Content Note

This series contains records related to the regiments, brigades, battalions and cavalries that made up the New Jersey National Guard. These records reflect the constant re-organization of the National Guard.

The records preserved in this series were sent by the companies to the Adjutant General in Trenton. The records include: Quarterly Returns which list the changes in the companies, such as new enlistments and soldiers mustered out, and the regiment as a whole over a three month span; Muster Rolls and Return of Annual Muster and Inspection which annually lists the members of the reporting Company and includes name, rank, age and enrollment dates; Inspection Reports which detail the annual inspection of the company; Oaths of Enlistment and Allegiance which give the soldier's name, place of birth, age, physical description and occupation; and Reports of election of officers and correspondence.

NOTE: These records have not been processed.
