State of New Jersey Unclaimed Property Auction

Welcome to the State of New Jersey's Unclaimed Property Silent Bid Auction at the 'Antique Show' in Atlantic City, March 10 & 11, 2012.

The items listed in the State's catalogue are from safe deposit boxes that have been unclaimed by their owners for more than five years. The holders of unclaimed safekeeping contents are required under N.J.S.A. 46:30B-45 to report these items to the State. The proceeds from the sale of safekeeping items will be held in the Unclaimed Property Trust Fund in the names of the rightful owners until these owners are reunited with the proceeds.

Please be sure to read the attached Terms and Conditions and bidding rules before bidding on any items.

Thank you for participating in our auction. Good Luck.

RULES OF SILENT BID AUCTION

1. The State will provide a catalog of lots with the appraiser's descriptions. Each lot will be on hand at the auction. The lots will be available for visual inspection in person at our Unclaimed Property booth during the hours of the Antique Show only. Any specific handling of the lots will be on a case by case basis and at the discretion of the Treasury employees on hand at the auction.
2. New Jersey Treasury Department employees and their immediate family members are prohibited from bidding.
3. The State has the right to deny any bidder from the Auction.
4. The State will provide a minimum bid amount for each lot. No bids below the minimum bid will be honored. No exceptions.
5. Bids must be in dollar increments (you may not bid in cents). Bids made with cents will be accepted with the dollar amount only and the cents will be omitted (rounded down). No exceptions.
6. Purchasers must use the attached Silent Bidder Form to qualify for a winning bid. All requested information on the form is required for the bid to be valid. The Silent Bidder Form shall be hand delivered to a State Representative at the Unclaimed Property booth. Bids will be accepted until 1:00pm on Sunday, March 11, 2012.
7. Ties: All ties of highest bids will be settled as follows; the bidders with the same bid will be notified of a tie and asked to bid up the lot, if they so choose. If there is a second tie the same process will be completed. After the tie is settled only the winning bidder will be notified.
8. Winning bids will be available at the Unclaimed Property Booth at approximately 2:00 pm Sunday March 11th. Winning bidders must pay and take possession of lots, Sunday. All sales are final, "as is". If you are not happy with the lot you have won, "Do not accept the item". Once you leave the booth settlement table there will be NO returns.
9. Terms of Payment (terms subject to change):
Winning Bidders can pay at the Unclaimed Property booth by Cash or credit card (Visa and MasterCard only). There are no payment fees.

DESCRIPTION OF ITEMS

An independent certified appraiser has viewed all items. The State of New Jersey contracted an appraiser to determine a fair market value for the items. Descriptions of items are provided as a guide. Goldmarks on items are accepted as marked, have been assayed and where there are discrepancies it will be stated. Stones were not removed from their mountings for testing or weighing. The appraisal is to ensure that the State auctions the items at a fair market price, NOT to assist the purchaser in determining the amount to which you want to pay for the item(s). The State of New Jersey assumes no liability as to the accuracy of any descriptions, quantity, weight, grade, quality, purity, value, or any other features(s).

ESTIMATED SELLING PRICE

As a convenience to the buyers, a minimum selling price has been provided. This selling price is the minimum bid that the State of New Jersey will accept to purchase the items.

STANDARD ABBREVIATIONS USED WHEN APPRAISED

K	karat	cz	size	pr.	pair
Dwt	pennyweight	c	circa	g.f.	gold filled

YG	yellow gold

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

The State of New Jersey, reserves the right to add to or withdraw from the auction any items listed or not listed, when it is in the best interest of the State. Changes to terms and conditions of sale, may be announced before or during the course of the auction.

All items are sold AS IS, The State provides no warranty concerning these items, either expressed or implied. The State shall not be responsible for the correct description, authenticity, genuineness, or defect in any lot and makes no warranty in connection therewith. No allowance, refund or set aside will be made on account of any incorrectness, error in cataloging, imperfection, defect, or damage. Any descriptions or representations are for identification purposes only and are not to be construed as a warranty of any type. It is the responsibility of the buyer to have reviewed the merchandise and to have satisfied himself or herself as to its condition and value and to bid based upon that judgement.

The State maintains sole authority to resolve disputes. The State's decision shall be final and absolute. All questions or disputes regarding buyer, lot identity, price or quantity must be resolved immediately upon the sale of said lot. No changes or adjustments will be made at any later time. The record of the sale kept by the State will be considered final in the event of any dispute.

Ties: Again, all ties of highest bids will be settled as follows; the bidders with the same bid will be notified of a tie and asked to bid up the lot, if they so choose. If there is a second tie, the same process will be completed. After the tie is settled only the winning bidder will be notified.

Winning bids will be available at the Unclaimed Property Booth #704, approximately 2:00pm Sunday, March 11, 2012. Winning bidders must pay and take possession of lots on Sunday.

All descriptions of items for sale contained herein or provided orally or in writing at the time of the auction are believed to be correct. The State makes no representation or warranty, expressed or implied, as to the accuracy of any such description, and hereby specifically disclaims any such warranty. The buyer specifically agrees with and acknowledges the State's appraisal description of items when describing articles of jewelry. Gold or silver content means only that the State believes that the article described has been tested as to the gold or silver content, but the State makes no warranty that the gold or silver content is as described. Likewise, the description of an article as a diamond or other gem or the description of an article as being of a particular brand does not constitute any representation or warranty that the article is as described. The buyer hereby agrees to rely solely on his/her own expertise to determine the value of any item purchased rather than the description of any article contained in the catalog by the State.

The buyer agrees that the act of submitting a bid shall constitute acceptance of each and every term and condition contained in these Rules as well as any additional terms and conditions which may be posted at the auction or which may be announced by the State. The buyer agrees that in any dispute between the seller and the buyer or between competing bidders arising in connection with any sale at the auction, the State shall have the right but not the obligation to settle such dispute. The buyer shall abide by the decision of the State, and said decision shall be final with respect to such matter. The buyer further agrees to indemnify the State for all liabilities, damages, costs, and expenses including attorney's fees incurred in connection with any such dispute or in connection with any claim, litigation, controversy, dispute or proceeding arising from any purchase of an article by the buyer or from any subsequent sale of such article to any third party.

New Jersey Treasury Department employees and their immediate family members are prohibited from bidding.

TERMS OF PAYMENT (terms subject to change)
