VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Defendants.

Plaintiffs Anne Milgram, Attorney General of the State of New Jersey ("Attorney General"), with offices located at 124 Halsey Street, Fifth Floor, Newark, New Jersey, and David M. Szuchman,

Director of the New Jersey Division of Consumer Affairs (“ Director”), with offices located at 124 Halsey Street, Seventh Floor, Newark, New Jersey , by way of this Verified Complaint state:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Since at least January 2007, Dreamworks Vacation Club, a/k/a Dreamworks Vacations a/k/a Dreamworks, (“Dreamworks”), Five Points Travel Company (“Five Points Travel”) and/or Daryl T. Turner (Turner”) (collectively, “Defendants”), have advertised, offered for sale and sold vacation club membership packages (“Vacation Package”) to consumers in the State of New Jersey (“State” or “New Jersey”) and elsewhere. Defendants enticed consumers into making such purchases through the following: (a) direct mailings that included the trademarks of well-known and trusted airlines, hotels, car rental agencies and restaurants; (b) mail flyers and other solicitations that advised consumers that they were entitled to receive complimentary round trip tickets, hotel accommodations, dinners, car rentals and/or gas cards; (c) representations as to the Defendants’ ability to secure for consumers large discounts on air fares, accommodations at luxury, five-star hotels; and (d) representations, during sales presentations, that consumers would receive free cruises and all-inclusive vacations in Mexico and other destinations if they purchased the Vacation Package. Consumers spent thousands of dollars up front for Vacation Packages, which, as they subsequently found, were really “too good to be true.”

2. As detailed below, through their advertisement and sale of the Vacation Package, Defendants engaged in the unauthorized use of the company trademarks, failed to provide consumers with their complimentary items or services and failed to provide consumers with travel arrangements at the price and of the quality represented prior to purchase. In essence, the Vacation Packages were worthless. Once consumers realized that Defendants could not – or would not – provide the represented Vacation Package, they attempted to cancel their contracts, to no avail.

3. Defendants' conduct constitutes multiple violations of the New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act, N.J.S.A. 56:8-1 et seq. ("CFA"), as well as the Regulations Governing General Advertising, N.J.A.C. 13:45A-9.1 et seq. ("Advertising Regulations"). The Attorney General and Director submit this Verified Complaint in connection with an Order to Show Cause with Temporary Restraints to prevent any more consumers from being victimized by Defendants' deceptive practices.

PARTIES AND JURISDICTION

The Director is charged with the responsibility of administering the CFA and the CFA Regulations on behalf of the Attorney General.

16. At all relevant times, Defendants have advertised as "Dreamworks Vacation Club", "Dreamworks Vacations", "Dreamworks", "Five Points Travel Club" and "Bentley Travel".

17. At all relevant times, Dreamworks has maintained a website at <http://dreamworksvacationclub.com/>.

18. At all relevant times, Bentley Travel has maintained a website at <http://www.bentleytravel.net/>.

19. At least since January 2007 and in their sale of Vacation Packages, Defendants have represented that consumers would have access to luxury five-star accommodations at discount prices. After consumers purchased these Vacation Packages, they discovered that they would not have access to luxury five-star accommodations at discount prices.

20. At least since January 2007 and in their sale of Vacation Packages, Defendants have represented that consumers are entitled to discounted airfares, hotel accommodations and car rentals. After consumers purchased these Vacation Packages, they discovered that they would not be entitled to these discounts.

21. Defendants offered for sale and/or sold these Vacation Packages through sales presentations. Many of these presentations were held at Defendants' business locations at : (a) 4 Century Drive Parsippany, New Jersey 07054; (b) 279 Egg Harbor Road, Suite C, Sewell, New Jersey 08080; and (c) 122 Burrs Road, Westampton, New Jersey 08060. 22. During the sales presentations, Defendants represented to consumers that they specialized in wholesale vacation travel.

23. During the sales presentations, Defendants led consumers to believe that if they purchased the Vacation Packages, they would be: (a) purchasing vacations in advance at a discount and receiving other benefits such as condominium timeshare discounts; and (b) they would be paying less for their vacations than the general public.

24. During the sales presentations, Defendants represented to consumers that, as part of the Vacation Package, they could travel almost anywhere in the world.

25. Consumers paid $1,200 to $8,000 upfront for the Vacation Packages.

26. During the sales presentations, Defendants failed to inform consumers that the price of the Vacation Package did not include an annual renewal fee.

27. During the sales presentations, Defendants showed consumers glossy brochures from other vacation club companies describing and depicting resort areas throughout the world and represented that consumers would be able to select vacations at those areas. After consumers entered into contracts for the Vacation Packages, they discovered that the specific resorts, areas and packages shown during the presentation were not available to them.

28. At least since January 2007, Defendants have sold consumers Vacation Packages which Defendants represented would provide specific discounts at specific hotels. After consumers purchased the Vacation Packages, they discovered that they did not have access to the specific discounts at the specific hotels.

29. At varying times, Defendants have told consumers prior to purchase of a Vacation Package that they would have the ability to select specific resorts at which to stay. After purchase, consumers learned that they were not able to select specific resorts, but only specific regions.

30. At varying times, Defendants sold consumers Vacation Packages which were represented to include the ability to book cruises for up to 65% off the regular price. Consumers who purchased these Vacation Packages discovered that the cruises available to members were actually higher in price than those offered through free travel sites open to the general public.

31. Consumers who contracted with Defendants for Vacation Packages subsequently discovered that if they accessed a free website such as Expedia, they could book airline flights and hotel accommodations at a discount greater than that offered by Defendants.

32. At varying times, Defendants distributed to consumers through the United States mail postcards and flyers utilizing the trademark, service mark and trade name of well known corporations, including: Jet Blue Airlines, United Airlines, American Airlines, U.S. Airways, Spirit Airlines, Southwest Air Lines Company, Delta Airlines, Marriott, Sheraton, Ritz-Carlton, Enterprise Rent-A-Car, Avis Budget Group, Inc., Dollar Rent A Car, Hertz, Olive Garden, Red Lobster and Bahama Breeze.

35. At all relevant times, Defendants were not members in good standing with the BBB.

36. At varying times, Defendants represented to consumers that they had been in business for 17 years.

37. In an effort to entice consumers to purchase Vacation Packages, Defendants advised consumers that such would entitle them to receive a free seven (7) day cruise on a Celebrity Cruise Ship. After purchase, Defendants did not offer consumers the free seven (7) day cruise on a Celebrity Cruise Ship, but rather a one (1) day local cruise on a line by the name of "Fantaseaa Cruise" for which consumers would be required to pay $299.00 per person.

38. At varying times, Defendants advertised through direct mailers to consumers in which they represented that they would receive free of charge and/or without any obligation items and/or services, which included: (a) two (2) free round trip airline tickets to any major international airport in the continental United States; (b) three (3) day /two (2) night getaway to be used at well known resorts and hotel chains such as Marriott, Ritz-Carlton and Sheraton; (c) dinner for two at well-known restaurant chains such as Red Lobster, Olive Garden and Bahama Breeze; (d) complimentary seven (7) day car rental with companies such as Enterprise Rent-A-Car, Hertz, Avis Budget Group, Inc. and Dollar Rent A Car; and (e) free gas coupons ranging in value anywhere from $50.00 to $200.00.

Consumers who attended the presentation were not provided with the items or services.

In connection with any door-to-door sale, it constitutes an unfair and deceptive act or practice for any seller to:

(a) Fail to furnish the buyer with a fully completed receipt or copy of any contract pertaining to such sale at the time of its execution, which is in the same language, e.g. Spanish, as that principally used in the oral sales presentation and which shows the date of the transaction and contains the name and address of the seller, and in immediate proximity to the space reserved in the contract for the signature of the buyer or on the front page of the receipt if a contract is not used and in bold face type of a minimum size of 10 points, a statement in substantially the following form:

'You, the buyer, may cancel this transaction at any time prior to midnight of the third business day after the date of this transaction. See the attached notice of cancellation form for an explanation of this right.'

The seller may select the method of providing the buyer with the duplicate notice of cancellation form set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, provided however, that in the event of cancellation the buyer must be able to retain a complete copy of the contract or receipt. Furthermore, if both forms are not attached to the contract or receipt, the seller is required to alter the last sentence in the statement above to conform to the actual location of the forms.

(b) Fail to furnish each buyer, at the time the buyer signs the door-to-door sales contract or otherwise agrees to buy consumer goods or services from the seller, a completed form in duplicate, captioned either 'NOTICE OF RIGHT TO CANCEL' or 'NOTICE OF CANCELLATION', which shall (where applicable) contain in ten point bold face type the following information and statements in the same language, e.g. Spanish, as that used in the contract.

Notice of Cancellation

[enter date of transaction]

(Date)

You may CANCEL this transaction, without Penalty or Obligation, within THREE BUSINESS DAYS from the above date.

If you cancel, any property traded in, any payments made by you under the contract or sale, and any negotiable instrument executed by you will be returned within TEN BUSINESS DAYS following receipt by the seller of your cancellation notice, and any security interest arising out of the transaction will be cancelled.

If you cancel, you must make available to the seller at your residence, in substantially as good condition as when received, any goods delivered to you under this contract or sale, or you may, if you wish, comply with the instructions of the seller regarding the return shipment of the goods at the seller's expense and risk.

If you do make the goods available to the seller and the seller does not pick them up within 20 days of the date of your Notice of Cancellation, you may retain or dispose of the goods without any further obligation. If you fail to make the goods available to the seller, or if you agree to return the goods to the seller and fail to do so, then you remain liable for performance of all obligations under the contract.

To cancel this transaction, mail or deliver a signed and dated copy of this Cancellation Notice or any other written notice, or send a telegram, to [Name of seller], at [address of seller's place of business] NOT LATER THAN MIDNIGHT OF [date].

I HEREBY CANCEL THIS TRANSACTION.

(Buyer's signature) _____

....

(e) Fail to inform each buyer orally, at the time the buyer signs the contract or purchases the goods or services, of the buyer's right to cancel.

(f) Misrepresent in any manner the buyer's right to cancel.

(g) Fail or refuse to honor any valid notice of cancellation by a buyer and within 10 business days after the receipt of such notice, to (i) Refund all payments made under the contract or sale; (ii) return any goods or property traded in, in substantially as good condition as when received by the seller; (iii) cancel and return any negotiable instrument executed by the buyer in connection with the contract or sale and take any action necessary or appropriate to terminate promptly any security interest created in the transaction. . . .
