

Pinelands Speakers Directory

2008

Pinelands Speakers Directory

Welcome

The Pinelands Commission is pleased to offer the public the Pinelands Speakers Directory. The knowledgeable volunteers listed here have extensive experience speaking with "students of the Pinelands." They are invaluable in assisting the Commission staff respond to your requests.

This Directory is updated periodically. Our aim is to improve and expand this public service, and we welcome hearing from people with Pinelands knowledge and speaking experience who would like to participate in this organization. If you know someone who is interested in being listed in the Pinelands Speakers Directory, please write to the Public Programs Office at the Pinelands Commission, P.O. Box 7, New Lisbon, NJ 08064.

How To Use This Directory

1. Look for the listing of Pinelands Topics. See if a topic is offered that may be of interest to your students or members of your organization. Note the names of the speakers who are listed under each heading.
2. Find the name of the speaker you have chosen in the Pinelands Speakers section. Speakers are listed alphabetically by last name. When possible you may want to select a speaker who lives in your county or adjacent county.
3. Contact the speaker of your choice directly by letter, phone, or e-mail. Please give each speaker at least three weeks notice prior to a presentation. Some speakers require a fee. Arrangements for an honorarium and/or travel compensation are made directly between you and the speaker. When requested, amounts are listed with a speaker's entry.

If a topic in which you are interested is not listed in this directory or if you are unable to make arrangements with a speaker, please call the Pinelands Commission at (609 894-7300) and we will be glad to help. Also, visit us online at www.nj.gov/pinelands.

Table of Contents

Pinelands Topics	Page
Wildlife	2
Plants	2
Folklife & Culture	3
History & Archaeology	3
Recreation	3
Science & Ecology	4
Pinelands Speakers	4

Wildlife:

Bill Boesenberg, Karenne F. Snow, Emile DeVito, William E. Dunscombe, Ted Gordon, David Grant, Betty Ann Kelly, Fred Lesser, Terri Loy, Phil Broder, Lynne Chase Shoemaker, P.I.N.E.S., Karenne F. Snow

Bird Watching: Emile DeVito, David Grant, Betty Ann Kelly, Fred Lesser, Terri Loy, Daniel R. McMahon, Michael O'Brien, Franklin A. Reusch, Karenne F. Snow, Phil Broder

Endangered Pinelands Plants and Animals:

Karl Anderson, Ted Gordon, Terri Loy, Irvane Spracklin, Matthew McCort, David Schneider

Fish: R. Bruce Gebhardt

Pinelands Habitats: Karl Anderson, Barbara S. Church, Ted Gordon, Terri Loy, Karenne F. Snow

Reptiles and Amphibians: Karl Anderson, Robert T. Zappalorti

Plants:

Plants (general): Karl Anderson, Hedy Bauer, Michele Byers, Brenda Conner, Emile De Vito, William E. Dunscombe, Michael Fowler, Ted Gordon, David Grant, Betty Ann Kelly, Terri Loy, Michael O'Brien, Franklin A. Reusch, Lynne Chase Shoemaker, Karenne F. Snow, Mark Demitroff

Whitesbog and Agriculture in the Pinelands:

Michelle Byers, Betty Ann Kelly

Blueberry Farming: Michele Byers, Brenda Conner, William E. Dunscombe, Betty Ann Kelly, Dorothy S. Yates, Phil Broder, P.I.N.E.S

Cedar Harvesting: John E. Kuser

Cranberry Farming: Michele Byers, Brenda Conner, William E. Dunscombe, Michael Fowler, Ted Gordon, Joe Houdart, Betty Ann Kelly, Ned Lipman, P.I.N.E.S.

Health Benefits of Blueberries and Cranberries: Amy Howell

Lichens: Karl Anderson

Pitch Pine Genetics: John E. Kuser

Folklore and Culture:

Broom Making: Samuel Moyer

Crafts: Brenda Conner, Irvane Spracklin

Ghost Towns: Andrew J. Anderson

Folklore: Jim Albertson, Brenda Conner,

Jersey Devil: Jim Albertson, James F. McCloy, Daniel R. McMahon

Lifestyles of Long-Time Residents: Dorothy S. Yates

Music: Jim Albertson,

Pinelands Overview: Karl Anderson, Michelle Byers, Barbara S. Church, William Dunscombe, Michael Fowler, Ted Gordon, David Grant, Joe Houdart, Terri Loy, Karenne F. Snow, John Volpa

Seasons in the Pinelands: Barbara S. Church, Ted Gordon, Terri Loy, Lynne Chase Shoemaker

History and Archaeology:

Jack Cresson, David C. Mudge

Early Industry: Andrew J. Anderson, Brenda Conner, Michael Fowler, Ted Gordon, Joe Houdart, David C. Mudge

Historic Sites and Lost Towns: Michael Fowler, Ted Gordon
Lenape Indians: Jack Cresson, Mary Ellen Flynn, William D. Guthrie, David C. Mudge, P.I.N.E.S.

Prehistoric Technologies: Jack Cresson

Recreation:

Biking: David Grant

Canoeing: Brenda Conner, Ted Gordon, David Grant, Betty Ann Kelly, John Kuser, Daniel R. McMahon, Lynne Chase Shoemaker, Karenne F. Snow, Phil Broder, Bonnie J. Zimmer

Field Trips: Karl Anderson, Michael Fowler, Ted Gordon, David Grant, Karenne F. Snow, Bonnie J. Zimmer

Hiking: Michele Byers, David Grant, Betty Ann Kelly, Daniel McMahon, John E. Kuser

Hunting: Fred Lesser,

Wilderness Survival Training: Russell Juelg

Nature Photography: David Grant, Daniel R. McMahon, Michael R. O'Brien, Lynne Chase Shoemaker, Bonnie J. Zimmer

Science and Ecology:

Acid Rain: John E. Kuser, Bonnie J. Zimmer

Aquatic Ecology: Karenne F. Snow

Astronomy: Daniel R. McMahon

Costal Studies: Brenda Conner, David Grant, Fred Lesser, Karenne F. Snow, Phil Broder

Fire Ecology: Karl Anderson, Brenda Conner, Emile De Vito, William E. Dunscombe, Ted Gordon, David Grant, Joe Houdart, Betty Ann Kelly, John Kuser, Lynn Chase Shoemaker, P.I.N.E.S.

Fire Management and Protection: Maris G. Gabliks

Fungi: John Dighton

Geology: Mark Demitroff

Light Pollution & Dark Sky of the Pinelands: Daniel McMahon

Land Use and planning : Michele Byers, Jack Cresson

Soil: John Dighton

Staff Development-In Service Programs for Elementary and Secondary Teachers: William E. Dunscombe

WaterSheds and Habitats: Terri Loy

Pinelands Speakers:

Jim Albertson

313 Lloyd Terrace
Millville, NJ 08332 (Cumberland County)
Phone: (856) 327-0938
E-mail: DownJerseyJim@aol.com

Audience preference: K-12, college students, adult groups

Times available: any and all

Honorarium required: $250 for one 45-minute to 60-minute program, $450 for two programs at same location.

Travel compensation: none requested

Albertson, presents programs of traditional folk songs, ballads, and folk tales that include the Jersey Devil, Captain Kidd, and Sammy Giberson, the legendary Pinelands fiddler. Audiences are encouraged to participate in various chorus parts and in the laughter and goodwill provided by the material and characterizations. Currently, Albertson is a music coordinator of many New Jersey folk music programs. His recording, "Down Jersey: Songs and Stories of Southern New Jersey", is on the Smithsonian Institution's Folkways label.

Topics: Folklore, Jersey Devil, and Music

Andrew J. Anderson

1911 Royal Oaks Drive
Toms River, NJ 08753 (Ocean County)
Phone: (732) 779-6027
E-mail: seasideparkbooks@yahoo.com

Audience preferences: K-12, college students, adult groups

Times available: Mondays and Tuesdays, and evenings

Honorarium requested: $100 for one or two hour program

Travel compensation: $0.35/mile over 50 miles

Anderson, award-winning author, presents a slide lecture on the background, culture, folklore and lost towns of the Pine Barrens entitled "Lost in the Pines: Ghost Towns and Other Unusual Sites of Southern New Jersey." Professional Development Credit for NJ teachers. Instructor for Ocean County College, On-air Consultant to lost towns video.

Topics: History, folklore, culture, early industry

Karl Anderson

Mount Holly, NJ 08060 (Burlington County)

Phone: 609/261-2495, Fax: 609/267 2195

e-mail:

Audience Preferences: 7th, 8th, college students, adults groups

Times available: year round, days and evenings

Honorarium required: $75 per program; $12 per hour leading field trips

Travel compensation: $0.20 per mile (not required for field trips)

Anderson served as director of the New Jersey Audubon Society's Rancocas Nature Center. He leads Pinelands botanical and ecological field trips, in addition to presenting slide programs on a variety of topics.

Topics: Wildlife, Endangered Pinelands Plants and Animals, Reptiles and Amphibians, Lichens, Pinelands Overview, Field Trips, and Fire Ecology

Hedy Bauer

35 Holton Lane,

Willingboro, NJ 08046 (Burlington County)

Phone: (609) 877-7018

Audience preferences: college students and adult groups

Times available: year around; weekdays, evenings and weekends

Honorarium required: $50 per program

Travel compensation: $0.50 per mile

Bauer retired as instructional assistant in biology at Burlington County College. One of her hobbies is wildflower photography. She has hiked the Pinelands extensively in all seasons studying the flora of the region. Her slide presentation, "Wildflowers of the Pine Barrens" is accompanied by a narration of stories about the flowers.

Topics: Plants

Rancocas Nature Center

794 Rancocas Road

Mount Holly, NJ 08060 (Burlington County)

Phone: (609) 261-2495,

Fax: (609) 261-9916

E-mail:

Website: www.nj Audubon.org

Audience Preferences: 7th, 8th, college students, adults groups

Times available: year round, days and evenings

Honorarium required: $75 per program; $12 per hour leading field trips

Travel compensation: $0.20 per mile (not required for field trips)

Bill Boesenberg

1 Green Road

Wanaque, NJ 07465

Work/Home: (973) 248-9964

E-mail: bill@snakes-n-scales.com

Web site: www.snakes-n-scales.com

Audience preferences: all ages

Times available: year around; willing to travel

Honorarium required: $215

Travel compensation: none required

Boesenberg presents an enjoyable and educational Pinelands live reptile and amphibian program. Each presentation is adapted to the level and interest of the group. He has worked for the Newark Museum as an educator and zoo keeper and the Plainfield Animal Hospital as an exotic animal technician. He is currently a reptile and amphibian rehabilitator, a volunteer for NJ Fish & Game and is owner of Snakes-n-Scales & Turtle Tales, an animal education business.

Topics: Wildlife

Phil Broder

1075 Stone Harbor Blvd.
Stone Harbor, NJ 08247
Phone: (609) 368-1211
Email: education@wetlandsinstitute.org

Audience preferences: grades K-12, college students, and adults
Times available: call for availability
Honorarium required: yes, fees varies depending on the type of program.

Phil Broder is the Director of Education at the Wetlands Institute in Stone Harbor, NJ.
Topics: Bird Watching, Coastal Studies

Michele S. Byers

NJ Conservation Foundation
Bamboo Brook, 170 Longview Road
Far Hills NJ 07931 (Morris County)
Phone: (908) 234-1225, Fax: (908) 234-1189
e-mail: michele@njconservation.org
Web site: www.njconservation.org

Audience preferences: adult and community groups
Times available: year around; day and evening
Honorarium required: donation to the NJ Conservation Foundation
Travel compensation: donation to NJ Conservation Foundation

Byers is executive director of the New Jersey Conservation Foundation, member of the NJ Trails Council, Center for Non-Profit Corporations, Hopewell Township Open Space Committee, advisor to the Hunterdon Land Trust Alliance

Topics: Land use and Planning

Brenda Conner

1 Pasadena Road
Browns Mills, NJ 08015 (Burlington county)
Phone: (609) 893-2332
bconner@888.cranbog.com

Audience preferences: High School and adult agegroups

Times available: year around; day and evening
Honorarium required: $150 and up,
Travel compensation: for more than 25 miles

Brenda is a lifelong resident of South Jersey Pinelands area, and a descendant of the Native Americans here. She grew up hunting and farming and later learned snapper trapping and pineballing, and other piney trades at the heels of some old-time "pineys." She has also learned several traditional crafts, including basketmaking and soapmaking. Brenda has "worked the cycle" (a yearly cycle of piney activities to make a living) and is well-versed in piney culture. She currently works full time as a cranberry grower and IPM (Integrated Pest Management) specialist. She has worked all phases of cranberry farming, and has introduced GPS technology into sanding and harvesting the bogs. Brenda and her Husband, Joe Darlington are both 5th generation cranberry farmers and currently run Joseph J. White, Inc. (the cranberry and blueberry farm at Whitesbog) together.

Topics: Piney Lifestyles, Cranberry Culture, Blueberry Beginnings, and Hives & Honey,

Jack Cresson

40 East 2nd Street
Moorestown, NJ 08057 (Burlington County)
Phone: (856) 234-3286
e-mail: jackcresson@juno.com

Audience preferences: college students and adult groups
Times available: January through May and November
Honorarium required: $75 to $100 dependent upon nature and financial capability of client
Travel compensation: $0.50 per mile

Cresson is a lithic technologist and consultant. As a practicing archaeologist, he specializes in Coastal Plain and mid Atlantic prehistory. His land use presentations focus on the distribution of prehistoric populations across the landscape with particular attention given to their preferred environmental niches. Presentations can also be centered on the unique stone tool procurement and processing activities manifest in the Pinelands regimes, with demonstrations of tool manufacture.

Emile De Vito

Director of Conservation Biology NJ Conservation Foundation
170 Longview Road
Far Hills, NJ 07931 (Morris County)
Work Phone: (908) 234-1225 Fax: (908) 234-1189

Audience preferences: K-12, college students, adult groups. Large audiences preferred.

Times available: year around; day and evening

Honorarium required: donation to the NJ Conservation Foundation "Songbird Connection" project or other conservation project appreciated

Travel compensation: $0.10 per mile; no charge in Essex, Middlesex, Monmouth, Morris, Somerset, and Union counties

Dr. DeVito, Director of Conservation Biology for the NJ Conservation Foundation, is an ecologist who earned his PhD studying Pine Barrens birds and plant communities. His favorite Pine Barrens topics are New Jersey migratory song birds and fire ecology. He is also very interested in tropical rain forest ecology.

Topics: Wildlife, Bird Watching, Plants, and Fire Ecology

Mark Demitroff

822 Main Avenue
Vineland, NJ 08360 (Atlantic County)
Phone: (856) 696-2527
E-mail: mdemitrf@udel.edu

Audience preferences: college students, adult groups

Times available: year round, limited availability spring and fall

Honorarium required: $150.00

Travel compensation: negotiable

Demitroff is a Pinelands geographer who explores the cultural and environmental dynamics of the Pine Barrens. He is a member of the Permafrost Group at the University of Delaware where he researches regional past permafrost when South Jersey was cold, dry, and windy. For his presentations, Mark weaves scientific research with threads of folklore, archeology, botany, and local history. Demitroff is also a NJ Certified Tree Expert, with prepared talks on native trees and shrubs, including their selection, care, landscape attributes, lore, and traditional economic utilization.

Topics: folkways, geography, Pinelands habitats.

John Dighton

Rutgers University Pinelands Field Station
PO Box 206
501 Four Mile Road
New Lisbon, NJ 08064
Phone: (609) 894-8849
Email: dighton@crab.rutgers.edu

Audience preferences: grades 9-12, college students, and adults

Times available: all year, preferably not weekends

Honorarium required: $100.00 (negotiable)

John, is the Director of Pinelands Research at the Rutgers University Pinelands Field Station and specializes in programs on soil.

Topics: Fungi, Soil, soil nutrient cycling, mycorrhizae

William E. Dunscombe

942 Fernwood Avenue
Plainfield, NJ 07062 (Union County)
Work Phone: 908/709-7570 Home: 908/754-8428
e-mail: Dunscombe@ucc.edu

Audience preferences: 4th - 12th students, college students, nature clubs, garden clubs, historical societies, and service clubs

Times available: year around; most evenings. September through May daytime, depending on teaching schedule

Honorarium required: an honorarium is appreciated and is predicated upon the group's ability to pay

Travel compensation: none requested

Dunscombe received a BS degree in biology from Delaware Valley College in Doylestown PA and an MS in entomology from Rutgers University, New Brunswick. He has taught at Union County College since 1971 and has served as chair of the college's biology department since 1980. He was a member of the Pinelands curriculum development team and is a charter member of the Pinelands Commission's PEAC ational Advisory Council.

Topics: Pinelands Overview, Blueberry Farming and Cranberry Farming, Plants, Fire Ecology, Staff Development/ In service Programs for Elementary and Secondary Teachers

Mary Ellen Flynn

38 Echohill Lane
Willingboro, NJ 08046 2204 (Burlington County)
Phone: (609) 877-8556
E-mail: mebflynn@comcast.net

Audience preferences: 4th, 12th, adults groups or organizations south of Trenton
Times available: year around; day and evening
Honorarium required: $175 for two fourth grades, $30 for each additional fourth grade; fee for other groups depends on kind of presentation and financial capability of client
Travel compensation: $15 if more than 25 miles from home

Flynn, a retired high school teacher, has lectured on the Lenape Indians since 1964. She specializes in the daily life of the Lenape pre contact with European settlers. Her student programs can include dancing and hands on activities featuring Lenape "tools" such as a bow drill, animal skins, and a corn pounder. Specific topics can be arranged for adult groups.

Topics: Lenape

Michael Fowler, Professor

1102 Reagan Court
Wall, NJ 07719 (Monmouth County)
Work Phone: (732) 224 2921
Fax & Home Phone: (732) 681-6674

Audience preferences: nature groups, historical and library associations, College students, adult groups.
Times available: year around; most evenings except Monday and Tuesday during the college semester; often available during the day
Honorarium required: $150 for "The Pinelands Traveler"; $150 for "Lifesavers of the Jersey Shore"; $140 for "The Pinelands Magnificent Failure, Harrisville, NJ"
Travel compensation: $0.445 per mile

Fowler, a Brookdale Community College professor as well as an author, photographer and veteran lifeguard, presents slide lectures on three topics. His shows, presented to numerous groups, are informative, colorful, moving and entertaining. His standard program is "The Pinelands Traveler, Ghost Towns, Bogs, and Legends." A new program is "Lifesavers of the Jersey Shore." This program highlights New Jersey lighthouses, the U.S. Life Saving Service, Coast Guard and lifeguards. A third program, "The Pinelands Magnificent Failure, Harrisville, NJ" explores a ghost town in detail from its rise to its fall. All programs feature interesting and archival photographs in a new digital format.

Topics Listed: Plants, Pinelands Overview, Early Industry, Historic Sites and Lost Towns, Field Trips and Jersey Shore Lifesaving history.

Maris G. Gabliks

New Jersey Forest Fire Service
501 E. State Street
PO Box 404
Trenton, NJ 08625-0404
Work Phone: (609) 292-2977 Fax: (609) 984-0378
E-mail: maris.gabliks@dep.state.nj.us

Audience preferences: K - 12th students, college students, adult groups.
Times available: Speakers are available from the Forest Fire Service, subject to the availability of Forest Fire wardens from State Headquarters or from Field Offices in New Lisbon, Mays Landing and Franklin. Fire wardens may not be available during periods of high wildfire danger, particularly during the spring season from mid March through mid June
Honorarium required: none requested
Travel Compensation: none requested

Gabliks is a Division Forest Fire warden with the New Jersey Forest Fire Service. In addition to the Service's primary responsibility for the suppression of wildfires in the state's forested lands, information and education programs are provided to the general public in wildfire management, forest fire ecology, outdoor fire safety and fire prevention.

Topics: Fire Management and Protection

R. Bruce Gebhardt

123 West Mount Airy Avenue
 Philadelphia, PA 19119 (Philadelphia County)
 Phone and Fax: (215) 247-0384
 E-mail: rbgebhardt@yahoo.com

Audience preferences: students and adult groups.
 Times available: year around
 Honorarium required: $100 per program
 Travel compensation: gas, tolls, required meals

As long-time president/editor of one organization that studies North American fish and founder of another, Gebhardt has specialized in the study of Pinelands fish, "the jewels of the Pinelands," and has a slide collection depicting virtually all of them. He is also familiar with fish both nearby and distant. His photos have appeared on the covers and pages of national magazines; in the Audubon Society Field Guide on Fishes (North America); in the web site of the National Wildlife Federation (eNature.com); and in other media. His fish programs usually include Pinelands scenes as well.

Topic: Fishes of the Pinelands ("Jewels of the Pinelands").

Ted Gordon

31 Burrs Mill Road
 Southampton, NJ 08088 (Burlington County)
 Phone: (609) 859-3566
 E-mail: PBITGordon@aol.com

Audience preferences: 6th -12th, college students, adult groups
 Times available: year around; day and evening
 Honorarium required: $140 per slide program
 Travel compensation: $0.45 per mile (not required for field trips)

Gordon is known statewide for his knowledge of the trails, historic sites, industries, people, and the rare and endangered plants and animals of the Pinelands. He is a past president of the Philadelphia Botanical Club, serves as chair of the Governor's Natural Areas Council, and has served as chair of the Pinelands Forestry Advisory Committee and as a member of the Pinelands Commission. Many have enjoyed his Pinelands courses, canoe trips, bus and jeep tours, and hikes in the Pines. Tours to "forgotten" towns and field trips to special habitats can be arranged.

Topics: Wildlife, Endangered Pinelands Plants and Animals, Pinelands, Habitats, Cranberry Farming, Plants, Pinelands Overview, Early Industry, Historic Sites and Lost Towns, Canoeing, Field Trips, and Fire ecology

David Grant

Director, The Ocean Institute-Brookdale College
 P.O. Box 533
 Sandy Hook, NJ 07732 (Monmouth County)
 Work Phone: (732) 224-2435
 E-mail: dgrant@brookdale.cc.nj.us
 Website: www.brookdalecc.edu/staff/sandyhook/dgrant

Audience preferences: 4th - 12th, college students, and adult groups
 Times available: year around; day and evening
 Honorarium required: $75 fee donated to Brookdale College
 Travel compensation: $0.30 per mile

Grant is knowledgeable about aquatic and estuarine creatures, barrier beaches, wetlands and wetlands protection, birds, and other wildlife. He is author of National Audubon Society's "Saving N.J. Wetlands: A Citizen's Guide to Action."

Topics: Wildlife, Pinelands Overview, Biking, Hiking, Nature Photography, Fire Ecology, and Coastal Studies

William D. Guthrie, PhD.

8 Poor Farm Road
 Pennington, NJ 08534 (Mercer County)
 Work Phone: (609) 895-5443
 Home Phone: (609) 737-2630

Audience preferences: all ages
 Times available: year around during the day and evening, except July and Aug.
 Honorarium required: $75 per program
 Travel compensation: none requested

Guthrie is Associate Professor of the School of Education, Rider University. By studying and recreating folklore of the Lenape, especially stories, songs, dance, and crafts, he makes presentations to various groups including school classes, historical associations, and other organizations. These presentations are marked by audience participation and inclusion of artifacts.

Topics: History and Archaeology, Lenape

Joe Houdart

203 West 9th Street,
Thorofare, NJ 08086 (Gloucester County)
Home Phone: (856) 845-2175

Audience preferences: kindergarten through twelfth grade students, college students, adult groups

Times available: year around; evenings and weekends

Honorarium required: $75 per program

Travel compensation: $0.20 per mile

A teacher for over 30 years, Houdart has a master's degree in conservation and environmental education. He has worked as an environmental education consultant and is a former director of a Youth Conservation Corps in Lebanon State Forest. Houdart was also a member of the Pinelands curriculum team.

Topics: Cranberry, Pinelands Overview, and Fire Ecology

Amy Howell, PD. D

Marucci Center for Blueberry & Cranberry Research
Rutgers University
125A Lake Oswego Road
Chatsworth, NJ 08019
Phone: (609) 726-1590 ext. 4413
Email: ahowell@aesop.rutgers.edu

Amy Howell is a research scientist at the Rutgers University Marucci Center for Blueberry and Cranberry Research. She offers scientific evidence (published in the Journal of the American Medical Association) in regard to the health benefits of blueberries and cranberries.

Topics: Health benefits of Blueberries and Cranberries

G. Russell Juelg

Director for Outreach
Pinelands Preservation Alliance
Bishop Farmstead 17 Pembert Road
Southampton, NJ 08088 (Burlington County)
Phone: (609) 859-8860
Web site: www.pinelandsalliance.org

Audience preferences: all ages, groups

Times available: year around

Honorarium required: negotiable

Travel compensation: negotiable

Juelg draws attention to the many valuable and unique features of the Pinelands using educational and outdoor adventure programs. These programs are all available through Pinelands Preservation Alliance: the Special Pinelands Plants Course (botanical training), Basic Wilderness Survival (practical wilderness skills), Navigating the Pinelands (orienting and dead reckoning), Canoeing Piney Rivers (naturalist studies along the Batsto River), and the Jersey Devil Hunt (a nocturnal folklore adventure). Juelg is also available to give presentations on native plant landscaping and gardening, general Pinelands ecology, and threatened and endangered species of the Pinelands.

Topics: Ecology, Botany, Threatened and Endangered Species, Wilderness Survival Training, Land Navigation Training, Guided Canoe Trips, Native Plant Gardening and Landscaping.

Betty Ann Kelly

208 Cranford Avenue
Cranford, NJ 07016 (Union County)
Phone: (908) 497- 0018

Audience preferences: kindergarten through twelfth grade students, college students and adult groups

Times available: year around; evenings

Honorarium required: $50

Travel compensation: none requested

Kelly is an environmental specialist and an administrator for the Union County Parks and Recreation Department. She was formerly with the Trailside Nature and Science Center and the Conservation and Environmental Studies Center, Whitesbog.

Topics: Wildlife, Bird Watching, Blueberry framing, Cranberry Framing, Plants, Agriculture in the Pinelands, Hiking, and Fire Ecology.

John E. Kuser, Associate Professor
Dept. of Natural Resources, Cook College
P.O. Box 231,
New Brunswick, NJ 08903 (Middlesex County)
Work Phone: (732) 932-9211
Home Phone: (609) 924-0380
Fax: (732) 932-8746
email: kuser@aesop.rutgers.edu

Audience preferences: college students, adult groups
Times available: year around
Honorarium required: $50 per program paid to the Forestry Research Account,
Rutgers University
Travel compensation: none requested

Kuser specializes in forest genetics, urban forestry, and cedar swamp restoration.

Fred Lesser
804 Radnor Avenue
Pine Beach, NJ 08741 (Ocean County)
Phone: (732) 349-4669

Audience preferences: kindergarten through twelfth grade students, college students, adult groups
Times available: year around; day and evening
Honorarium required: $100 per program
Travel compensation: $0.20 per mile for programs requiring travel distance greater than 50 miles. In some cases, travel compensation may be in lieu of an honorarium.

Lesser is a professional biologist who has approximately 40 years experience in the Pinelands. He has an AAS degree in forestry from Paul Smith College, a BS in wildlife biology from North Carolina State University, and an MS in entomology from the University of Delaware.

Topics: Wildlife, Bird Watching, Hunting, and Costal Studies

Ned Lipman
Cook College, Rutgers University
Office of Continuing Professional Education
102 Ryders Lane
New Brunswick, NJ 08901-8519 (Middlesex County)
Phone: (732) 932-9271

Audience preferences: kindergarten through twelfth grade students, college students, adult groups, mature adults his favorite
Times available: year around; day programs preferred
Honorarium required: $50 or by arrangement
Travel compensation: $0.25 per mile

Lipman is Director of Continuing Professional Education at, Cook College, Rutgers University. His family has a long time commitment to education and agriculture. Grandson of Rutgers' first dean of agriculture and son of a former Ocean Spray executive, he helps manage the family's Ocean County cranberry bogs and oversees the University's short course program.

Topics: Cranberry farming

Terri Loy
Education Coordinator
Woodford Cedar Run Wildlife Refuge
4 Sawmill Road,
Medford, NJ 08055 (Burlington County)
Work Phone: (856) 983-9702
Email: terri.loy@cedarrun.org
Web site: www.cedarrun.org

Audience preferences: pre-K and up including adult groups.
Times available: year around; Mon-Sat, some evenings.
Honorarium required: $250 per program
Travel compensation: expenses above 25 miles radius

Topics: Birds of Prey (specialty), birdwatching, Pinelands Flora and Fauna, Endangered Species, Wildlife rehabilitation, Watersheds and habitats

James McCloy

402 Rosewood Drive
Newark, DE 19713 (New Castle County)
Home Phone: (302) 738-9561

Audience preferences: 11th, 12th grade, college students, adult groups
Times available: year around; days, evenings, and weekends
Honorarium required: $150 per program
Travel compensation: none requested

McCloy and Ray Miller, Jr. are co authors of The Jersey Devil, published in 1976, and Phantom of the Pines: More Tales of the Jersey Devil, published in 1998. McCloy's presentation traces the history and folklore of this unique legend.

Topics: Jersey Devil

Matthew P. McCort

575 Toms River Road
Jackson, NJ 08527
Phone: (609) 618-0315
E-mail: mmcort@herpetologicalassociates.com

McCort specializes in Pinelands threatened and endangered species including reptiles amphibians and birds with a emphasis on survey methodology.

Audience preferences:
Times available:
Honorarium required:
Travel compensation:

Topics: Threatened and Endangerd species

Daniel R. McMahan

2 West Narberth Terrace
Collingswood, NJ 08108
Phone: (856) 869-5271 or (856) 979-5457
e-mail: danielmcm@juno.com

Audience preferences: adult groups, K- 12 grade, college students
Times available: year around; day and evening; willing to fill in for a last minute speaker cancellation if available
Honorarium required: Variable
Travel compensation: Based on organization normal policy

A lifelong South Jersey resident, McMahan has a master's degree in business and a bachelor's degree in literature. His wealth of employment experiences includes college administration, photography, news reporting, clam digging, truck driving, teaching, and radio announcing. Presently he is an educational consultant and has his own antique business. His frequent travels have taken him to Alaska, Iceland, Australia, Singapore, the British Isles, France, Galapagos Islands, Egypt, Italy and Greece.

Dr. Samuel Moyer

911 Larkspur Place South
Mt. Laurel, NJ 08054 (Burlington County)
Phone: (856) 222-0713
Email: moyerbse@aol.com

Audience preferences: college students and adult groups
Times available: year around, by arrangement
Honorarium required: for broom making demonstrations the sale of brooms covers the cost of the program
Travel compensation: none requested

Moyer, a retired professor in the biological sciences, is a juried member of the Pennsylvania Guild of Craftsmen. He received his doctorate in genetics from the University of Minnesota. Known as the "Jersey Jerry Broomsquire," he has developed new hybrids of broomcorn adapted for machine harvest and is currently developing sorghum hybrids for tree free paper.

Topics: Broom Making

David C. Mudge

Old York Road
Burlington, NJ 08016 (Burlington County)
Work Phone: (609) 530-2987
Home Phone: (609) 499-2654
E-mail: arkydave@aol.com

Audience preferences: kindergarten through twelfth grade students, college students and adult groups. Times available: evening year round
Honorarium required: an honorarium is appreciated, though not required; amount is at discretion of organization
Travel compensation: none required, but gratefully accepted

Mudge is an archaeologist for the State of New Jersey and has extensive background in state and local history.

Topics: History and Archaeology, Early Industry, and Lenape,

Michael R. O'Brien

22 Richards Avenue
Pine Hill, NJ 08021 (Camden County)
Phone: (856) 783-1103

Audience preferences: kindergarten through twelfth grade students, college students and adult groups
Times available: most evenings and some days; no holidays; field trips on weekends
Honorarium required: $50 per lecture; $50 for half day field trip, $100 for full day field trip
Travel compensation: $0.30 per mile

An enthusiastic and knowledgeable lepidopterist, O'Brien is very much at home in the field. His interest in insects as well as birds and plants spans nearly three decades. He is past president and past program chair of the Atlantic Audubon Society and currently their bluebird project coordinator for Atlantic, Camden, Gloucester, and parts of Burlington counties. He is also a past vice president for Audubon Wildlife Society and is currently a member of the Pine Hill Environmental Commission. "New Jersey's Pinelands: A Region at Risk?" and includes a companion guide for teachers.

Topics listed: Wildlife, Bird Watching, and Plants

Pinelands Institute for Natural & Environmental Studies (P.I.N.E.S.)

120-13 Whitesbog Road, Whitesbog Village
Browns Mills, NJ 08015
Phone: (609) 893-1765

Audience preferences: Kindergarten through twelfth grade students, college students and adult groups
Times available: Year round, Monday-Friday 8:30am to 4:30pm
Honorarium required: Yes
Travel compensation: Yes
Please call for current prices.

The P.I.N.E.S. staff includes teachers and environmental educators that conduct on site and outreach programs focusing on a variety of Pinelands topics.

Topics: Wildlife, Plants, Cranberry farming, Lenape, and Fire Ecology

Franklin A. Reusch, Jr.

13 Cypress Road
Toms River, NJ 08753 (Ocean County)
Home Phone: (732) 349-2792

Audience preferences: ninth through twelfth grade students, college students, adult groups
Times available: Monday through Friday evenings for programs and Saturdays for field trips
Honorarium required: $75 to $100 per program depending on the organization and its ability to pay. The honorarium will be for a nonprofit organization designated by the speaker. Field trips are $50.
Travel compensation: none requested

Reusch is an adjunct associate professor in psychology at Ocean County College. He is a retired school psychologist. He is twice past president of the Jersey Shore Audubon Society, the field trip chair, and a member of its board of directors for over 20 years. He was a founding member of the Barnegat Bay Watershed Association and its first president. He has been involved in photographing, hiking, and exploring the Pine Barrens for more than two decades.

Topics: Bird Watching

David Schneider

575 Toms River Road
 Jackson, NJ 08019
 Work phone: (732) 833-8600
 Home phone (856) 662-4309
 E-mail: daveschneider@optonline.net

Audience preferences:
 Times available:
 Honorarium required:
 Travel compensation:

David presents Endangered and Threatened snakes of the Pine Barrens and Endangered and Threatened species of the Pine Barrens.

Topics: Threatened and Endangered species

Lynne Chase Shoemaker

109 Mary Bell Road
 Manahawkin, NJ 08050-7872 (Ocean County)
 Home Phone: (609) 698-2818
 E-mail: lbshoe@comcast.net

Audience preferences: K-12th grade students, college students and adults
 Times available: Any time except January -March
 Honorarium required: donation of $25 per program requested; contributions will be used to purchase one acre of Central or South American rain forest
 Travel compensation: $0.20 per mile

Shoemaker taught biology at Southern Regional High School and Ocean County College and has served on the staff of The Governor's School on the Environment at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey. A graduate of Rutgers University with a master's degree in ecology, she authored the "Rain Forest Resource Guide for Teachers,"! a National Audubon Society publication.

Topics: Winter in the Pinelands and Bats

Karenne F. Snow

P.O. Box 626
 Medford, NJ 08055 (Burlington County)
 Phone: (609) 953-1987
 Fax: (856) 596-7020 (use a cover page)
 e-mail: NJWREN@aol.com

Audience preferences: second grade through twelfth grade students, Scout groups, camp groups, college students and adult groups
 Times available: year around; day and evening
 Honorarium required: $125 for complete program; lecture arrangements can be made at a reduced fee
 Travel compensation: $0.25 per mile if round trip exceeds 50 miles

Snow is a geologist, naturalist, and author. She co authored Gem Trails of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, was contributing author to New Jersey Wildlife Viewing Guide and her column, "Wild Suburbia," runs in several newspapers. Her program specialties in Pinelands topics include wildlife, ecology, birds, and geology. A complete program to a school, club, or organization includes slides, objects, props, and/or activities. She also leads natural history walks and canoeing trips through Wren's Natural History Tours and Programs
 Topics: Wildlife, Bird Watching, Pinelands Habitats, Plants, Canoeing, FieldTrips, Aquatic Ecology, and Coastal Studies

John Volpa

4 Eustace Road
 Marlton, NJ 08053 (Burlington County)
 Phone: (609) 268-0440 (day) (856) 797-9117 (evening)
 E-mail: johnvolpa@comcast.net

Audience preferences: college students and adult groups
 Times available: year round, late afternoon and evening
 Honorarium required: $150
 Travel compensation: $0.31 per mile

Volpa presents "Pine Barrens Perspective," an interactive Power Point presentation which takes a holistic view of the many facets of the Pinelands including geology, biology, hydrology and history. Volpa has 31 years of teaching experience and leads outdoor adventure pursuits for R.E.I.'s Outdoor School.

Topics: Pinelands Overview, Pine Barrens connections to Costa Rica

Dorothy S. Yates

97 New Road
Tabernacle, NJ 08088 (Burlington County)
Phone: (609) 268-0664

Audience preferences: kindergarten through twelfth grade students and adult groups
Times available: February, March, April, October, November day and evening; Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday (except second Thursday of month)
Honorarium required: $10 for adult groups; no charge for students
Travel compensation: $10 for all adult group presentations; no charge for students in grades K 12

Yates is a member of a third generation Pinelands family. She and her husband own and operate a blueberry farm and for ten years she served as tax assessor for Tabernacle and Woodland townships.

Topics: Blueberry Framing

Robert T. Zappalorti

Herpetological Associates, Inc.
575 Toms River Road
Jackson, NJ 08527 (Ocean County)
Phone: (732) 833-8600

Audience preferences: seventh through twelfth grade students, college students and adult groups
Times available: year around
Honorarium required: $100 for a one to two hour program
Travel compensation: $0.32 per mile

Zappalorti, author of The Amateur Zoologist's Guide to Turtles and Crocodilians, presents his lectures using color slides as well as live snakes, turtles, lizards, and frogs. He will present any of the following topics: "The Ecology of the Timber Rattlesnakes in the Pinelands," "The Snakes of the NJ Pinelands," "Reptiles and Amphibians of the Pine Barrens," "The Amphibians of the New Jersey Pinelands."

Topics: Wildlife, Endangered Pinelands Plants Animals, and Reptiles and Amphibians

Bonnie I. Zimmer

206 Forman Avenue
Point Pleasant Beach, NJ 0842 (Ocean County)
Work Phone: (609) 748-2000 Home Phone: (732) 899-5797
e-mail: sandbox@bellatlantic.net

Audience preferences: adults, college students and well motivated high school groups
Times available: evenings and weekends; occasionally daytime
Honorarium required: negotiable
Travel compensation: $0.35 per mile

Topics: Canoeing, Field Trips, and Nature Photography

New Jersey Pinelands Commission
PO Box 359
15 Springfield Road
New Lisbon, New Jersey 08064
Phone: (609) 894-7300
Email: info@njpines.state.nj.us
Web Site: www.nj.gov/pinelands/