Baseline Document Change Announcement

2001 Standard Specifications for Road and Bridge Construction in English Units

BDC00S-5

December 26, 2001

Subject: Release of 2001 Standard Specifications Book in U.S. Customary English Units

The English 2001 Standard Specifications for Road and Bridge Construction – White Book is being released by the Department in bound book form and CD-ROM. The English 2001 Standard Specifications – White Book has been developed by incorporating the English version of Standard Input (SI98DOT2), as well as various Baseline Documents Changes amending the 1996 Standard Specifications as revised by the 1998 Supplemental Specifications.

The Department will release future revisions to the English 2001 Standard Specifications, in the corresponding English 2001 Standard Input (SI2001E1). Any revision to the SI will supersede the text of the English 2001 Standard Specifications. Issuance of SI2001E1 will follow via Baseline Document Change Announcement.

A summary outlining the revisions incorporated in the 2001 Standard Specifications book is included as an Attachment to this Announcement. The English 2001 Standard Specifications shall be used in conjunction with the following baseline documents issued in U.S. Customary English Units:
