NOTICE OF VIOLATION AND OFFER OF SETTLEMENT
DEBT ADJUSTERS

November 24, 2009

VIA REGULAR AND CERTIFIED MAIL

In the Matter of:

HOME RESCUE TODAY.COM, L. L. C. d/b/a FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS TODAY
c/o HOWARD WASSERMAN, Esq., Registered Agent

The Office of Consumer Protection of the New Jersey Division of Consumer Affairs (the "Division") is charged with enforcement of the Consumer Fraud Act, N.J.S.A. 56:8-1 et seq. (the "CFA"). The Division has reviewed information concerning commercial practices conducted by Home Rescue Today.com, L. L. C. d/b/a Financial Solutions Today ("Respondent" or "You") which maintains an office located at 1031 Highway 22, 3rd floor in Bridgewater, NJ 08807 with a branch office at 303 West Main Street, 3rd floor in Freehold, NJ 07728. Specifically, the information reviewed included a contract ("Contract") and correspondence, concerning a service in which you act as an intermediary between a debtor and creditors to renegotiate or modify loan terms. The information reviewed also included proof of payment ("Proof of Payment") for your services in the amount of $2,495.00. An Investigator's Certification establishing these facts is attached hereto. See Certification of Jared O'Conc ("O'Conc Cert.").

N.J.S.A. 56:8-2 prohibits the act, use or employment by any person of any unconscionable commercial practice in connection with the sale or advertisement of merchandise, which includes the advertisement, offering and sale of debt adjustment services. The advertisement and sale of services by a person without being licensed to conduct such services constitutes an unconscionable commercial practice in violation of the CFA.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 17:16G-2a, no person other than a nonprofit social service agency or nonprofit consumer credit counseling agency shall act as a debt adjuster. Moreover, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 17:16G-2b, it is unlawful for any nonprofit social service agency or non profit consumer credit counseling agency to act as a debt adjuster without first obtaining a license from the Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance ("DOBI"). This statute defines debt adjuster to be a person who either (a) acts or offers to act for consideration as an intermediary between a debtor and his creditors for the purpose of settling, compounding, or otherwise altering the terms of payment of any debts of the debtor, or (b) who, to that end, receives money or other property from the debtor, or on behalf of the debtor, for payment to, or distribution among, the creditors of the debtor. See N.J.S.A. 17:16G-1.c. A diligent search has revealed that Respondent is not licensed as a debt adjuster. See ("O'Conc Cert.").

A review of the Contract, correspondence and Proof of Payment demonstrates that Respondent had engaged in an unconscionable commercial practice and violated the CFA by selling debt adjustment services without being licensed as a debt adjuster. These CFA violations provide the basis for the Director of the Division to assess penalties, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 56:8-13, order payment of investigative costs and attorneys fees and costs of suit, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 56:8-11 & 19, order restoration of fees unlawfully acquired, N.J.S.A. 56:8-15, and order you to cease and desist from engaging in this unlawful activity, N.J.S.A. 56:8-18.

While the Division has preliminarily concluded that there is sufficient basis to initiate an enforcement action against you, it has determined that it will first offer you an opportunity to settle this matter and thereby avoid the initiation of disciplinary proceedings.

IF YOU DO NOT CONTEST THE CHARGES and wish to avail yourself of this settlement opportunity, within fifteen (15) days from the date of this Notice you should sign and return the enclosed Certification and agree to the following:

1. Cease and desist from advertising, offering and selling debt adjustment services;
2. Pay a penalty in the amount of $5,000.00, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 56:8-13; and
3. Pay restitution in the amount of $2,495.00, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 56:8-15.

If these sums totaling $7,495.00 are remitted along with your signed Certification, you need not do anything further.

IF YOU DO NOT CONTEST THE CHARGES but want to present information to Division representatives about the mitigating circumstances in your case that you believe may persuade the Division to reduce the civil penalty in this matter, you may request an informal Mitigation Conference. If you request a mitigation conference, the conference date is January 5, 2010 at 11:30 a.m. Alternatively, you may send written documentation to the Division concerning any mitigating circumstances which may persuade the Division to reduce the penalty. In order to elect either of these options, you must return the enclosed Certification within fifteen (15) days from the date of this Notice. The Division will then review this material and respond to you.

IF YOU CONTEST THE CHARGES, and do not wish to settle the matter consistent with the terms set forth above, you may request a formal Administrative Hearing by returning the enclosed Certification within fifteen (15) days from the date of this Notice. In that event, this Notice will serve as notice of the charges against you. You should be aware that in making its final decision, the Division may, if unlawful activity has been proven, order penalties and remedies other than those offered in this letter. Specifically, you may be ordered to: pay civil penalties in an amount not more than $10,000.00 for the first violation and not more than $20,000.00 for a second or subsequent violation, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 56:8-13; pay costs to the State, restore to any person aggrieved by the unlawful act or practice any money or property, real or personal, acquired by means of the unlawful act or practice, and/or cease and desist from violating the CFA pursuant to N.J.S.A. 56:8-11, 15, 18 & 19.

Before a determination is made with regard to whether a hearing will be conducted and whether the matter will be heard before the Director of the Division of Consumer Affairs or referred to the Office of Administrative Law, a pre-hearing conference will be held. If you request a hearing, your pre-hearing conference has been scheduled on January 5, 2010 at 11:30 a.m. You may be accompanied by an attorney. Should you have any questions regarding this procedure, or to seek an adjournment of this date, please contact Investigator Louise Garrity who may be reached at (973) 273-8049.

Your attendance at this pre-hearing conference is mandatory and you must show evidence of the legal and factual basis on which you contest the charges. Any failure to appear, without a satisfactory explanation, may result in an order barring you from raising certain defenses at the hearing (N.J.A.C. 1:1-14). The purpose of this pre-hearing conference is to discuss the issues in the matter and the defenses which you may wish to raise. You should be prepared to discuss the evidence you would propose to offer at a hearing. It may be helpful if you bring with you to the pre-hearing conference a copy of any documentation that supports your position. If the Division determines that there are no material facts in dispute, you will have an opportunity to submit legal arguments and any documentation that may be relevant to the ultimate disposition of the case, if the charges are sustained. If there are material facts in dispute, an evidentiary hearing will be scheduled. In these proceedings, you, either personally or with the assistance of an attorney, will have an opportunity to respond to the charges and submit evidence and present testimony as may be necessary in order for the Division to make a final determination concerning the charges of unlawful activity.

IF YOU FAIL TO RESPOND to this Notice within fifteen (15) from the date of its issuance, the settlement offer will be withdrawn, and you will be deemed in default. The allegations against you will be deemed uncontested. Thereafter this Notice and the underlying proofs may be reviewed by the Director of the Division and a Final Order on Default ("Order") may be issued. Once the Order has been entered, your failure to pay any penalties within the time allowed will result in the filing of a Certificate of Debt. Any subsequent violation of the Order with a cease and desist provision is punishable by a $25,000.00 penalty, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 56:8-18. Service of the Order will be deemed effective if sent by certified mail to your last known mailing address.

In the process we will do everything possible to make your monthly payments much more affordable.

Enclosed you will find copies your client agreement and any original paperwork you have provided. Please understand that I attempt to collect all required paperwork at our meeting, however, lenders can and do change their requirements. If additional documentation is needed the attorneys office will contact you. Please respond to them as quickly as possible. The process generally takes about 60-90 days depending on your lender, but may take longer as more loans apply for modifications. Please be patient. Generally, no news is good news until an agreement has been reached with your lender. Please fax any correspondence you receive from your lender to the attorney. If you would like to get a status on your file you may contact the attorney's office directly, but please understand that it is unlikely that they will have any response from your lender in the first 30-45 days. If you have any additional questions, please feel free to call me at 877-204-7772.

FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS TODAY

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Bostic:

Thank you for allowing us to assist you during these very difficult times.

The purpose of this letter is to introduce you to the legal team that will be representing you, the firm of Ira J. Metrick, Attorney at Law. Our goal is to provide you with the best possible representation to present the financial facts and your hardship to your current lender(s). While there is no guaranty what the ultimate outcome will be, the attorney will do his best to convince your lender to change the terms of your existing mortgage loan and to give you an affordable payment so that you will avoid losing your home to foreclosure.

You should note that the time frame to complete this process on your behalf is at least three (3) months. This is mainly due to the overwhelming applications for modifications the mortgage lenders are receiving.

You are welcome to contact the attorney's office at any time for a status update however you should note that calling too frequently will delay the process since their time spent speaking to you may be better spent processing your file.

Further, the law firm has not been engaged to represent your interest in any foreclosure court proceedings or collection actions. Their efforts on your behalf will not stop nor delay any collection calls or foreclosure proceedings. In the event your lender commenced any such proceeding and you believe you have a defense, we strongly recommend you file an appropriate answer with the court. Please be sure to include the correct amount of copies, forms and filing fee.

Finally, if you are able to make your monthly mortgage payments we strongly urge you to do so to avoid further damage to your credit and possibly avoid the commencement of a foreclosure action.

You may be contacted from time to time depending on your lenders requirements or requests. Always feel free to contact the law office for a status update or for an answer to any questions. They can be reached directly @ 732-863-1660.

Very truly yours,
