Content Note

This series contains promotion rolls for the academic years 1917-18 through 1931-32. Arranged roughly alphabetically for each year, promotion sheets record the following information for each student: days present, grades for subjects, character traits, trades and academic subjects taken, group promoted to, and remarks (on graduation or reason for leaving, for example). ACCESS NOTE: Students records are restricted from use for research by the public, with the exception of requests from former Bordentown students for their own individual student records.
