VII. Executive Committee Report

Kathryn Giovanelli asked the State Officers, "What experiences from Summit have helped you grow as a leader?"

VIII. Foundation Report

No report. Their meeting is being rescheduled.

X. State FFA Alumni & Supporters Report

No report. The next meeting will be held on August 12, 2026.

XI. Food, Agriculture & Natural Resources Education Advisory Council Report

No report.

XI. New Jersey Agriculture Society Report

The meeting was held on Wednesday, July 8th. At this meeting, they were introduced to many guests, reviewed the financial standing of the NJAS, and looked into their program updates. This past year, Farmers Against Hunger had gleaned 20,000 pounds of collected and cleaned produce. They are considering adopting a potential policy going forward for purchasing food gleaned by Farmers Against Hunger. Mrs. Kennedy also wanted to let us know about the Fall Farm To Table Event they will be holding on September 19th in Somerset County.

XII. Equine Advisory Board

Abigale DiGiamberardino attended the meeting. The Board discussed muscle aging program to learn more about aging and longevity to be able to catch early onset of some common equine issues. They also talked about a program which is able to travel and the entire workup takes about two hours. A problem being faced is Screw fly - similar to bot flies, cases in NM and TX, they damage tissue with wounds and after surgery causing decay and in most cases if untreated can lead to death or euthanizing the horse. There are worries about cases spreading, however the flies don't survive in the winter. The board also discussed upcoming shows and events around the state.

XIII. New Jersey Association of Agricultural Educators

Mr. Cruzan discussed the summer conference held at Essex County-West Caldwell School with workshops for educators and the year of service dinner. Their next meeting will take place after the conclusion of the Fall Ag Ed Conference.

XIV. Unfinished Business

A. State Officer Summit

From July 13-17, 2026, our State Officer Team along with Ms. Allen traveled down to Washington D.C. for the State Officer Summit. While there, they met with legislators on Capitol Hill, created lasting friendships with State Officers from across the Country, learned how to advocate for agriculture and FFA, and even went on a nighttime monument tour where we heard reflections from the National Officer Team.

B. Summer CDE- Safe Tractor Operations Event

Safe Tractor Operations Event took place on Tuesday, July 21, 2026 at Burlington County Fairgrounds. Grace Campbell and Jacob Bramble were in attendance along with Mrs. Noble and Ms. Allen. There were 6 participants from 2 chapters, Allentown and Warren Hills. Congratulations to all and to Matthew Mains from the Allentown FFA Chapter for placing 1st.

C. Checkpoint #1

State officers completed Checkpoint #1 at the Rutgers EcoComplex from July 28-30, 2026. The conference focused on continued leadership development and preparation for upcoming New Jersey FFA events and responsibilities. Officers reviewed materials from Base Camp, completed their Measures of Success Evaluator and Growth Plan packets, participated in planning sessions, and collaborated on goals for the year. The training also provided opportunities for professional development, team collaboration, and preparation for future conferences and state officer responsibilities.

D. I AM Training

On Friday, July 31, 2026, the State Officers participated in I AM Training with Payton Carter. During the I AM Training, they learned about the I AM curriculum, discussed themes, and began working on their I AM workshops for Mega E.

E. Chapter Visit Boot Camp

On September 10 and 11, the officers will receive training on chapter visits and visit a local school to facilitate a chapter visit and practice their facilitation skills.

F. 98th National FFA Convention

a. Delegates

Breanna and PJ will serve as leadership delegates for our state association at the National Convention. Kayla will serve as the delegate New Jersey is allotted per our state association's population. They will work in different committees to elect change on the national level. PJ and Breanna started this process with the delegate lottery and first two committee meetings at the State Officer Summit, and will continue to keep in touch with our committees throughout the late summer and early fall in order to coordinate further before Nationals.

b. Flag Bearer

This year Jacob Bramble will be the New Jersey flag bearer.

c. State Suite

New Jersey FFA uses the state suite for all general sessions at the National Convention. The state suite gives members the opportunity to sit with the state officers and build meaningful connections with one another.

d. Recognition Program

At Nationals, the state recognizes members receiving their Honorary Degrees and American Degrees, as well as Agriscience Fair finalists and CDE/LDE winners. There is also a breakfast held on Wednesday morning of the convention. The officers should begin brainstorming what they want to say at the breakfast.

G. State Theme T-Shirt and Thank You Gift

The officer team has chosen notebooks as our thank-you gifts. They are also finalizing the State Theme T-shirts to be worn at Mega E, which may feature the state logo in black and white.

H. Eastern States Exposition

The Big E will take place September 18–19, 2026, in Springfield, Massachusetts. Kayla, Peter, and Breanna will be attending the Big E. Central Region Vice President Claire Woeppel will also be at the Big E this year. State officers can attend as event assistant volunteers. Allentown plans to participate in Extemporaneous Public Speaking; Buena plans to participate in the Star Program; Hunterdon County ESEA plans to participate in Parliamentary Procedure and Prepared Public Speaking; Hunterdon County Polytech plans to participate in Dairy Cattle Evaluation and Management; Northern Burlington plans to participate in Agricultural Technology and Mechanical Systems; and Salem Tech plans to participate in Agricultural Issues Forum.

XV. New Business

A. Association Budget

Motion by Elizabeth to table discussing the association budget until next month.

Peter DelCollo seconds. Motion passes.

B. Coast Analysis

- a. Mega “E” Conference
- b. Advocacy and Legislative Leadership Day

Motion by Elizabeth to table discussing the Mega “E” Conference and Advocacy and Legislative Leadership Day Cost Analysis until next month.

Aaron Foote seconds. Motion passes.

C. Fall Ag Ed Conference

The Fall Agricultural Education Conference will be held on Friday, September 25, 2026, at the Rutgers EcoComplex. During the final five minutes of the FFA Update, Breanna will deliver a speech to the audience. Her speech will focus on this year’s State FFA theme, including what it means to the State Officer Team and how she hopes advisors and members will embrace and embody the theme throughout the 2026–2027 year.

D. FFA in the USA Reporter Program

Applications end this upcoming Friday, August 7. This program will allow FFA members to share their stories with the entire National FFA Organization. It is open to both State Officers and general members. There will also be online meetings and trainings to keep in mind.

E. International Leadership Seminar for State Officers

The 2027 International Leadership Seminar for State Officers (ILSSO) will take place in Spain and Portugal from January 4–17, 2027. Applications open July 15, with acceptance notifications sent in late August. The program costs $5,500, with a $750 non-refundable deposit due upon registration, and participants are encouraged to begin fundraising only after being accepted. A valid U.S. passport is required by November 4, 2026, and participants must complete 11 weeks of pre-trip coursework, which can earn up to an $850 scholarship toward the program cost. Travel will begin and end in Chicago, and participants should wait until acceptance before booking flights. The program has a structured itinerary, requires an international phone plan, and emphasizes professional representation of the National FFA Organization throughout the experience. Breanna, Kayla, and Jacob have all applied for ILSSO.

F. Mega “E” Conference

a. I AM Conference

The I AM Conference will take place Friday February 5 - Saturday February 6, 2027. This conference will be available to 11th & 12th grade FFA members, the NJ FFA State Officers will be facilitating the “I AM” Conference.

b. “Member Leadership Series” Connect Conference

The “Member Leadership Series” Connect Conference will take place Friday, February 5–Saturday, February 6, 2027. This conference will be available to ninth- and tenth-grade FFA members and will be facilitated by National facilitators.

i. State Greenhand Conference

This conference will be held during Mega E and will be open to first-year FFA members. The Executive Board will facilitate the conference.

ii. Leadership and Opportunity Conference

The Leadership Opportunities Conference, also known as LOC, is geared toward members who are not first-year members or chapter officers. Participants will explore leadership opportunities available to them in FFA and gain additional leadership skills.

iii. Chapter Officer Leadership Training

The conference will be held during the Mega E Conference and will be open to chapter officers. Participants will learn about team dynamics and responsibilities. Additional information, including the schedule, registration details, and event logistics, will be shared as the event approaches.

iv. State Officer Candidates' School

SOCS will be held at Mega E this year. Members interested in becoming State Officers can participate to gain a better understanding of what it is like to serve as a New Jersey FFA State Officer.

c. Timeline

The officers will follow a given timeline to ensure that all tasks are completed in a timely manner.

G. Agriculture/ Agricultural Education Issues Discussion

Kayla led a discussion on endangered species in New Jersey and wetland conservation efforts taking place throughout the state. Endangered Species are those whose prospects for survival in New Jersey are in immediate danger because of a loss or change in habitat, over-exploitation, predation, competition, disease, disturbance, or contamination. Assistance is needed to prevent future extinction in New Jersey. Threatened Species are those who may become endangered if conditions surrounding them begin to or continue to deteriorate. New Jersey is home to a wide variety of wildlife, including more than 80 endangered and threatened species. 103 wildlife species are listed as endangered or threatened. Habitat loss, pollution, climate change, invasive species, and development have placed many native plants and animals at risk. By conserving wetlands and protecting endangered species, New Jersey helps preserve its natural resources for future generations while maintaining healthy ecosystems that benefit both wildlife and people.

H. State Officer Milage

July Milage was due Saturday, August 1. August Milage will be due at the beginning of September. Officers are encouraged to submit their monthly mileage.

XVI. Closing Ceremonies

The meeting was adjourned at 10:01 am. The next meeting will be held on September 14, 2026, at 4:00 pm.
