WHEREAS Plaintiffs Jeffrey S. Chiesa, Attorney General of the State of New Jersey ("Attorney General") and Eric T. Kanefsky, Acting Director of the New Jersey Division of

Consumer Affairs (collectively "Plaintiffs" or "State of New Jersey") have commenced this action by filing the Complaint herein;

WHEREAS Plaintiffs have alleged that defendants 24x7 Digital, LLC, Mark Yamashita, and Rei Yoshioka (collectively "Defendants") have collected, maintained, and transmitted to a third party, the personal information of children in violation of the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998 ("COPPA"), 15 U.S.C. § 6501-6506, and the Children's Online Privacy Protection Rule ("COPPA Rule"), 16 C.F.R. Part 312;

WHEREAS Defendants have waived service of the Summons and Complaint;

WHEREAS Plaintiffs and Defendants (collectively "the Parties") have been represented by the attorneys whose names appear herein;

WHEREAS the Parties have agreed to a settlement of this action upon the following terms and conditions;

THEREFORE, on the joint motion of Plaintiffs and Defendants, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED as follows:

DEFINITIONS

1. The terms "child," "collects," "collections," "Commission," "delete," "disclosure," "Internet," "online contact information," "operator," "parent," "person," "personal information," "third party," "verifiable consent," and "website or online service directed to children," have the same meaning as those terms are defined in Section § 312.2 of the COPPA Rule, 16 C.F.R § 312.2.

INJUNCTION

2. IT IS ORDERED that Defendants and their officers, agents, representatives, and employees, and all persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, are hereby enjoined directly or indirectly, from:

- a. Failing to provide notice on its website or its mobile device applications (“Apps”) of the types of personal information they collect from children, how they use such information, and whether they disclose such information to third parties;
- b. Failing to provide direct notice to parents of the types of personal information Defendants collect from children, how they use such information, and whether they disclose such information to third parties;
- c. Failing to obtain verifiable parental consent before the collection, use, and/or disclosure of personal information from children; and
- d. Engaging in any conduct in violation of COPPA or the COPPA Rule.

WARRANTIES AND REPRESENTATIONS

3. Defendants have entered into this Consent Decree and Order for Injunction and Other Relief (“Order”) freely and without coercion. Defendants further acknowledge that they have read the provisions of this Order and are prepared to abide by them.

4. Plaintiffs and Defendants hereby waive all rights to appeal or otherwise challenge the validity of this Order.

5. Plaintiffs and Defendants stipulate and agree that entry of this Order shall constitute a full complete, final settlement of this action.

6. Defendants warrant and represent that they have destroyed the personal information in their possession that was collected and maintained in violation of the COPPA Rule.

7. Defendants warrant and represent that they have caused to be destroyed, through written notification to Flurry, Inc. and all other third parties, the personal information of children transmitted by Defendants to such third-parties, with the exception of the metadata described in paragraph 8.

8. Defendants warrant and represent that they have obtained written confirmation from Flurry, Inc. that the personal information collected, maintained, and transmitted in violation of the COPPA Rule remains in the possession of Flurry in metadata form only pursuant to a litigation hold imposed on Flurry by the Court in the lawsuit of Albilta v. Apple, Inc., et al, that is currently pending in Superior Court, Province of Quebec, District of Montreal.

9. Defendants warrant and represent that they no longer collect the personal information of children, including but not limited to first and last names and unique device identification numbers. In the event Defendants begin collecting and maintaining the personal information of children, Defendants shall notify Plaintiffs, in writing, at least 30 days before such collection takes place.

Such confirmation shall include the location where the personal information was maintained, the method, manner, and process in which such personal information was destroyed, and the date of destruction. In the event Defendants cause the destruction through a person not a party to the Complaint, Defendants shall obtain notarized written confirmation that such personal information was actually destroyed and provide such confirmation to Plaintiffs within 15 days of such destruction; and

c. Within ten days of the final resolution of the Albilta v. Apple, Inc., et al action, Defendants shall cause to be destroyed, through written notification to and action taken by Flurry, Inc., the metadata form of the personal information collected and maintained in violation of the COPPA Rule. Defendants shall obtain notarized written confirmation from Flurry that such metadata was actually destroyed and provide such confirmation to Plaintiffs within 15 days of such destruction.

Provided however, that nothing in this Order shall limit Plaintiffs' lawful use of process, to obtain any documentary material, tangible things, testimony, or information.
