Reference Notes: This collection was part of a larger Secretary of State series called "Letters, Deeds and Miscellaneous Records, 1703-1873." It is assumed that this collection came to the Archives predecessor agency, Bureau of Archives and History, with other material in the 1962.007 accessions on Secretary of State's filings. The deeds from that collection were merged with other deeds from various collective series to form the New Jersey State Archives/ Deeds and Miscellaneous Land Records series. Includes bonds, powers of attorney letters, accounts, road records and on 1817 item regarding a slave named London.
