The following individuals and organizations submitted written comments:

Donald F. Weinbaum, Executive Director, The Council on Compulsive Gambling of New Jersey, Inc.

Susan E. Craft, Executive Director, State Agriculture Development

Committee

1. COMMENT:

Donald F. Weinbaum, Executive Director, The Council on Compulsive Gambling of New Jersey, Inc., is in support of the proposal and believes that the amendments should serve to increase awareness about the self-exclusion process among compulsive gamblers and will make access to required application forms easier..

RESPONSE:

The Racing Commission accepts the comments.

2. COMMENT:

Susan E. Craft, Executive Director, State Agriculture Development Committee, is requesting that the Racing Commission discontinue stating in the Agriculture Industry Statement that racehorses are not considered livestock for the purpose of determining impacts to the agricultural industry. Executive Director Susan Craft states that horses exist as a recognized part of agriculture and the horse industry as a whole has a significant economic impact.

RESPONSE:

The Racing Commission agrees with the commenter that racehorses have a positive indirect impact on the agriculture industry and, therefore, will discontinue the use of this statement.
