New Jersey Department of State’s Request for Proposal to privatize the management and operation of the War Memorial facility

BACKGROUND

The War Memorial was built in 1932 as a memorial to those from Trenton and Mercer County who died during World War I. The War Memorial is part of New Jersey’s State House Capital Complex in the downtown Trenton area. Located at 1 Memorial Drive, the building is a short walk from the State House, the nation’s second oldest capitol building, the State Library, the NJ State Museum and the Old Barracks Museum. Additionally, the War Memorial is located adjacent to the Lafayette Yard Marriott and is a short drive or walk to the Sun National Bank Center and Mercer County Waterfront Park on the Delaware River.

The War Memorial was reopened to the public in January 1999 following a five-year, 35 million restoration-renovations and is poised to recapture its place as one of the region’s finest performing arts center and conference centers in the area.

The Patriots Theater at the War Memorial is actively engaged in presenting performing arts events for the community; including music, dance, comedy, opera and family programming. Presently the theater is home to the Greater Symphony Orchestra, the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, Boheme Opera New Jersey, the Garden State Theatre Organ Society, and the American Repertory Ballet. The Trenton War Memorial has served as a world-class stage for ballerinas and divas, maestros and magicians, crooners and cowboys, jazz stars and jokesters, presidents and governors, as well as for the top tier of New Jersey’s governmental, social, cultural and business leadership.

The War Memorial building has several interior spaces including the Patriots Theater, an 1800 seat concert hall; the George Washington Ballroom, which can accommodate up to 500 people for banquets, meetings or performances; the Turning Point Conference Room and the Woodrow Wilson Board Room, which are used for meetings and smaller parties, accommodating 75 people each; and the Delaware River Room, a banquet and meeting space below the ballroom that accommodates 300. The War Memorial building also houses a high-tech room, used as a production office for visiting companies. The facility also has 8 dressing rooms, 1 with a private restroom, 2 common restrooms and 2 single showers for the performers.

The War Memorial utilizes the occasional labor of experienced stagehands to present professional performances, to maintain the theatrical equipment, and to provide professional sound and lighting services for conferences and banquet clients.
