of the same.
